UK ENDS HOME STRETCH AGAINST TALENTED WARHAWKS

Coming on the heels of arguably the biggest win in second-year head coach Mark Stoops' tenure, Kentucky is looking to complete a three-game home stretch with an unblemished home record as it leaves Southeastern Conference play to face the ULM Warhawks on Saturday at noon ET at CWS.

Last Saturday vs. South Carolina, the Wildcats set a school record with the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history. Trailing 38-24, UK posted 21 unanswered points for the victory and moved to 4-0 at Commonwealth Stadium for the first time since 2007.

Sophomore running back Jojo Kemp was the star for UK in the Wildcat formation, rushing a career-high 17 times for a career-best 131 yards and three touchdowns. The game-winning score came from UK defensive end Alvin "Bud" Dupree, who intercepted a deflected pass late in the fourth quarter and returned it for a touchdown. Ashely Lowery had a late interception to seal the victory over the Gamecocks.

QUICK NOTES

- Kentucky is in its second season under head coach Mark Stoops, who has re-energized the UK fan base with the two highest ranked recruiting classes in program history, the nation's second-largest attendance increase last season and a strong start to the 2014 campaign.
- The Wildcats are off to a 4-1 start to the season, which is its best start to a season since 2008 and only the 11th time since 1950 that UK has won four of its first five games.
- UK is 2-1 in SEC action for the first time since 2007 and has won consecutive SEC games for the first time since taking down Vanderbilt and Georgia in 2009.
- Kentucky scored 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter against South Carolina to post its first fourth-quarter comeback win since a 2011 win over Ole Miss. UK erased a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter to win the game, which is the largest fourth-quarter comeback in program history.
- Senior DE/LB Alvin "Bud" Dupree has been picked as one of the top five athletic "freaks" in college football by NFL.com and Fox Sports. Dupree currently leads all active SEC players in sacks with 17.5, ranking tied for third in UK history. More on page 13.
- After having just three interceptions last season, Kentucky has nine in its first five games in 2014, which ranks fourth best nationally and second best in the SEC.
- UK's defense ranks high in several national categories, including 23rd in passing yards allowed, 24th in scoring defense, 13th in team passing efficiency defense and 13th in turnovers gained. The UK defense has only allowed four plays of 30+ yards this season which is tied for second in the nation.
- A total of 70 percent of UK's rushing yards in 2014 (969) have come from student-athletes who did not play at UK in 2013. Overall, 72 percent of UK's 171 points scored on the year have come from players who did not see action a year ago.
- UK is receiving votes in both the AP Top 25 and USA Today Top 25 for the first time since Nov. 22, 2009
- The University of Kentucky campus is in the midst of $1 billion of construction, featuring new academic buildings, dormitories and athletic facilities. Included in that is a $120-million reinvention of Commonwealth Stadium that will transform it into a state-of-the-art facility for the 2015 season. For more on the reinvention of CWS, visit TheNewCWS.com. In addition, UK will build a $45 million football complex that will be attached to the Nutter Field House, with construction taking place in 2015-16. UK Athletics also is contributing $65 million for the construction of the new Academic Science Building on campus.
- UK had an attendance increase nearing 10,000 fans last season, which was the second-largest attendance increase in the nation. UK averaged 59,472 fans last season to finish top 30 in average attendance.
- This is the 124th season of intercollegiate football for the UK football program.

HEAD COACH MARK STOOPS SECOND SEASON

- Named the 37th head coach of the Kentucky football program on Nov. 27, 2012
- First task as UK coach was to put together a bright and energetic coaching staff. Accomplished that feat by hiring two of the best up-and-coming coordinators in the game in D.J. Eliot and Neal Brown.
- Inherited a recruiting class ranked in the 60s by the national evaluation services before Stoops and Co. hit the trail hard to sign a top-30 class, which was the highest ranked class in program history before Stoops' most recent class was a unanimous top-25 class.
- UK averaged almost 10,000 more fans per game last season than in 2012, which is the second largest attendance increase in the nation.
- Accomplished major defensive turnarounds at Arizona and Florida State.
- During Stoops' three seasons at FSU, the Seminoles went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.
- Developed many players to NFL careers, including Antoine Cason, Michael Johnson, Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Meriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph, Sean Taylor and Brian Lee.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MARK STOOPS

"He is one of those assistant coaches who has been elevating his game as a defensive coordinator ... He has great pedigree being a Stoops brother and the fact that he has worked with some outstanding head coaches helps his cause. I think he is ready to go (be a head coach). That is a great choice (for Kentucky)." – ESPN analyst Kirk Herbstreit

"The more I learn about the youngest of the college-coaching Stoops brothers, the more I like about what Mitch Barnhart did in luring him to Lexington. Stoops turned around Florida State's defense in short order, which was impressive (and why he got the job), but I really like the way he's gone about hiring a young, respected staff." – Travis Haney of ESPN.com, who rated Stoops as the second-best coaching hire in the nation.

"I think he's one of the big reasons for the turnaround at Florida State. He's just done a fantastic job. I think Jimbo Fisher himself would say he's probably the biggest reason for their turnaround." – Legendary Florida State Head Coach Bobby Bowden

"If it was a 3-2 pitch in the bottom of the ninth with the game on the line, then Mitch Barnhart has hit a long drive that's headed straight for the seats. Time will tell if it's a round-tripper, but from this vantage point it sure looks like Barnhart has hit a home run ... " – John Clay, Lexington Herald-Leader

"If new Kentucky coach Mark Stoops' results are any indication, UK's defense can expect quick and sustained improvement. As a defensive coordinator at Florida State (2010-12) and Arizona (2003-09), Stoops inherited defenses ranked outside the top 100 in yards per game. Both teams improved to the top 25 by the end of his time." – Aaron Smith, CatsIllustrated.com

"I'm very proud of him. Very happy for him. He got an opportunity to go on and further his career and it's something he wants to do. I'm happy for him. I think he's a hard worker. He cares about what he does. He's very diligent about what he does. He truly loves coaching." -- Florida State Head Coach Jimbo Fisher

GAME NOTES VS. ULM

SERIES RECORD VS. ULM

- Kentucky and ULM will meet for just the fifth time in program history on Saturday with all five games played at Commonwealth Stadium in Lexington, Ky. UK leads the all-time series in games played 3-1.
- The first-ever meeting between the two teams came in 1994 when the Warhawks posted a 21-14 victory.
- UK has won each of the last three meetings in the series, including the last meeting in 2009, 36-13.
- In 1994 and 1997, ULM was still known as Northeast Louisiana.
- Biggest UK win: 35 (49-14) in 1997 in Lexington
- Biggest ULM win: 7 (21-14) in 1994 in Lexington
- Games decided by 7 points or less: Series tied 1-1

SCOUTING ULM

- ULM enters Saturday's game with a 3-2 record and is coming off a 28-14 loss at Arkansas State last weekend on the road. The Warhawks are 3-0 at home this season with wins over Wake Forest, Idaho and Troy, with both of its losses coming on the road to LSU and Arkansas State.
- The Warhawks are averaging 18.2 points per game this season, including 86 rushing yards per game and 250.8 passing yards per game. Senior quarterback Pete Thomas leads the offense, having completed 56.9% of his passes for 1,159 yards and five touchdowns. Thomas' favorite receiver has been junior wide receiver Rashon Ceaser, who has 30 receptions for 251 yards, while senior wide receiver Kenzee Jackson has 24 catches for 320 yards and one touchdown. Sophomore wide receiver Ajalen Holley has 18 catches for 377 yards and four touchdowns. The running game is paced by senior running back Centarius Donald, who has 82 rushes for 350 yards and three touchdowns.
- ULM has been solid defensively this season, allowing only 24.0 points per game, while opponents are averaging 140.6 rushing yards per game and 225.6 passing yards per game. The ULM defense has forced six interceptions and three fumbles lost this season and has scored 42 points off turnovers. Junior safety Mitch Lane leads the team with 40 tackles, adding 1.5 tackles for loss, three interceptions and four passes defended. Junior defensive lineman Gerrard Johnson has 36 tackles with 5.5 tackles for loss, four sacks and two quarterback hurries, while junior linebacker Hunter Kissinger has 35 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and two quarterback hurries.
- Senior kicker Justin Manton is 5-for-6 in field goals this season with a long of 37 yards. Manton has also handled the kickoff duties with 20 kickoffs and 11 touchbacks. Manton is also the team's punter with 38 punts for a 43.4 yards per punt average and pinning opponents inside their own 20 yard line 12 times.

