We are ULM. Please note that there are only two correct versions of our institution's name, the preferred acronym ULM and the full name, the University of Louisiana at Monroe. Any other reference, including Louisiana-Monroe, UL-Monroe, La.-Monroe, LAM, or simply Monroe, is incorrect. Additionally, all women's athletic teams are known simply as Warhawks -- not Lady Warhawks or Lady Hawks.

The game is set to tip off at 7 p.m. inside the Super Pit and can be heard on 105.3 FM in Monroe or online at ulmwarhawks.com, with Nick White calling the action. UPDATING THE WARHAWKS

• ULM had arguably its best offensive performance of the season Saturday against South Alabama, but it was not enough as the Jaguars pulled out an 88-86 victory. The Warhawks topped 80 points for just the second time this season and had season highs in first-half points (43), 3-pointers made (14), assists (23) and steals (12).

• The Warhawks shot 47.6 percent from the field and finished 14 of 28 from 3-point range. ULM struggled at the free-throw line for the third straight game, going 12 of 20.

• Senior guard Fred Brown scored a career-best 28 points Saturday on 10-of-15 shooting, including a 6-of-10 performance from 3-point range. His 10 made field goals were a career best, and he came up one 3-pointer shy of reaching a career high.

Brown leads the team with 12.3 points per game. He has reached the 20-point plateau four times this season and 12 times in his career.

• Senior guard Hugh Mingo scored in double figures for the second straight game with 14 points against South Alabama. He also led the team with eight rebounds. Mingo has scored in double figures nine times this season and 24 times in two seasons with the Warhawks.

• Sophomore guard Charles Winborne added 12 points and freshman guard Trent Mackey chipped in 11 points for the Warhawks. The two combined to hit seven 3-pointers in the game. Mackey ranks second in the Sun Belt in 3-point percentage (.453) while Winborne ranks sixth (.430).

• Sophomore guard Marcelis Hansberry has been on tear over ULM's last three games. He recorded nine points, a career-high nine assists and four steals against South Alabama. Over his last three games, Hansberry is averaging 15.3 points and 4.0 assists per game.

• The Warhawks rank ninth in the Sun Belt in field-goal percentage (.406), second in 3-point percentage (.364) and seventh in free-throw percentage (.660). ULM also ranks fourth in the conference with 6.6 3-pointers made per game.

OTHER NOTES

• The Warhawks' 76-71 overtime loss to Western Kentucky (Dec. 29) was their first overtime game since Dec. 31, 2008 at UALR.

• ULM is 1-7 this season in games decided by five points or less, including 1-4 in Sun Belt play.

• ULM shot a season-best 62 percent from the field against Nicholls State (Nov. 28). It was the Warhawks' highest shooting percentage in a game since December of 2009.

• ULM has hung tough with some of the best teams in the country this season. The Warhawks led then No. 25 Mississippi State by two points with 14:13 remaining (Nov. 21) and most recently were tied 43-all at No. 22 Texas A&M with 13:20 to play (Dec. 10). In addition, ULM also had a second-half lead at Tennessee on Nov. 16.

• The Warhawks made at least 10 3-pointers in back-to-back games earlier this season. ULM had 11 3s against Harding (Nov. 26) and followed it up with 12 3s against Nicholls State (Nov. 28).

• The Warhawks are playing the 2011-12 season with just nine active scholarship players and are banned from participating in postseason play due to NCAA APR sanctions.

PREVIEWING THE MEAN GREEN

• North Texas lost 86-81 in overtime at Florida Atlantic on Saturday to drop to 7-5 in Sun Belt play. The Mean Green sit two games back of Western Division leader UALR with two weeks remaining. North Texas is shooting 43.3 percent from the field, 30.0 percent from 3-point range and 71.9 percent from the free-throw line.

• Freshman Tony Mitchell leads the Mean Green in scoring with 16.0 points per game. Mitchell is shooting 61.4 percent (89-of-145) from the field, 50 percent (15-of-30) from 3-point range and 73 percent (65-of-89) from the free-throw line in 16 games this season. Chris Jones adds 14.1 points per contest and Jordan Williams chips in 10.9 points per game.

• Johnny Jones has a record of 186-143 in his 11th season at the helm of the Mean Green. Jones has guided North Texas to at least 20 wins in five straight seasons, including trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2007 and 2010. He is the second winningest coach in school history.

SERIES HISTORY

ULM leads the all-time series with North Texas 28-22, including an 82-75 victory in Denton last season. The Warhawks have an 11-12 record in games played in Denton. North Texas defeated ULM 68-55 earlier this season in Monroe.

THE LAST TIME THE TWO TEAMS MET...

• North Texas built an early lead and held on for a 68-55 victory Jan. 14 inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum. Sophomore Charles Winborne was the only ULM player in double figures with 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting. Sophomore Steven McClellan recorded seven points and a career-high 13 rebounds.

• The Warhawks shot just 32.7 percent from the field and made 4 of 18 from 3-point range. ULM did outrebound North Texas 44-40. The 44 rebounds were a season high.

