WEEK PREVIEW:

The Warhawks play five games in five days this week, beginning with a single game against Samford in Birmingham, Ala., on Wednesday. ULM stays on the road for the College of Charleston Cougar Classic, where it will face four teams including Virginia Tech, Wagner, Lipscomb and host Charleston.

ULM LAST TIME OUT:

The Warhawks faced their first big test of the season this past weekend when they traveled to the Houston Hilton Plaza Invitational to square-off with then- No. 17 Houston and McNeese State. ULM's lone win came in its first game against the Cowgirls, who the week prior defeated then- No. 1 Arizona State, in a 6-2 decision. It dropped its three remaining games, including two run-rules against No. 17 Houston and a close 2-0 result to eventual tournament champion McNeese State.

A LOOK AT SAMFORD:

The Bulldogs enter Wednesday's contest 3-4 on the season after going on a four game slide with losses to Iona, Lipscomb and Mississippi State. Samford opened the season with back-to-back wins over South Dakota and got back on the winning track with a victory against Butler on Saturday. The Warhawks are undefeated against the Bulldogs all-time 5-0, winning the last contest in 2006 5-4.

A LOOK AT CHARLESTON:

Charleston hosted its first tournament of the season last weekend, the College of Charleston Classic, and was forced to cancel the final day of play due to inclement weather that affected most of the Southeast. The Cougars (4-1) have dropped just one game on the season and have outscored their opponents 18-11. ULM and Charleston last played in 1997, with ULM winning the lone contest between the squads 9-0.

A LOOK AT WAGNER:

The Seahawks have yet to play a game as they open their 2012 season at the Charleston Cougar Classic this weekend. They struggled to a 12-26 overall record last year, and are picked ninth in the Northeastern Conference preseason poll after going 7-11 in league play. ULM run-ruled Wagner the only time the two teams have ever met 10-0 back in 2008.

A LOOK AT LIPSCOMB:

The Lady Bison's Round Robin tournament was also rained out on its final day over the weekend, but they defeated both Butler and Samford in the first day to improve to 3-3 entering this weekend. Lipscomb has already faced fellow Sun Belt member South Alabama at its Mardi Gras Tournament in Mobile, Ala., losing a 6-1 decision. This will be the first meeting ever between ULM and Lipscomb.

A LOOK AT VIRGINIA TECH:

Virginia Tech is the third team ULM faces this season that is receiving votes in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll after they opened the season with seven-straight victories, including a 3-0 upset of then- No. 15 Oklahoma State. The Hokies have lost three-straight since to No. 2 Alabama, No. 4 Oklahoma and Auburn to sit 7-3 overall. ULM has faced them just once in 1998, losing the close contest 8-6.

NEXT WEEK:

ULM takes on Grambling State for the second time this season on the back end of a home-and-home in Grambling, La., on Wednesday at 3 p.m. It then travels to Northwestern State's Demon Invitational Saturday and Sunday where it plays Southern and host Northwestern State twice each.

PASTOR AS THE DP

Junior Charlotte Pastor has already started five games, nearly half the total amount she did in 2011, all but one as the designated player. She has proven why, going from a .095 batting average last year to a .308 this season to rank second for the Warhawks. She had her first career multi-hit game against McNeese State, going 2-for-2 with one run.

FRESHMAN POWER

All three freshmen had strong performances in their first weekend of collegiate play. Alexis Cacioppo finished with a .467 batting average, a team-leading seven RBIs and one home run while Kayla Boening batted .308 with a team-best seven runs and a triple. Pitcher Haylie Wilson notched a team-best nine strikeouts, and also had her first hit as a Warhawk.

CASSEL IN RECORD BOOKS

Roxy Cassel's four RBIs in the Mardi Gras Classic put her over the edge in ULM program history. The senior totals 83 RBIs for her career for a solo fifth place after entering 2012 tied in fifth with 79. She needs 36 more to overtake phenom Brianna Love in fourth place.

SALANOA PRESEASON SELECTION

ULM's Janel Salanoa was picked as a preseason selection for the College Sports Madness Sun Belt Preason Team, the first honor of her career. Salanoa is the strongest returner for the Warhawks this season after averaging .321 at bat with 11 doubles, seven home runs and a .537 slugging percentage. She ranked eighth in the nation with four sacrifice flies, setting a ULM single-season record while striking out just five times in 168 at bats to rank 17th nationally.