KENTUCKY-ULM TIES

- Kentucky does not have a player on its 2014 roster from the state of Louisiana and ULM does not have a player on its 2014 roster from the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
- UK offensive coordinator Neal Brown is no stranger to the successful ULM program as he faced the Warhawks while he was an assistant coach and offensive coordinator at Troy from 2006-09. Brown played ULM four times over that four-year stretch and went 3-1. UK assistant coaches John Schlarman and Chad Scott were also on Troy's staff with Brown.

UK FOOTBALL LANDS CONSENSUS TOP-25 RECRUITING CLASS

In Feb. 2014, Coach Mark Stoops and his relentless staff brought home Kentucky's highest-rated class in the Internet era of recruiting evaluation, scoring a No. 17 ranking on Rivals.com, No. 20 by ESPN.com, No. 21 by Scout.com and No. 22 by 247Sports.com.

Fifteen members of the 28-man class received a four-star ranking in at least one of the above-mentioned services. Ten of the signees were listed at least once in the Rivals Top 250 players, the ESPN Top 300, the Scout Top 300 or the 247 Top 300.

Can Kentucky Ride its Improved Recruiting to SEC Success?

Stoops and his staff have not hesitated to compete against big-name programs on the recruiting trail. And Kentucky has won more than a few of those battles: The Wildcats beat out Louisville, Tennessee and South Carolina for Barker; Auburn, Clemson and LSU for all-purpose back Stanley Williams; and Alabama, Notre Dame and Ohio State for Elam.

– Chris Johnson, Sports Illustrated

Kentucky – yes Kentucky – An SEC Presence in Recruiting

"We're definitely not afraid to compete with anybody in the country," Stoops said. In a recruiting cycle that many coaches say featured rampant player poaching, Kentucky would have been a logical poaching victim. But the Wildcats locked up much of its class a year ago and didn't lose traction. About sixteen of its 28 players committed before the end of last summer, Stoops said.

– Jeremy Fowler, CBSSports.com

Most Impressive Classes in the SEC -- No. 2: Kentucky

Rundown: This ain't your grandfather's Kentucky. It's not your father's or your older brother's, either. Mark Stoops didn't have the highest ranked recruiting class in the country or even the SEC, but the top-20 class far outpaced even the highest expectations. The signees speak for themselves -- an infusion of young talent desperately needed for the road ahead -- but the overall statement Stoops and his staff made going out and landing the best of the best was huge. Nabbing four-star defensive lineman Matt Elam from Alabama sent shockwaves through college football. It not only said that Kentucky was here to play; it's here to play and win.

– Alex Scarborough, ESPN.com

Mark Stoops Makes Splash With 2014 Class

Quietly, Kentucky coach Mark Stoops made an emphatic statement with his 2014 recruiting class: The Wildcats aren't going to sit idly by and watch the big boys have all the fun ... Stoops rubbed shoulders with the SEC's best, signing 28 players, including six ESPN 300 members and eight four-stars. Stoops flipped a Florida State commit and beat out Alabama for a highly coveted defensive tackle. He snagged a top 10 quarterback and filled critical holes on both sides of the ball.

– Edward Aschoff, ESPN.com

Signing Day: The Hot Fad in Recruiting is the Hand-Written Letter

One day last April, Kentucky bombarded Matt Elam, a 340-pound tackle from Elizabethtown, Ky., with 69 letters. It followed up several months later with 182 letters. Not to be outdone, Notre Dame shipped Elam 270 letters in November, a postage play that Fighting Irish recruiters call a "pot of gold." The outsize attention paid off for Kentucky last week when Elam—who said he received 50 letters on a normal day—chose the Wildcats over not only Notre Dame but also Alabama, which has won three of the last five national titles and is expected to land the nation's top recruiting class this year.

– Ben Cohen, Wall Street Journal

The Big 10's Kentucky Problem

These superlatives of each Big Ten recruiting class and more were discussed on BTN during the network's Football Signing Day special. Left off the table was a matter of frank conversation of how badly programs in the Big Ten, excluding Michigan and Ohio State, were smoked on the recruiting trail by Kentucky of the SEC. Kentucky's recruiting class would rank as the third best of the Big Ten, two spots behind Michigan for second-best.

– ElevenWarriors.com

Seven members of Kentucky's 2014 signing class enrolled at Kentucky and participated in spring practice, including (from left) C.J. Johnson, Dorian Hendrix, Mikel Horton, Drew Barker, A.J. Stamps, Thaddeus Snodgrass and T.V. Williams.

- On Oct. 11, 1985 Mike Velotta earned Kentucky's first-ever SEC Player of the Week award after an impressive game against Mississippi State.

LAST TIME VS. ULM

Kentucky jumped out to an early three-touchdown lead over ULM en route to a 36-13 defeat of the Warhawks to record its 17th consecutive non-conference victory, matching the school-record streak previously set from 1954-60, on Military Appreciation Day and Hall of Fame Weekend at Commonwealth Stadium.

On UK's first possession, fullback John Conner's career-long run of 39 yards set up his rushing touchdown two plays later from the ULM 1-yard line to give the Wildcats a quick lead. After the UK defense forced the Warhawk offense into another three-and-out series, Randall Cobb returned the ULM punt 73 yards for a touchdown – the first punt return score of his career.

Cobb kick-started UK's first drive of the second quarter with a 28-yard run on a QB keeper from the Wildcat formation. On the next play, Cobb executed the same play for an 11-yard touchdown to extend the UK lead to 21-0. ULM answered on its next drive, capping it off with a 10-yard touchdown pass from Cody Wells to Luther Ambrose. The Cats answered with a 4-play, 83-yard scoring drive that ended with Will Fidler's 25-yard TD pass to Conner to push the score to 28-7 just before the half.

ULM scored the only points of the third stanza on a 3-yard touchdown run by Frank Goodin. UK's Matt Roark blocked the extra point attempt, the fourth blocked kick of his career, to yield a 28-13 score.

Early in the fourth quarter, Wells fumbled a snap and recovered it in the endzone to give UK a safety and 30-13 advantage. Midway through the final quarter, UK's Randall Burden snared his first career interception and returned it 50 yards for a touchdown. Kentucky safeties Matt Lentz and Ashton Cobb ended ULM's final two possession with interceptions, marking UK's first game with three picks since the 2008 season opener at Louisville.

The UK defense held its opponent to its lowest point total of the season for the second straight game. Led by DeQuin Evans' three tackles-for-loss, UK posted a total of seven TFL in the game, a season high. Linebacker Danny Trevathan led the Wildcats in tackles for the second straight game, charting eight stops.