UP NEXT

The Warhawks wrap up a two-game road trip Saturday at Denver at 5 p.m. ULM returns home to face Middle Tennessee Thursday at 7:30 p.m. for Senior Night.

BROWN REACHES 1,000 POINTS

Senior guard Fred Brown topped the 1,000-point milestone for his career with 16 points against FIU (Feb. 7). Brown, who scored 380 points in two seasons with Kansas State, has been the leading scorer for ULM the past two years. He has notched double figures in scoring 49 times in his career, including 14 times this season.

ULM CLOSING IN ON 900 WINS

In its 61st season of men's basketball, ULM is just five wins shy of reaching 900 in its history. The men's basketball program has been one of the finest at ULM over the years as the Warhawks have captured 10 regular season conference titles, eight conference tournament championships and have appeared in the NCAA Tournament seven times and the NIT twice.

MCCLELLAN MAKES SEASON DEBUT

Sophomore Steven McClellan saw his first action of the season Dec. 3 against Louisiana Tech. McClellan came off the bench with six points, seven rebounds and a blocked shot in 21 minutes of action. The 6-foot-7 center was slated to redshirt this season, but adds much needed height to the ULM frontcourt.

WARHAWK INK TWO IN EARLY SIGNING PERIOD

ULM men's basketball head coach Keith Richard announced Thursday the signing of high school seniors Kyle Koszuta and Taylor Birchett to national letters of intent. Koszuta and Birchett are the first two players to sign with the Warhawks for the 2012-13 season.

"We are excited about Kyle and Taylor joining our team next season," Richard said. "They're great kids that come from great families and will help us move this program forward."

Koszuta, a 6-1 point guard, attends Niceville High School in Niceville, Fla. Koszuta averaged 16.1 points and 1.5 assists as a junior, helping the Eagles to a 15-9 record. He scored a season-best 31 points on 12-of-23 shooting against Bainbridge (Ga.) last season.

Birchett, a 6-4 shooting guard, attends Roswell High School in Roswell, Ga. He led his team in scoring with 16.5 points as a junior and helped Roswell to its first Georgia 'Sweet 16' appearance in 14 years. He shot 43.2 percent from the field (118-of-273) and 40.3 percent from 3-point range (54-of-134) as a junior and was named to the 6-5A all-region team and the All-North Fulton Prep Rally first team.

EKE TO REDSHIRT IN 2011-12

ULM men's basketball head coach Keith Richard announced Tuesday that sophomore Ife Eke will redshirt during the 2011-12 season and will have three years of eligibility remaining starting next season. The Warhawks will play the season with nine scholarship players.

Eke suffered a season-ending injury by tearing his anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in practice last week and is expected to have surgery in the near future.

FAMILIAR FOES

ULM will renew in-state rivalries against former Southland Conference foes Northwestern State, Southeastern Louisiana and Nicholls State in 2011-12. The Warhawks will also face Louisiana Tech for the fourth consecutive season.

ULM has faced Northwestern State more than any other team as the two will meet for the 118th time this season. The Warhawks and Demons have not faced each other since 2005-06, the last season ULM competed in the Southland. Similarly, the Warhawks will meet Southeastern Louisiana for the 91st time and Nicholls State for the 71st time in school history.

FANT-EWING COURT GETS NEW LOOK

The court inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum will have a new look to it when the ULM men's and women's basketball teams begin play in November.

The court has been redesigned and repainted with a fresh look, which includes the primary ULM logo at center court and "Warhawks" on each baseline. It is the first major renovation to the court since the fall of 2006.

The redesign also accommodates the new women's 3-point line, which moves back a foot to 20 feet, 9 inches (the same as the men) and the addition of the charge circle underneath each basket.

Fant-Ewing Coliseum has received several upgrades since 2009, including a new scoreboard and new scorer's tables.

HEAD COACH KEITH RICHARD

Keith Richard returned to his alma mater to become ULM's seventh men's basketball head coach on April 22, 2010. Now in his second season, Richard seeks to restore the rich tradition of the ULM men's basketball program — something he knows very well.

Richard became the second ULM men's basketball coach — joining Mike Vining — to have also been a student-athlete and an assistant coach for the program. He was with the Warhawks in both capacities for six of the program's seven NCAA Tournament appearances in the 80s and 90s.

The Warhawks finished 7-24 in Richard's first season that was plagued by scholarship limits and youth. Despite the record, the Warhawks were competitive, losing seven games by six points or less. The season highlight came in an 82-75 victory at North Texas in the final week of the regular season. The Warhawks also took down Big Sky Tournament champion Northern Colorado 78-75 in Fant-Ewing Coliseum on Dec. 22.

As a student-athlete, Richard bridged the transition from Lenny Fant to Benny Hollis to Vining. He played on Fant's final team, played two seasons for Hollis and then completed his playing career on Vining's first team. ULM won three Trans-America Athletic Conference championships during his four years and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1982, the school's first-ever appearance, and the NIT in 1979. He twice led the team in assists and was team captain in 1980-81 and 1981-82.