RETURNING OFFENSIVE POWER

The 2011 ULM squad was one the highest offensive outpunning squads in program history, and set a single-season record for runs with 264. The Warhawks return three of the most dominant batters, including Janel Salanoa with the top returning batting average of .321. Salanoa and Miyuki Navarrete each had 33 runs and Roxy Cassel had 25, accounting for more than a third of the team's runs.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

From Bengals to Warhawks, ULM welcomed two members of the NJCAA Division II National Championship winning team LSU-Eunice. Third baseman Haley McCall and outfielder Karli Wainwright were both key to the Bengals' success, as McCall was named the MVP of the national championship game and a NJCAA All-American while Wainwright was a first team all-region and all-conference pick.

ULM PICKED EIGHTH IN SBC

The ULM softball team was picked to finish eighth in the 2012 Sun Belt Conference Pre-season Poll. The Warhawks received 26 votes from the league's nine head coaches. Defending champion UL-Lafayette was selected to repeat their championship after collecting 80 points and all but one first place vote.

2011 RECAP

The Warhawks finished 2011 with its winnigest season since 2006, going 27-28 overall and 10-14 in SBC play. ULM's 27 wins are the most since it went 27-30 in 2006, the last season it was a member of the Southland Conference. It also marked the fourth 20-win season for the Warhawks and the most league wins since joining the Sun Belt in 2007.

WARHAWKS SIGN FIVE FOR 2013

Head coach Rosemary Holloway-Hill landed five impressive recruits during the Early Signing Period for the 2013 season. All have a teammate joining them, as three hail from the 2011 Class 5A Louisiana State Championship team Hanville HS in Boutte, La., and two come from defending national champions The Woodlands in The Woodlands, Texas.

Amy Barre landed on the all-district team all three seasons including a first team distinction in 2011 playing for Hahnville HS. She was named an all-state honorable mention this past year after collecting a team-best 34 RBIs with a .403 batting average. In 102 at-bats she only struck out four times, which also earned her a Louisiana Sports Writer's Association all-state honorable mention nod.

Faith Bohack was named to the second team all-state last season and made the all-state tournament team after The Woodlands won the state championship. She had a .425 batting average in 2011 and collected seven home runs, five triples, 12 doubles and 62 runs while driving in 57 runners. She is also a three-time first team all-district selection.

Courtney Dtreix earned all-state accolades the past two seasons, including a first team pick for both the Louisiana Sports Writer's Association and the Louisiana Softball Coaches Association in 2011. She has also been named to the all-metro and all-district teams for three years running and holds the school record for most hits in a single season.

Hope Mair earned a first team all-district distinction for the past three seasons, and in 2011 earned the honor playing in right field. The native of Des Allemande, La., ended her junior season with 22 runs, 22 RBIs, two homeruns, a .351 batting average and a .526 slugging percentage.

Kayla Prater is a two-time all-state selection after being named to the second team in 2011 an honorable mention in 2010. She is also a back-to-back all-district pick her sophomore and junior campaigns including landing on the first team last year. The catcher collected 39 hits and 26 runs in 2011 along with 18 RBIs in 119 at-bats for a .328 batting average.

Head Coach Rosemary Holloway-Hill

With 27 years in the dugout for the ULM softball team, Rosemary Holloway-Hill enters the 2012 season as the longest tenured of all the current Warhawks head coaches. The dean of the ULM coaching family, Holloway-Hill enters her 28th season as softball skipper with more victories than any head coach in any sport in Warhawks history.

At the start of the 2012 season Holloway-Hill has led the Warhawks to 680 wins, three conference championships and two postseason appearances. Her 680 victories rank 33rd among all NCAA active coaches as well as 52nd all-time as a Division I head coach. In the fall of 2009 she was honored at the National Fastpitch Coaches Association after reaching her 700th career coaching victory, which now totals 760 wins over 33 years as a head coach.

Holloway-Hill has coached many of the softball program's most successful players, including ULM's only All-American Sarah Dawson. Dawson owns every career pitching record at ULM including winning percentage (.681), wins (120) and ERA (0.69). Holloway-Hill also guided two of the program's most accomplished hitters, Lori Tande-Bruscato and three-time NFCA All-South Region selection Brianna Love. In 2011 Love ended her career by breaking many records previously held by Tande-Bruscato, including single-season home runs (16), total home runs (45), runs scored (165) and career batting average (.360).

Tande-Bruscato currently holds the all-time records for doubles (49), hits (242), total bases (501) and most at-bats (706).