A WIN SATURDAY VS. ULM WOULD ...

- ... give Kentucky its first three-game winning streak since defeating Louisville, WKU and Akron to start the 2010 season.
- ... give Kentucky five wins in a season for the first time since the 2010 team finished 5-7.
- ... make UK 5-1 overall, marking the first time since 2007 the Wildcats have won five of their first six games.
- ... mark only the eighth time since 1950 that UK has started a season with five wins or more in its first six games (1950, 1976, 1977, 1983, 1984, 1985, 2007). It would be only the third time since 1985 a UK team has won five of its first six games to start a season.
- ... make Mark Stoops only the third coach in the modern era of UK football (1945-present) to start a season 5-1 or better in his first two years on the job. The others to accomplish that feat are Paul "Bear" Bryant in 1947 (5-1 in second season) and Jerry Claiborne in 1983 (5-1 in second season). Stoops would join Bryant as the

WILDCATS START 4-1 FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 2008

- With its win against South Carolina last week, Kentucky is 4-1 to start a season for the first time since 2008 and only the 11th time since 1950.
- The Wildcats are 4-0 at Commonwealth Stadium this season, marking the first time a UK team has accomplished that since the 2007 team went 5-0.
- The win against South Carolina marked the first time that Kentucky has won back-to-back SEC games since Georgia and Vanderbilt in 2009.
- Kentucky is 2-1 in SEC play for the first time since starting 2-1 in league action in 2007. That year, the Wildcats opened SEC play with a win over Arkansas, before falling to South Carolina and beating No. 1 LSU.

STOOPS IN THE SAME COMPANY AS THE "BEAR"

Hall of Fame coach Paul "Bear" Bryant coached at Kentucky from 1946-53 and is the all-time wins leader for the Wildcats. Last Saturday when Mark Stoops and Co. took down South Carolina at Commonwealth Stadium, Stoops accomplished something that hasn't been done at UK since Bear walked the sidelines.

Stoops became the fifth coach since 1945 to lead a UK team to a 4-1 record to start a season in two years or less on the job. However, Stoops is the first since Bear to accomplish that feat with two of the four wins coming against SEC opponents.

EXPLOSIVE PLAYS: GAINED ON OFFENSE, STOPPED ON DEFENSE

- Kentucky head coach Mark Stoops, offensive coordinator Neal Brown and defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot talk a lot about explosive (long yardage) plays. So far this season, both coordinators should be happy about how the team has performed.
- Kentucky has 10 offensive plays this season of 40+ yards, which is tied for 11th most in the nation. The Wildcat offense has five plays of 50+ yards, which ranks tied for 21st nationally, three plays of 60+ yards, which ranks tied for 19th nationally, and two plays of 70+ yards, which ranks tied for 14th nationally. UK has 33 offensive plays this season of 20+ yards, which ranks 20th nationally. UK is one of just 10 teams in the nation that has 33 or more plays of 20+ yards and has played five games or fewer.
- Kentucky's defense has been impressive in limiting the explosive plays this season, ranking tied for 30th nationally in fewest 10+ yard plays allowed. The UK defense has been really stingy down the field, only allowing four plays this season of 30+ yards, which is tied for second best in the nation. The UK defense is one of just four teams nationally that has played five games or fewer and allowed four or fewer 30+ yard plays. Kentucky has only allowed two 40+ yard plays this season, which is tied for sixth nationally in that category. UK ranks tied for 11th nationally with only one 50+ yard play allowed and tied for 1st in the nation by now allowing a play this season over 60 yards.
- The longest play against the UK defense this season came in the Florida game when Jeff Driskel connected with Demarcus Robinson for 51 yards. The UK defense stiffened up after the long play, allowing a four-yard rush after the long play before an incomplete pass and an interception stopped the Florida drive.

YOUNG 'UNS Y'ALL

- A total of 54% (93 of 171 points) of all of Kentucky's points this season have been scored by a redshirt or true freshmen. Redshirt freshman kicker Austin MacGinnis has 45 points, while true freshmen Garrett Johnson, Mikel Horton and Stanley "Boom" Williams have each scored 12 points and true freshmen Dorian Baker and Blake Bone has six points scored.
- With the exception of sophomore Ryan Timmons' TD catches vs. Vandy and South Carolina, Kentucky's receiving touchdowns this season have been scored by true freshmen. Johnson has two TD receptions, while Baker, Williams and Bone each have one. A total of 70% of UK's rushing yards in 2014 (969) have come from student-athletes who did not play at UK in 2013.
- A total of 72% (123 of 171 points) of all of Kentucky's points have been scored this season by players who did not play last season. On top of the true/redshirt freshmen listed above, transfer Braylon Heard has 18 points and redshirt sophomore Patrick Towles has 12 points.
- Kentucky's underclassmen have accounting for 141 of the 171 points scored this season, which is 82% of the scoring.

MILESTONES TO WATCH FOR ...

- Senior defensive end Bud Dupree has 17.5 career sacks, needing 1.5 more to tie for second most all-time in school history with Dennis Johnson (1998-2001).
- Dupree currently leads all active SEC players in sacks.
- Sophomore punter Landon Foster has a career average of 43.0 yards per punt (150 punts, 6,326 yards) which ranks third in school history.
- Senior wide receivers Demarco Robinson and Javess Blue have 744 and 702 career receiving yards, respectively. They hope to become the 23rd and 24th players in school history with 1,000+ receiving yards.

Commonwealth Stadium

On game day, Commonwealth Stadium often becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

- The Wildcats are in their 42nd season at Commonwealth Stadium, which is currently undergoing a $120 million reinvention to be completed for 2015.
- Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 266 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. UK has a 142-121-4 record (.539) in CWS.
- Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 63,408 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 30 teams in attendance for 13 seasons. Both the single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years.
- The playing surface is named C.M. Newton Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.

Commonwealth Stadium Renovations on the Way:

Through a $120-million reinvention, Commonwealth Stadium will be transformed into a state-of-the-art facility in time for the start of the 2015 season. As the Kentucky football program enters a new era, the Big Blue Nation will enjoy an intimate game-day atmosphere to match. The experience will begin outside the stadium, as the longtime home of the Wildcats will undergo a dramatic external facelift. The new Commonwealth Stadium will take on a modern look, but one that remains uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Commonwealth will be reduced over the course of the two-year project, but the value of all remaining seats will be increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses will revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and security. Players and coaches will reap the benefits of the new Commonwealth Stadium as well, as new home-team facilities will be built, while a new multi-purpose recruiting room will play host to future Wildcats on their on-campus visits. For more information, visit TheNewCWS.com.

Facts and Figures on Commonwealth Stadium:

Seating Capacity: 62,093, including the Commonwealth Suites.

Video Boards: Video boards by Daktronics measuring at 39 by 79 feet, each, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability. The video boards put UK among the nation's leaders in video square footage. The interior seating bowl also has LED ribbon boards.

Sound System: Sportsound system delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies, and high-impact entertainment. Components of the sound system include a main speaker cluster behind the end zone, under-balcony speakers and concourse speakers.

Game Day Experiences

The "Cat Walk": Fans are encouraged to greet the team when the Wildcats arrive for the "Cat Walk." The team buses will arrive at the Nutter Field House approximately two hours and 15 minutes before the game and the players will make the "Cat Walk" to their stadium entry point at Gate 1. Fans are encouraged to line up on the sidewalk and cheer the players as they enter the stadium. A siren will be sounded while the team buses are on their way to the stadium. That's the fans' cue to proceed to the Cat Walk area to greet the team.