Following his playing career, Richard spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at ULM (1984-86), assisting as his alma mater won the Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles in 1985, earning a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Richard moved on to Marshall University for three years from 1986-89, helping the Thundering Herd win two Southern Conference crowns and a Southern Conference tournament title. Marshall participated in the 1987 NCAA Tournament and the 1988 NIT while Richard was on staff.

He returned to ULM for the 1989-90 season, spending five seasons as an assistant coach. In those five years, ULM won four Southland Conference regular season championships, four Southland Conference tournaments and made four appearances in the NCAA Tournament (1990, 1991, 1993, 1994). He departed in 1994 to join the staff at Louisiana Tech.

In his first season at Louisiana Tech, Richard helped the Bulldogs to the second biggest turnaround in the nation as they won 14 games after winning just two in the season prior to his arrival.

The following year Richard was promoted from assistant coach to associate head coach, spending three seasons in that capacity. He helped the Bulldogs reach the championship game of the Sun Belt Tournament in 1997, the school's first appearance in five seasons.

Richard became the head coach at Louisiana Tech prior to the 1998-99 season, guiding the Bulldogs for nine seasons. In his time at the helm of Louisiana Tech, Richard compiled a record of 150-117, the third-most wins in school history. In nine seasons, Richard had 11 players named all-conference, including three-time NCAA rebounding champion Paul Millsap, who went on to be drafted by the Utah Jazz. This season, Millsap will begin his fifth year with the Jazz.

During Richard's tenure at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs went on the road and won money games against the likes of Auburn, Baylor, Memphis (coached by John Calipari) and Texas Tech (coached by Bob Knight).

In his first season as head coach, Louisiana Tech won the Sun Belt regular season championship. Richard was named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and two players, Lonnie Cooper and Craig Jackson, earned all-conference accolades.

The next year, Richard guided Louisiana Tech to a 21-win season, the school's first of three 20-plus win seasons under Richard. Gerrod Henderson and Jackson earned All-Sun Belt honors that year, with Henderson named the Sun Belt's Most Valuable Player.

In 2001-02, Louisiana Tech moved from the Sun Belt into the Western Athletic Conference, where Richard immediately turned the Bulldogs into a contender for the conference crown, posting a 22-10 overall record, 14-4 in conference play. Led by Henderson, who earned All-WAC honors, Richard's Bulldogs earned a berth in the NIT, where they defeated Louisiana-Lafayette and Vanderbilt before falling to Villanova.

Richard took the Bulldogs to the postseason again during the 2005-06 season as Louisiana Tech won 20 games and earned a trip to the NIT. That year, Millsap was named as an All-WAC performer for the third consecutive season while also leading the nation in rebounding for the third-straight season.

In nine years as the head coach at Louisiana Tech, Richard's teams posted a conference record of 90-60, going 32-14 in three seasons in Sun Belt and 58-46 in six years in the WAC. At ULM, Richard returns to the Sun Belt where he currently stands as the league's 10th winningest coach in conference games, with a .696 winning percentage.

Prior to returning to guide his alma mater, Richard spent the past two seasons as an assistant coach at LSU, where he helped the Tigers win the 2008-09 SEC regular season championship and reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament before losing to eventual national champion North Carolina.

MONROE, La. - Freddie Goldstein hit a jumper with 32 seconds remaining as South Alabama squeaked out an 88-86 victory over ULM Saturday inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

With the score tied at 86, Goldstein dribbled the baseline and hit a floater in the lane to give the Jaguars the lead. The Warhawks had a chance to tie or take the lead on the final possession, but missed on five attempts before the clock expired.

Goldstein finished with a game-high 33 points, including nine 3-pointers for South Alabama, who improved to 14-10 overall, 6-7 in the Sun Belt.

On a night when ULM honored its 1981-82 NCAA Tournament team, the Warhawks posted their best offensive performance of the season, making 14 3-pointers and topping 80 points for just the second time this season. South Alabama responded by shooting 53.1 percent and knocking in 14 3-pointers as well.

Senior guard Fred Brown netted a career-high 28 points, including six 3-pointers, to lead the way for the Warhawks. Brown finished 10 of 15 from the field and 6 of 10 from 3-point range. Senior Hugh Mingo chipped in 14 points, sophomore Charles Winborne added 12 points and freshman Trent Mackey finished with 11 points.

Sophomore Marcelis Hansberry continued his solid play with nine points, nine assists and four steals. ULM tallied a season-best 23 assists while committing just 11 turnovers.

The Warhawks led by as many as 13 points in the first half and took a 43-35 advantage into halftime. Goldstein hit a pair of 3-pointers and Javier Carter converted a pair of free throws as South Alabama cut the margin to 46-43 with 17:50 remaining.

The margin got as close as two at 50-48 before ULM used an 11-4, capped by a Brown 3-pointer, to build its lead to 61-52 with 13:55 remaining.

The Jaguars responded with a quick 8-0 run to get within one and took its first lead of the second half at 71-69 on a 3-pointer from Dallas Jones at the 8:20 mark. The teams traded clutch 3-pointers the rest of the way, but a dunk by Mychal Ammons and another 3 by Goldstein gave the Jaguars an 82-77 advantage with 4:49 to play.