In 2011 Holloway-Hill led ULM to its fourth-straight appearance at the Sun Belt Conference Tournament after finishing sixth place in the regular season, the highest result since joining the league in 2007. The team's 27-28 record is the best since the Warhawks' final season in the Southland Conference in 2006 and picked up a program-best 10 Sun Belt wins. She has continued to push the Warhawks to their full potential with a competitive schedule in 2011 that included five ranked teams and softball powerhouses Tennessee and Oklahoma.

In addition to producing talented and winning teams on the diamond, Holloway-Hill has stressed that her student athletes enjoy a balanced collegiate experience. Community service and academics have been fundamental values within the Warhawks' softball program thanks to the emphasis Holloway-Hill has placed on them. Since becoming head coach, 25 players have been named National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-America Scholar Athletes. The Warhawks landed in the top-50 in the nation in cumulative GPA in 2010 and 2011 including 47th with a 3.279 average last season, which ranked second in the Sun Belt and was the top program in the state of Louisiana.

The longtime mentor of the ULM softball program, Holloway-Hill has constantly challenged her teams by playing some of the top talent in the nation. The 2007 season brought new challenges as the Warhawks played their first season in the highly competitive Sun Belt Conference. Despite finishing ninth in the league in its inaugural campaign, ULM once again finished with a winning record at home and tallied victories over the league's top three teams.

As good as ULM has been in the classroom under Holloway-Hill, they have been even better on the field. In addition to having the most wins in ULM history, her 238 victories from the program's days in the Southland Conference were the most by any school in that league. Holloway-Hill posted her 200th-career win against an SLC squad in a 5-2 decision over McNeese State on April 21, 2001.

Following the 2004 season, the NFCA recognized ULM's achievements on the softball field when its All-Time Top 50 poll was released. ULM was ranked No. 43 amongst the more than 250 Division I softball programs in the nation, the highest in the Southland Conference and the third highest amongst all the schools in the state of Louisiana. The top 50 ranking was compiled using weekly USA Today/NFCA polls from 1995 through 2003.

Holloway-Hill came to what was then Northeast Louisiana University in 1984 as an assistant coach to Mary Jo Murray before becoming the program's fifth head coach the following season. She promptly guided the Warhawks to the Southland Conference Tournament championship - the university's first - in her first season as head coach in 1985. Her 1986 squad also claimed the tournament title.

In 1992, ULM finished in second in the conference race but the team's record against a strong schedule - a trademark of a Holloway-Hill team - earned it the chance to compete in the National Invitational Championships in MAComb, Ill., a tournament for leading teams which did not make the NCAA playoffs. ULM won the tournament with a 6-1 record, defeating Ivy League champion Princeton in the finals, 3-0.

Holloway-Hill's greatest team came five years later. The 1997 edition, led by All-American pitcher Sarah Dawson, won the Southland Conference championship, posted a 47-12 record, was ranked No. 18 in the nation, and competed in the NCAA tournament before being defeated by eventual national runner-up UCLA.

Following the 1997 season, Holloway-Hill garnered numerous coaching honors. She was named Southland Conference Coach of the Year by her peers in the coaching ranks, Louisiana Coach of the Year by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association, and South Region Coach of the Year by the NFCA.

In addition to coaching at ULM, Holloway-Hill has coached Athletes in Action teams. She was an assistant on a 1986 AIA team that toured Western Europe and was head coach of a 1987 squad that toured South America. In 1990, she traveled to Spain as head coach of an AIA team and conducted clinics in Barcelona.

A native of Skiatook, Okla., Holloway-Hill was a star athlete at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College, becoming the first woman to letter in four sports at the school - basketball, volleyball, tennis and cross country. While there she lettered on the men's cross country team.

Holloway-Hill earned a bachelor's degree in physical education at Oral Roberts in 1977. She was also a member of the first USA korfbal (a Dutch form of basketball) team and conducted clinics and tournaments in Holland her senior year at ORU.

After graduation, Holloway-Hill became coach at Cloud County Community College in Concordia, Kan., and helped turn around its softball program. While at Cloud County, Holloway-Hill's teams captured three state championships in four years.

In addition to being the softball head coach, Holloway-Hill also coached volleyball during the beginning of her ULM career from 1984-93. With 159 career victories on the volleyball court, Holloway-Hill is that program's all-time winningest coach and has been responsible for all five of the school's winning seasons. The ULM volleyball program enjoyed its best season under Holloway-Hill's direction, finishing third in the Southland Conference at 30-25 the same season that the softball team advanced to the league's tournament championship game.