Wildcat Refuge: Fans of all ages, but especially the younger Wildcats, will enjoy playing at the Wildcat Refuge, located outside of the southwest corner (outside Gate 9) of Commonwealth Stadium. There are five giant inflatable games that are available two hours before kickoff.

GETTIN' FRESH | STOOPS AND CO. GAINING EXPERIENCE

- A total of 15 primary offensive (seven) and defensive (eight) starters from 2013 returned for the Wildcats this season, including 36 players that have started at least one game entering the 2014 season.
- That number of players with starting experience has grown in UK's first few games of the 2014 season as eight players earned their first career starts in UK's first game, while three players started for the first time in their careers against Ohio and one against Florida and Vanderbilt. The South Carolina game was the first this season that UK has not had a first-time starter.
- A total of 25 players saw their first playing time as a Wildcat in the season opener, including nine true freshmen, 10 redshirt freshmen, five transfers and sophomore Jeff Witthuhn. If you count Patrick Towles, Josh Clemons, J.D. Harmon, Jabari Johnson and Zack Blaylock - who did not see game action in 2013 - a total of 30 players that did not play in 2013 played in UK's 2014 season opener.
- Below are players who have made their UK debuts this season, as well as first-time starters:

True Freshmen:

Offense - RB Mikel Horton, WR Blake Bone, WR Dorian Baker, RB Stanley "Boom" Williams, WR Garrett Johnson, WR T.V. Williams, WR Charles Walker
 Defense - CB Kendall Randolph, DT Matt Elam

Redshirt Freshmen:

Offense - QB Reese Phillips, OG Nick Haynes, OG Cole Mosier, OG Ramsey Meyers, OT Kyle Meadows, WR Miles Thompson
 Defense - CB Keron Wakefield, DT Jacob Hyde, DT Regie Meant
 Specialist - K Austin MacGinnis

Transfers:

Offense - RB Braylon Heard
 Defense - DT Cory "CJ" Johnson, S A.J. Stamps, LB Ryan Flannigan, DT Melvin Lewis

Other Debuts:

Offense - FB Jeff Witthuhn

First-time Starters:

UT Martin - TE Steven Borden, QB Patrick Towles, RB Braylon Heard, OG Ramsey Meyers, OT Kyle Meadows, LB Josh Forrest, S. A.J. Stamps, DT Melvin Lewis.
 Ohio - OG Cole Mosier, WR Dorian Baker, WR, Joey Herrick
 Florida - DE/LB Jason Hatcher
 Vanderbilt - OG Nick Haynes

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR U ... K'S OFFENSE?

- Although just entering his second season as Kentucky's offensive coordinator, Neal Brown is no stranger to the UK football program having lettered at Kentucky in 1998 and 2000 as a wide receiver. Born and raised in the Commonwealth Brown is a lifelong member of the Big Blue Nation.
- During his time as a player in 1998, Kentucky - led by All-America quarterback Tim Couch - posted the best two offensive performances in school history with 801 yards of total offense vs. Louisville and 679 yards of total offense against Vanderbilt.
- If you flash forward to Brown's most current tenure in Lexington, his offense has registered the third- and fourth-best offensive performances in program history with 675 yards of total offense vs. Miami (Ohio) last season and 656 yards of total offense against UT Martin to start the 2014 season.

OFFENSIVE HIGHLIGHTS

- Kentucky started the season by posting 400+ yards of total offense in each of its first three games, marking the first time a UK team achieved that to start a season since 2010.
- UK has posted 171 points this season, which is the most in the first five games to start a season since 2010.
- The UK offense has been very balanced this season with 199 rushing plays and 169 passing plays. The Wildcats are averaging 4.9 yards per rush and 12.9 yards per reception this season. UK's running backs are averaging 6.2 yards per rush this season.
- UK has outscored its opponents 89-27 in the first half through and 35-7 in the first quarter this season.
- The Wildcats rushed for 230 yards in each of their first two games. It's the first time a UK offense has rushed for 230+ yards in two straight games since 2009. UK has rushed for 180+ yards in four of its first five games to start a season for the first time since 2007.
- Offensive coordinator Neal Brown has said he wants UK running a lot of plays. So far this season, the UK offense had 61 plays vs. UT Martin, 83 plays vs. Ohio, 78 plays vs. Florida, 80 plays vs. Vanderbilt and 66 plays vs. South Carolina. It marks the first time since 1998 that UK has had 78 or more plays in three of its first five games.
- Kentucky's offense has posted 380+ yards of total offense in each of its first three SEC games for the first time since 1998 when UK posted 448 vs. Florida, 507 vs. Arkansas and 526 vs. South Carolina.

SOUTH CAROLINA GAME ...

- Kentucky scored 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to post the largest fourth-quarter comeback in program history, surpassing the previous mark of a 13-point deficit. The fourth-quarter comeback was UK's first since 2011.
- Since 2008, UK has scored 21 points in the fourth quarter two times - both against South Carolina in the past two seasons.
- UK's touchdown drive to open the second half marked its first of the year.
- UK's 239 rushing yards in the game was the most against an SEC foe since posting 341 against Vanderbilt in 2010.

VANDERBILT GAME ...

- UK took it 99 yards on its opening possession to score a TD, its second opening-drive TD of the year. The 99-yard drive was the longest of the year in terms of plays (16), yards (99) and time (6:15).
- UK connected with 11 different receivers in the game, its most receivers targeted in a game since 2012.
- UK had 183 rushing yards in the game, its most vs. an SEC foe since posting 206 against Georgia in 2012.
- Kentucky out-gained Vanderbilt by 245 yards of total offense, which is the largest total offense margin for UK against an SEC foe since it out-gained Vanderbilt by 394 yards (679-285) in 1998.

FLORIDA GAME ...

- UK scored 30 points vs. the Gators, its highest scoring output vs. UF since scoring 37 vs. UF in 2007.
- Kentucky finished with 369 total yards passing, marking the most yards passing allowed by Florida since Michigan passed for 373 yards in a 2007 season bowl game. Florida has allowed just two 300+ yard passing outings since the 2008 season, allowing Georgia to throw for 313 yards in 2010.
- Florida's interception in the third quarter was UK's first turnover of the season after 10 straight quarters without a giveaway. Kentucky went the first 181 plays of the 2014 season before turning the ball over, with an interception in the third quarter snapping UK's streak.
- Kentucky had 11 explosive plays in the game (10+ yards rushing or 20+ yards passing).
- UK's 450 yards of total offense against Florida was the most against an SEC foe for the Wildcats since 2010 vs. Vanderbilt. It was the largest total offense output for UK in an SEC opener since 2000 against Florida.

OHIO GAME ...

- Kentucky defeated Ohio by 17 points. UK outscored its opponents by 62 points to open the year, marking its largest scoring margin through two games since a 76-point margin in 2007.
- UK had a 38:26 time of possession, marking its most time of possession since holding the ball 38:44 at Florida in 2000.
- UK's 14-play scoring drive in the third quarter was a season long. The Wildcats finished with 11 explosive plays (20+ yard pass plays and 10+ yard rush plays), just shy of the 12 explosive plays vs. UT Martin.

UT MARTIN GAME ...

