Any other reference, including Louisiana-Monroe, UL-Monroe, La.-Monroe, LAM, or simply Monroe, is incorrect. Additionally, all women's athletic teams are known simply as Warhawks -- not Lady Warhawks or Lady Hawks.

ULM WELCOMES BACK 1981-82 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM THIS WEEKEND

ULM men's basketball head coach Keith Richard will welcome back former players, coaches and staff members from the 1981-82 Warhawk NCAA Tournament team this weekend as part of a 30th anniversary reunion.

The weekend includes a reception at Dr. Bruno's home on Friday evening and continues Saturday through the basketball doubleheader with South Alabama. The doubleheader kicks off with the women's game at noon followed by the men's game at 2 p.m. All members of the 1981-82 team in attendance will be recognized at halftime of the men's game.

Richard was a senior point guard on the 1981-82 Warhawks, which finished with a 19-11 record and lost 70-63 against Iowa in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Pullman, Wash. The NCAA Tournament game was great exposure for the ULM basketball program as the team played well against the heavily favored Hawkeyes in its first ever nationally televised game.

ULM was led that season by senior forward Donald Wilson (16.3 ppg, 7.4 rpg) and sophomore forward Terry Martin (14.6 ppg, 8.1 rpg). The two big men led a high-powered offense that shot 47.7 percent from the field and averaged 76.2 points per game. The team featured four 1,000-point scorers including Martin (1,523), Wilson (1,459), Gerald Morris (1,264) and Bruce Williams (1,016).

1981-82 was the first season for legendary head coach Mike Vining. It would be the first of seven NCAA Tournament teams for Vining. He is ULM's all-time winningest coach with 402 career victories.

BROWN REACHES 1,000 POINTS

Senior guard Fred Brown topped the 1,000-point milestone for his career with 16 points against FIU (Feb. 7). Brown, who scored 380 points in two seasons with Kansas State, has been the leading scorer for ULM the past two years. He has notched double figures in scoring 48 times in his career, including 13 times this season.

ULM CLOSING IN ON 900 WINS

In its 61st season of men's basketball, ULM is just five wins shy of reaching 900 in its history. The men's basketball program has been one of the finest at ULM over the years as the Warhawks have captured 10 regular season conference titles, eight conference tournament championships and have appeared in the NCAA Tournament seven times and the NIT twice.

MCCLELLAN MAKES SEASON DEBUT

Sophomore Steven McClellan saw his first action of the season Dec. 3 against Louisiana Tech. McClellan came off the bench with six points, seven rebounds and a blocked shot in 21 minutes of action. The 6-foot-7 center was slated to redshirt this season, but adds much needed height to the ULM frontcourt.

WARHAWK INK TWO IN EARLY SIGNING PERIOD

ULM men's basketball head coach Keith Richard announced Thursday the signing of high school seniors Kyle Koszuta and Taylor

EKE TO REDSHIRT IN 2011-12

ULM men's basketball head coach Keith Richard announced Tuesday that sophomore Ife Eke will redshirt during the 2011-12 season and will have three years of eligibility remaining starting next season. The Warhawks will play the season with nine scholarship players.

Eke suffered a season-ending injury by tearing his anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in practice last week and is expected to have surgery in the near future.

FAMILIAR FOES

ULM will renew in-state rivalries against former Southland Conference foes Northwestern State, Southeastern Louisiana and Nicholls State in 2011-12. The Warhawks will also face Louisiana Tech for the fourth consecutive season.

ULM has faced Northwestern State more than any other team as the two will meet for the 118th time this season. The Warhawks and Demons have not faced each other since 2005-06, the last season ULM competed in the Southland. Similarly, the Warhawks will meet Southeastern Louisiana for the 91st time and Nicholls

State for the 71st time in school history.

BROWN TABBED PRESEASON ALL-SUN BELT

Senior guard Fred Brown has picked up plenty of preseason accolades as he was named to virtually everyone's preseason All-Sun Belt team. Brown was chosen to All-Sun Belt Third Team by the conference coaches and College Sports Madness. Brown was also picked as one of the top five players in the Sun Belt by Jon Teitel of collegehoops.net.

BROWN, MINGO NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Head Coach Keith Richard named seniors Fred Brown and Hugh Mingo team captains for the 2011-12 season. Brown and Mingo are the two leading returning scorers from last season. They combined to make 58 starts and averaged over 32 minutes per game a year ago.

WARHAWKS PICKED SIXTH IN SUN BELT WEST DIVISION

ULM was picked to finish sixth in the West Division of the Sun Belt by its conference coaches. Arkansas State received 64 points and was picked to win the West, followed by UL-Lafayette (60), North Texas (50), Denver (40), UALR (26) and ULM (12).

Florida Atlantic got all but one first-place vote to earn the top spot in the East Division. The Owls were followed by Middle Tennessee (59), Western Kentucky (41), South Alabama (33), FIU (31) and Troy (17).

FANT-EWING COURT GETS NEW LOOK

The court inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum will have a new look to it when the ULM men's and women's basketball teams begin play in November.

The court has been redesigned and repainted with a fresh look, which includes the primary ULM logo at center court and "Warhawks" on each baseline. It is the first major renovation to the court since the fall of 2006.

The redesign also accommodates the new women's 3-point line, which moves back a foot to 20 feet, 9 inches (the same as the men) and the addition of the charge circle underneath each basket.

Fant-Ewing Coliseum has received several upgrades since 2009, including a new scoreboard and new scorer's tables.

HEAD COACH KEITH RICHARD

Keith Richard returned to his alma mater to become ULM's seventh men's basketball head coach on April 22, 2010. Now in his second season, Richard seeks to restore the rich tradition of the ULM men's basketball program — something he knows very well.

Richard became the second ULM men's basketball coach — joining Mike Vining — to have also been a student-athlete and an assistant coach for the program. He was with the Warhawks in both capacities for six of the program's seven NCAA Tournament appearances in the 80s and 90s.

The Warhawks finished 7-24 in Richard's first season that was plagued by scholarship limits and youth. Despite the record, the Warhawks were competitive, losing seven games by six points or less. The season highlight came in an 82-75 victory at North Texas in the final week of the regular season. The Warhawks also took down Big Sky Tournament champion Northern Colorado 78-75 in Fant-Ewing Coliseum on Dec. 22.

As a student-athlete, Richard bridged the transition from Lenny Fant to Benny Hollis to Vining. He played on Fant's final team, played two seasons for Hollis and then completed his playing career on Vining's first team. ULM won three Trans-America Athletic Conference championships during his four years and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1982, the school's first-ever appearance, and the NIT in 1979. He twice led the team in assists and was team captain in 1980-81 and 1981-82.

Following his playing career, Richard spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at ULM (1984-86), assisting as his alma mater won the Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles in 1985, earning a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Richard moved on to Marshall University for three years from 1986-89, helping the Thundering Herd win two Southern Conference crowns and a Southern Conference tournament title. Marshall participated in the 1987 NCAA Tournament and the 1988 NIT while Richard was on staff.

He returned to ULM for the 1989-90 season, spending five seasons as an assistant coach. In those five years, ULM won four Southland Conference regular season championships, four Southland Conference tournaments and made four appearances in the NCAA Tournament (1990, 1991, 1993, 1994). He departed in 1994 to join the staff at Louisiana Tech.

In his first season at Louisiana Tech, Richard helped the Bulldogs to the second biggest turnaround in the nation as they won 14 games after winning just two in the season prior to his arrival.

The following year Richard was promoted from assistant coach to associate head coach, spending three seasons in that capacity. He helped the Bulldogs reach the championship game of the Sun Belt Tournament in 1997, the school's first appearance in five seasons.

Richard became the head coach at Louisiana Tech prior to the 1998-99 season, guiding the Bulldogs for nine seasons. In his time at the helm of Louisiana Tech, Richard compiled a record of 150-117, the third-most wins in school history. In nine seasons, Richard had 11 players named all-conference, including three-time NCAA rebounding champion Paul Millsap, who went on to be drafted by the Utah Jazz. This season, Millsap will begin his fifth year with the Jazz.

During Richard's tenure at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs went on the road and won money games against the likes of Auburn, Baylor, Memphis (coached by John Calipari) and Texas Tech (coached by Bob Knight).

In his first season as head coach, Louisiana Tech won the Sun Belt regular season championship. Richard was named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and two players, Lonnie Cooper and Craig Jackson, earned all-conference accolades.

The next year, Richard guided Louisiana Tech to a 21-win season, the school's first of three 20-plus win seasons under Richard. Gerrod Henderson and Jackson earned All-Sun Belt honors that year, with Henderson named the Sun Belt's Most Valuable Player.

In 2001-02, Louisiana Tech moved from the Sun Belt into the Western Athletic Conference, where Richard immediately turned the Bulldogs into a contender for the conference crown, posting a 22-10 overall record, 14-4 in conference play. Led by Henderson, who earned All-WAC honors, Richard's Bulldogs earned a berth in the NIT, where they defeated Louisiana-Lafayette and Vanderbilt before falling to Villanova.

Richard took the Bulldogs to the postseason again during the 2005-06 season as Louisiana Tech won 20 games and earned a trip to the NIT. That year, Millsap was named as an All-WAC performer for the third consecutive season while also leading the nation in rebounding for the third-straight season.

In nine years as the head coach at Louisiana Tech, Richard's teams posted a conference record of 90-60, going 32-14 in three seasons in Sun Belt and 58-46 in six years in the WAC. At ULM, Richard returns to the Sun Belt where he currently stands as the league's 10th winningest coach in conference games, with a .696 winning percentage.

Prior to returning to guide his alma mater, Richard spent the past two seasons as an assistant coach at LSU, where he helped the Tigers win the 2008-09 SEC regular season championship and reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament before losing to eventual national champion North Carolina.

The defending Missouri Valley Tournament champions shot 45.0 percent from the field and knocked in eight 3-pointers to move to 2-0 on the season. ULM (0-2) countered by shooting 36.8 percent and going 9-of-19 from 3-point range to show dramatic improvement from Friday's season opener at Ole Miss.

LITTLE ROCK - UALR held off a late rally from ULM for a 70-66 victory over the Warhawks Saturday inside the Jack Stephens Center. The Trojans led 67-60 with 24 seconds remaining before ULM made it interesting at the end, getting within two in the final seconds.

Sophomore guard Marcelis Hansberry netted a career-high 22 points on 7-of-11 shooting from the field in 32 minutes of action for ULM. Senior guard Hugh Mingo chipped in 17 points, seven rebounds and three assists, and sophomore center Steven McClellan finished just shy of a double-double with eight points and 10 rebounds.

Trailing 67-60, ULM got back-to-back 3-pointers from Hansberry and senior guard Fred Brown to slice the deficit to 68-66 with 4.9 seconds remaining. UALR's D'Andre Williams got fouled and knocked home both free throws to seal the victory.