- UK's 59-14 season-opening win over UT Martin marked its most points scored since hanging 63 on Western Kentucky in 2010. It was also the most points scored in a season-opening game since 68 vs. Louisville in 1998.
- UK's 45-point margin of victory over the Skyhawks was its most since a 77-17 win over UTEP in 2002.
- Kentucky had six rushing touchdowns vs. UT Martin, its most in a game since vs. Kent State in 2007.
- Kentucky finished with 656 yards of total offense vs. the Skyhawks, which was the fourth greatest single-game total in school-history. UK finished with 675 yards of total offense vs. Miami (Ohio) last season for the third-highest total in school history. UK's 446 yards of total offense in the first half vs. UT Martin was more yards than it gained in 11 of 12 games last season.
- The Wildcats finished with 422 yards passing vs. UTM, marking its best passing output since throwing for 430 yards in a 2007 game vs. Tennessee in four overtimes. The last time UK threw for over 422 yards in a regulation game was when it threw for 450 yards in a win over Vanderbilt in 2006.

- Kentucky had five consecutive touchdown drives against UT Martin that went for 75 yards or more. The Wildcats had four touchdown drives of 80+ yards in the season opener, while it only had five such drives of 80+ yards last season.

THE QUARTERBACKS

- Sophomore quarterback Patrick Towles - who won the starting job in fall camp - has completed 63.4 percent of his passes for 1,325 yards, seven touchdowns and four interceptions. Towles' 1,325 passing yards in just five games this season is the most by a UK quarterback since Mike Hartline had 3,178 for the entire 2010 season.
- Towles had a sparking debut vs. UT Martin in his first career start, going 20-for-29 for 377 yards and one touchdown. Towles also rushed for his first career touchdown, a career-long 23-yard run
- With 407 total yards of offense vs. UT Martin, Towles had the second-most yards from scrimmage for a UK quarterback making his first career start, just behind the 409 yards Dusty Bonner had in a 1999 game with Louisville.
- Towles played great against the Gators at The Swamp. The sophomore went 24-for-45 for 369 yards. Towles is the third UK quarterback to pass for 300+ yards against Florida in Gainesville and first to throw for 300+ yards against an SEC foe since Mike Hartline in 2010 vs. Georgia.
- With his strong game against Florida, Towles became the fifth UK player ever to throw for 360+ yards twice in his career. He is the first ever to accomplish that feat during his first three career starts.
- Towles impressed with his arm and legs against Ohio, going 17-for-31 for 170 yards and one touchdown, while rushing a career-best 22 times for a career-best 59 yards. Towles has eight explosive rushing plays (10+ yards) in 2014, including six in the win over Ohio.
- The sophomore led UK on a 99-yard scoring drive to start the Vanderbilt game, going 9-for-9 with completions to seven different receivers.
- Redshirt freshman quarterback Reese Phillips saw playing time against UT Martin, going 2-for-4 for 45 yards, including leading UK on a touchdown drive.

THE WIDE RECEIVERS AND TIGHT ENDS

- Sophomore wide receiver Ryan Timmons leads Kentucky in receiving with 25 catches for 307 yards. Timmons had a great game against Ohio, with a career-best 10 catches for a career-high 95 yards. Timmons has caught a TD pass in each of UK's last two games, including a 48-yard TD grab against South Carolina.
- True freshman Garrett Johnson was the star against Florida - his home state - ending with six catches for 154 yards and two touchdowns. He was named SEC Freshman of the Week. The 154 yards is the most ever by a true freshman in program history and the most by a UK player since Randall Cobb had 171 against Miss. State in 2010. Johnson is the first UK true freshman with two TD catches in a game since Cobb in 2008.
- Five of the seven TD catches this season by a UK receiver are by true freshmen. Blake Bone was the lone wide receiver with a touchdown in UK's opener, catching two passes for 65 yards, including his 29-yard TD catch. Against Ohio, Dorian Baker - who earned his first career start in the game - scored UK's first touchdown with eight-yard catch. Baker ended the game with two catches for 41 yards, including a beautiful over-the-shoulder catch deep in Ohio territory.
- Demarco Robinson's 79-yard catch and run from Towles vs. UT Martin was the longest of his career. Robinson has 13 catches for 217 yards, averaging 16.7 yards per catch.
- Senior WR Javess Blue had two catches for 42 yards, including a 44 yard reception to set up a UK touchdown. Blue did not play against Ohio because of an ankle sprain but did return against Florida and has nine catches this season for 116 yards.

THE RUNNING BACKS

- Junior running back Braylon Heard made the most of his first two career touches as a Wildcat, taking both into the endzone for a touchdown in the opener. Heard ended the game with 116 yards on just two carries. Heard's first carry was for a 73-yard TD, followed by a 43-yard touchdown. He leads the team in yards per carry with an 8.1-yard average.
- Sophomore Jojo Kemp, the team's leading rusher a year ago, started in Heard's place vs. Ohio. He has a team-high (for running backs) 52 carries this season for 286 yards and four touchdowns. Kemp has been very successful in the WildKemp formation, especially against South Carolina, rushing a career-high 17 times for a career-best 131 yards and three touchdowns. Kemp was the first UK player with three rushing touchdowns since CoShik Williams in 2010.
- Junior running back Josh Clemons is a great story of perseverance. Clemons, who lost the 2012 and '13 seasons because of injuries, had not played in a game in 1,057 days until participating in the season opener. He has seven carries for 32 yards this season.
- Both true freshman running backs have played this season. Mikel Horton has 31 carries for 167 yards, including two touchdowns vs. UT Martin. Stanley "Boom" Williams has 99 rushing yards, including a 53-yard scoring dash against Ohio. Boom showed his explosiveness with an amazing 25-yard TD catch in the first OT against Florida. Williams caught the ball in the right flat and reversed fields and used key blocks to score the go-ahead TD. Boom was more involved in the UK offense against Vanderbilt with five rushes for 27 yards and three catches for 39 yards. Boom also leads the team with a 26.2 yards per kick return average.

THE OFFENSIVE LINE

- With four starting linemen returning from last season, the coaches were optimistic that the offensive line would take a lead role in the improvement sought by the offense.
- The offensive line allowed Kentucky to rush for 230+ yards in each of their first two games. It is the first time a UK offensive has rushed for 230+ yards in two straight games since 2009 vs. Vanderbilt and ECU.
- Two players earned their first career starts against UT Martin in redshirt freshmen Ramsey Meyers and Kyle Meadows. Redshirt freshman Cole Mosier made his first career start against Ohio for junior left guard Zach West, who was sidelined because of injury. Both Mosier and West were sidelined with injuries against Vanderbilt and redshirt freshman Nick Haynes earned his first career start.
- UK's youth on the offensive line showed against Florida with Zach West not playing because of injury and Darrian Miller leaving the game in the second quarter, UK played with three redshirt freshmen in the offensive line -- Nick Haynes at left tackle, Cole Mosier at left guard and Ramsey Meyers at right guard.
- UK's offensive line has allowed UK's running backs to rush for 6.2 yards per carry this season.
- Center Jon Toth was named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week following the win over Ohio and senior Darrian Miller earned the honor after UK's SEC win against Vanderbilt.
- The strong blocking on the line has allowed UK rush for 180+ yards in four of its first five games to start a season for the first time since 2007. Overall, UK is averaging 4.9 yards per carry this season, which would be the largest average per rush total since 1987 when UK also averaged 4.9 yards per rush.

DEFENSIVE HIGHLIGHTS

- Kentucky ranks seventh in the SEC in total defense, limiting the opponent to 359.4 yards per game. The Cats are fourth in pass defense (192.4), 10th in rushing defense (167.0) and sixth in scoring defense (19.6).
- Kentucky ranks high in several defensive categories nationally, including fourth in interceptions, 23rd in passing yards allowed, 24th in scoring defense, 13th in passing efficiency defense, 13th in turnovers gained.
- Kentucky did not allow a first-half offensive touchdown through the first four games for the first time since 1979. (Note: Vanderbilt got a touchdown in the first half on an interception return.)

- UK's streak of pitching a shutout in the first half was snapped after a second-quarter Florida field goal. UK went the first 82:47 of first-half play through three games without allowing its opponent to score.
- After just three total interceptions last season, UK has already tripled that number in just five games with nine interceptions. It marks the most INTs in the first five games since 2007.
- Five of UK's nine interceptions have come in the fourth quarter in 2014.
- UK has forced its opponent into a punt on its first possession in four of five games this season.
- Kentucky allowed only 43 points in regulation in its first three games this season, the least since allowing only 22 in its first four games in 2008.

SOUTH CAROLINA GAME ...

- Alvin "Bud" Dupree's six-yard interception return for a touchdown with 2:29 remaining capped the biggest fourth-quarter comeback win in school history, a 45-38 victory over South Carolina at Commonwealth Stadium.
- Bud Dupree's game-winning interception was UK's first game-winning INT for a touchdown since John Rader vs. Indiana in 1998.
- The Kentucky defense followed with another crucial stop, an Ashely Lowery interception on UK's 30-yard line with just over 1:30 to play that all but sealed the Wildcats' victory.

VANDERBILT GAME ...

- Kentucky held Vanderbilt to just 139 yards of total offense and eight first downs, the fewest yards and first downs allowed in an SEC game since holding Vandy to 91 total yards and 8 first downs in 1996.
- The Wildcats only allowed Vandy 85 passing yards in the game, the fewest against an SEC foe since allowing Miss. State 79 in 2004.
- UK held Vandy to 54 rushing yards, it fewest rushing yards allowed since holding Samford to -2 yards in 2012. It marked the fewest rushing yards allowed by UK in an SEC game since 2008 vs. Mississippi State, surrendering 43 yards.
- Kentucky limited Vandy to 47 offensive plays, the fewest it has allowed since 2009 vs. Clemson in the Music City Bowl.

FLORIDA GAME ...

- UK held Florida to 20 points at the end of regulation, its best defensive output vs. UF since holding the Gators to 20 points in 2004. Along with the 2004 game, it marked the fewest points allowed to UF by the Wildcats since 1986.

OHIO GAME ...

- UK did now allow an offensive touchdown, marking the first time since a 2012 win over Samford.
- UK's defense forced six three and outs.

UT MARTIN GAME ...

- UK forced five turnovers, its most since 2008 vs. Louisville. UK has forced four turnovers on four occasions since 2008.

2014 UK Opponents in Bold

- After forcing just three interceptions in 2013, UK had two interceptions against UT Martin, its most since picking off two passes at Missouri in 2012.
- UK forced and recovered three fumbles, marking its most fumbles recovered since three at Georgia in 2011. Junior Khalid Henderson returned one of the fumbles for a touchdown, the first by a UK player for yardage since 2012.

THE LINEBACKERS

- In his first season as a starter, middle linebacker Josh Forrest leads the team and ranks sixth in the SEC with 41 tackles, including 3.0 for loss. He had a career-high 15 tackles vs. South Carolina, marking his second career double-digit tackle game as he also had 10 tackles at Florida. Forrest originally came to UK as a wide receiver before moving to defense.
- Junior Khalid Henderson is second on the team in tackles with 29 stops. He also has two fumble recoveries, leading the SEC and ranking fourth nationally in that category. His recovery vs. UT Martin was returned 89 yards for a touchdown. He notched his first tackle for loss vs. South Carolina and the fourth of his career.
- Junior LB Ryan Flannigan finished with six tackles in his UK debut vs. UT Martin and combined for a sack vs. Ohio. He transferred to Kentucky after two seasons at Blinn College in Branham, Texas.

THE DEFENSIVE BACKS

- Junior cornerback Fred Tiller ranks tied for ninth in the SEC in total passes defended with five, including one interception and four pass breakups. Tiller got the season off to a great start, with his first career interception in the UT Martin game, along with two pass breakups.
- During spring practice and preseason camp, UK coaches frequently talked about junior-college transfer A.J. Stamps being a big-play performer. Stamps has proven the coaches correct. He has interceptions in three of his first five career games and is tied for third on the team in tackles with 27. In the season opener he had a spectacular one-handed interception (ESPN No. 3 "Play of the Day") and he also had a tackle for loss among his game-high eight tackles vs. UT Martin. He led the team in tackles vs. Ohio with six and notched his first career pass breakup. Against South Carolina, he picked off his third career interception and finished with seven tackles and a career-high two pass break-ups. Last season at East Mississippi, he charted four interceptions and nine PBU while helping lead East Mississippi to the national junior-college championship.
- Stamps is the first UK player with three interceptions through the first five games of a season since Marcus McClinton in 2008. He currently ranks 13th nationally and third in the SEC in INTs.
- Sophomore J.D. Harmon, who sat out last season after leading the team in 2012 with two interceptions, finished with six tackles, two tackles for a loss, one forced fumble and a quarterback hurry vs. UT Martin. Harmon also returned his first career kickoff, a 26-yard return in the fourth quarter. Against Vanderbilt, he finished with five tackles and forced his second fumble of the year.
- Senior Nate Willis recorded his first career interception against Florida. Willis returned it 27 yards.
- Senior Ashely Lowery is in his third season as a starter at safety. He has 19 tackles and two interceptions on the season, including key fourth-quarter pickoffs against Vanderbilt and South Carolina. Overall, he has four INTs in his career.
- Sophomore safety Marcus McWilson picked off his first career pass vs. Vanderbilt.
- Junior CB Cody Quinn broke up his third pass of the year vs. South Carolina and now has 11 in his career.

THE DEFENSIVE LINE

- Both of UK's returning starters at defensive end -- Bud Dupree and Za'Darius Smith -- received All-Southeastern Conference honors last season and after going through the National Football League evaluation process both decided to come back to UK for their final campaigns.
- Dupree, who has started in 31 straight games, totaled 61 tackles while leading the team with 9.5 tackles for loss, including seven quarterback sacks last season. He also caused two fumbles and broke up a pass. He was a second-team all-league pick by The Associated Press and Phil Steele's College Football. This season, he has 23 tackles, including 3.0 for loss, 1.5 sacks, a pass breakup and two quarterback hurries. Dupree -- the SEC's active career sack leader -- has 17.5 sacks in his four-year career, tying him for third in UK career history. Dupree made his first career interception vs. South Carolina, returning it six yards for the game-winning touchdown. It was Kentucky's first game-winning interception return since John Rader in 1998 vs. Indiana.

- Smith made 59 stops, 6.5 for loss, featuring six sacks last season. He led the team in quarterback hurries with six, broke up one pass and recovered a fumble. He was a third-team all-conference pick by CollegeSportsMadness.com. This season, he ranks tied for third in tackles with 27 and has recorded one pass break-up and one quarterback hurry. Smith had a great game at Florida with a career-high 11 tackles, one pass breakup and one-half sack.
- Senior Mike Douglas was key in UK's 45-38 win over South Carolina as he tipped a pass which Dupree caught and scored for the game-winning touchdown. Against UT Martin, Douglas notched his fourth career sack. He now has sacks in each season of his UK career. Against Ohio, he had two tackles and half a tackle for loss. He now has six TFL in his career.
- Redshirt freshman DT Regie Meant finished with four tackles, two sacks and one fumbled forced in his collegiate debut vs. UT Martin.
- Junior DT Cory "C.J." Johnson had a quarterback hurry in each of the first two games. Against Vanderbilt, Johnson recorded his first career sack and broke up his first career pass.
- Sophomore DE Jason Hatcher notched his first career start against Florida and played well. Hatcher finished with four tackles, one sack and two tackles for loss. He leads the team in tackles for loss with 4.5, ranking 13th in the SEC.
- Junior DT Melvin Lewis finished with three tackles against Florida and was credited with his first career sack. Against Vanderbilt, he notched his second tackle for loss this season.
- Freshman DT Matt Elam notched his first career pass break-up vs. South Carolina.

DUPREE HAS "FREAK" ATHLETIC ABILITY

Senior defensive end/linebacker Alvin "Bud" Dupree has been labeled as one of the top five athletic "freaks" in college football, according to NFL.com and Fox Sports. Here's what Bruce Feldman of Fox Sports had to say:

"One of the best things about Wildcat football is this 6-3, 267-pound hybrid LB-DE who made 61 tackles and 9.5 TFLs last season. Dupree, who has vertical jumped 40.5 inches and broad-jumped 11 feet, should light up the NFL Combine. UK's sports performance coach Erik Korem, who came from FSU, said Dupree's speed was clocked at 21 miles per hour on their GPS system."

SPECIAL TEAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Kentucky returns starters at all of its specialist positions except placekicker, where redshirt freshman Austin MacGinnis won the job for kickoff, field goal and extra point duties. So far this season, MacGinnis is 8 of 12 in his first career field-goal attempts. He hit a 53-yard field goal against Ohio, which tied the school record for longest field goal. MacGinnis made some clutch field goals against Florida, tying the game with a 35-yarder at the end of the first half. He hit a 51-yarder towards the end of regulation to send the game to overtime and hit a 26-yarder in the second overtime to send the game to a third overtime.
- MacGinnis has a team-leading 36 points scored on the year and is a perfect 21 of 21 in PAT attempts.
- MacGinnis has also handled the kickoffs this season. He has 30 kickoffs in 2014, with 14 going for touchbacks.
- Junior Landon Foster has averaged 42.2 yards per punt during his three seasons as the starting punter for UK. So far in 2014, Foster has pinned UK opponents inside their own 20-yard line 12 times and has totaled 40 in his three-year career. Foster helped UK flip field position in its first half against Florida, punting six times in the first half and pinning the Gators inside their own 20-yard line five times.
- Foster had a season-long 55-yard punt vs. Vanderbilt.
- Long snapper Kelly Mason and holder Jared Leet have been very consistent in their roles.

STADIUM RENOVATION UNDERWAY

- Construction has begun on the $120 million renovation of Commonwealth Stadium, a project that features a new look for the exterior of the stadium, wider and redesigned concourses, new concession stands and rest rooms, new suites and other premium seating, a recruiting room and a new press box.
- It's a two-year project but there should be minimal disruption for the 2014 season. Part of the southside upper deck has been removed in order to begin the new suite/press box complex and there will be some utility and other site preparation work done this year. Seating capacity for the stadium will be 62,093 for the 2014 campaign.
- The majority of the construction will begin immediately after the last home game on Nov. 8. The reworked stadium is expected to be complete in time for the 2015 season.
- Meanwhile, UK also has begun planning for a $45 million football office/practice complex that will be built on the south end of the existing Nutter Field House. Construction of that facility is expected to commence following the season, with completion targeted for 2016.

UK REGISTERS NATION'S 2ND-LARGEST ATTENDANCE INCREASE

- The fan response to Coach Mark Stoops and his staff has been encouraging in the year-plus that the new coaches have been on board.
- "Stoops Troops" first responded when a school-record 50,831 turned out for the 2013 Blue/White Spring Game. It was the sixth-largest spring game attendance in the nation and numerous recruits who were there that day noted that the strong turnout played a key role in their eventual decision to sign with Kentucky.
- The 2013 regular season saw a sharp uptick in attendance. Kentucky averaged 59,472 per game in 2013, an increase of 9,781 from the previous season. It was the second-largest increase in the nation.

WILLIAMSON TAKEN IN 5TH ROUND BY TITANS

- Kentucky had one player selected in April's National Football League draft, linebacker Avery Williamson, who was tabbed in the fifth round by the Tennessee Titans. Two other Wildcats signed free-agent contracts. During the last seven years, 48 Wildcats have been drafted or signed as free agents.

CATS IN THE NFL

- A total of 11 former Kentucky Wildcats are currently on National Football League rosters. Here is the list, along with their years at UK:

Atlanta Falcons

REMARKABLE RECRUITING

- Undoubtedly, the most amazing facet of Kentucky football since the arrival of Mark Stoops has been the remarkable recruiting done by the coach and his relentless staff.
- This season, Stoops and Co. registered a consensus top-25 recruiting class, which is the highest ranked class in program history. When Stoops was hired at UK in 2012, he inherited a class ranked in the 60s by the national services, but built the class to a top-30 ranking.
- For more on UK's recruiting, and the national media response, see page 5.

SCHEDULE CHANGES

- Three of UK's annual opponents – Louisville, Tennessee and Vanderbilt – will be played at different points in the schedule beginning in 2014. As requested by the SEC and the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Kentucky vs. Louisville game will be moved to the final game of the regular season on an annual basis. The leagues moved the game as a result of adjustments in scheduling brought on by the conference expansions undertaken in both the SEC and ACC.
- The switch of the Kentucky-Louisville game date means that there will be four SEC vs. ACC in-state rivalry matchups on the final weekend of the season. The Florida-Florida State, Georgia-Georgia Tech and South Carolina-Clemson tilts also are on that weekend.
- The UK vs. UofL game had been played early in the schedule since the series was renewed in 1994. For Kentucky, moving the game to the end of the regular season also will require another adjustment. Tennessee has been scheduled as the Wildcats' final foe since 1953 and the Volunteers will now move to Nov. 15, 2014, meaning that UK will close the regular season with a pair of rivalry games.
- One other significant timing change comes with the Vanderbilt game. Having played VU in November every season since 1953, the Wildcats hosted the Commodores on Sept. 27, 2014.

UK FOOTBALL CONTINUES OUTREACH

Three UK players, defensive end Alvin "Bud" Dupree, running back Braylon Heard and punter Landon Foster, enjoyed an interesting experience in May as the Wildcats traveled to Ethiopia for an educational/service trip. It was the fourth consecutive summer that UK football players made the service trip to Ethiopia. Guided by UK senior associate director of athletics Jason Schlafer, the players visited families, played with children, distributed food and did work projects.

DID YOU KNOW?

- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 20 national cheer-leading championships, including 16 of the last 20, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association championships.
- Kentucky is one of only 10 schools that have won an NCAA men's basketball championship while also having a claim on a national championship in football.
- UK is one of only seven universities in the U.S. that have programs in agriculture, engineering, law, medicine and pharmacy on a single campus.

FAMILY TIES AT KENTUCKY

- UK graduate assistant Sam Simpson's father (also named Sam) played football at UK from 1977-79.
- OL Zach Myers is the son of former UK offensive lineman Brad Myers (1984-87). Brad blocked for three of the top rushers in UK history - George Adams, Mark Higgs and Marc Logan.
- There is one set of twins on the team this season in Daron and Zack Blaylock. Daron was a sophomore last season playing in all 12 games, while Zack used a redshirt season in 2013 and is entering his sophomore season of eligibility.
- UK sophomore wide receiver Ryan Timmons has a twin sister named Raven, who is a student recruiting assistant in the football office.

UK Head Coach Mark Stoops has the Wildcats 4-1 in 2014 in his second season on the job.

Ft. Thomas, Ky. (Highlands)

- Made first career start vs. UT Martin and had the second-best starting QB debut for UK, amassing 407 total yards, two yards shy of Dusty Bonner's record in 1999.
- Led UK to its fourth-best single-game offensive output (656 yards) in the win over UT Martin.
- Showcased rushing ability with 22 carries in UK's win over Ohio, including six rushes of 10 yards or more.
- Had another career day in UK's three overtime thriller at Florida, passing for 369 yards and three TDs.
- Is the fifth quarterback in UK history to throw for 360+ yards in a game twice in their career and the first to do it in their first three career starts.
- Had three interceptions in the game at Florida, with one coming after a ball was dropped and a second coming on a miscommunication with a freshman WR.
- In UK's win over Vanderbilt, opened the game leading UK 99 yards for a TD, going 9-for-9 and connecting with eight different receivers on the drive.
- Helped the Wildcats to a win over South Carolina with a 20-for-29 outing, throwing for over 200 yards for the third consecutive game in his fifth career start.

KENTUCKY 59, UT MARTIN 14

AUG. 30, 2014 • COMMONWEALTH STADIUM
LEXINGTON, KY.

Braylon Heard's first-half touchdown runs of 73 and 43 yards spurred Kentucky to a season-opening, 59-14 rout of Tennessee-Martin.

Quarterback Patrick Towles added a TD passing and running in his first career start for Kentucky, which out-gained the Skyhawks 656-398. The Wildcats' sophomore threw for 377 yards and accounted for 407 yards total offense. Kentucky's tailbacks set the tone by flying through huge holes and scoring virtually untouched, especially Heard, the junior transfer whose TDs were his only carries of the day. The scores propelled Kentucky to a 35-0 halftime lead and the Wildcats never looked back.

True freshman Mikel Horton also scored twice and sophomore Jojo Kemp added a TD run for Kentucky. Linebacker Khalid Henderson returned a third-quarter fumble 89 yards for a score.

UT Martin spoiled Kentucky's bid for its first shutout since September 2009 as Najee Ray and Caylo Weathers scored fourth-quarter TDs on 1-yard run and 15-yard reception, respectively.

By then the Wildcats had already overwhelmed the Skyhawks on both sides of the ball. The Wildcats' 656 yards were their fourth-highest total in a game. Besides the lopsided yardage margin, the UK defense claimed five turnovers, two interceptions and three fumble recoveries. Safety A.J. Stamps, a junior-college transfer in his first UK contest, made a spectacular one-handed interception and a tackle for loss. Stamps and Henderson shared game-high honors with eight tackles each.

Towles was great in his first career start, completing 20 of 29 attempts without an interception and the backfield rushed for 234 yards and ended up showing the scheme's big-play potential. Heard demonstrated that on both TDs, blazing through big holes on consecutive drives to put Kentucky up 21-0 after Kemp started the scoring with a two-yard rush.

True freshman Blake Bone and Horton added touchdowns before halftime to give the Wildcats a 35-0 lead. The Wildcats didn't let off the gas coming out of the locker room as UK forced a fumble on the opening kickoff and Towles rushed in from 23 yards out three plays later to put UK up 42-0.

Freshman kicker Austin MacGinnis nailed a 20-yard field goal later in the third quarter before Henderson's fumble return for a touchdown gave UK a 52-0 lead.

KENTUCKY 20, OHIO 3

SEPT. 6, 2014 • COMMONWEALTH STADIUM
LEXINGTON, KY.

Kentucky quarterback Patrick Towles threw for 170 yards and rushed for 59 more to lead the Wildcats to a 20-3 win over Ohio on Saturday at Commonwealth Stadium.

Towles completed 17-of-31 passes and one touchdown and led the Wildcats to their first 2-0 start since 2011. He got the Wildcats off to a fast start with touchdown drives on the first two possessions, including an 8-yard touchdown toss to freshman wide receiver Dorian Baker, followed by a 53-yard scoring burst by freshman running back Stanley "Boom" Williams.

Williams, Jojo Kemp, Josh Clemons and Mikel Horton split time in the backfield in the absence of starter Braylon Heard, who missed the game because of a sprained ankle. Williams led the Wildcats with 60 yards rushing on five carries, including the 53-yard TD. Towles and the backs combined to rush for 232 yards, UK's second-consecutive game over the 200-yard rushing mark.

Towles had six rushes of 10 yards or more on 22 attempts, including a 16-yard jaunt in the second quarter. Towles made successful completions to four different receivers, with sophomore receiver Ryan Timmons catching 10 passes for 95 yards, both career highs. Baker had two catches for 41 yards, including the touchdown.

Redshirt freshman kicker Austin MacGinnis added a pair of field goals, including a 53-yarder in the second quarter that tied Doug Pelfrey's school record for longest field goal in school history.

Meanwhile, the Kentucky defense kept the visitors out of the end zone as the Wildcats held consecutive opponents scoreless in the first half for the first time since 1988. UK limited Ohio to just 223 total yards. Safety A.J. Stamps was the leading tackler with six stops and he was one of five Wildcats who had a pass breakup. Sophomore defensive end Jason Hatcher had 2.5 tackles for loss.

Ohio avoided the shut out on Josiah Yazdani's 44-yard field goal at the 12:12 mark of the third quarter.

FLORIDA 36, KENTUCKY 30 (30T)

SEPT. 13, 2014 • BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM
GAINESVILLE, FLA.

Matt Jones' 1-yard touchdown plunge in the third overtime gave Florida a 36-30 home victory over Kentucky, ending one of the most exciting games in series history.

After Kentucky missed a field goal to begin the third frame, Jones followed with three runs that put Florida at the 1 and then slammed through the line on second down for the game-winner.

Overtime began with UK's Stanley "Boom" Williams taking a short pass, reversing field, and outrunning several tacklers to score from 25 yards out. Florida countered when Jeff Driskel hit Demarcus Robinson in the corner of the endzone on 4th-and-7 from the UK 9-yard line. The teams exchanged field goals in the second overtime.

The game began with a defensive struggle and was tied at 3-3 at halftime, Kentucky's third-consecutive game without allowing a touchdown in the first half. A third-quarter offensive explosion saw both teams score two touchdowns, including Wildcat freshman wide receiver Garrett Johnson hauling in TD tosses of 60 and 33 yards from Patrick Towles. Johnson finished the game with six catches for 154 yards, a UK freshman record. Towles completed 24-of-45 passes for 369 yards and three touchdowns.

Kentucky kicker Austin MacGinnis, who made three field goals in the game, hit a clutch 51-yarder with 3:52 left in the game to deadlock it at 20-20. Florida missed a 52-yarder on the final play of regulation to put it to extra time.

Florida was led by Driskel, who threw for 295 yards and three touchdowns. Robinson caught 15 passes for 216 yards and two scores, while Jones had a game-high 156 rushing yards.

KENTUCKY 17, VANDERBILT 7

SEPT. 27, 2014 • COMMONWEALTH STADIUM
LEXINGTON, KY.

A stifling defensive effort limited Vanderbilt to 139 yards of total offense and propelled Kentucky to a 17-7 win on a perfect Saturday afternoon in front of a season-best 56,940 at Commonwealth Stadium.

Kentucky posted its first league win in the head coach Mark Stoops era, while showcasing a dominating defense that handcuffed Vanderbilt into just 85 passing and 54 rushing yards. In holding Vandy to just 139 yards, it marked the fewest yards allowed by UK in an SEC game since holding the Commodores to 91 yards in 1996.

The Wildcats jumped out to the lead on a 20-yard pass from UK sophomore quarterback Patrick Towles to wide receiver Ryan Timmons, completing a 13-play, 99-yard drive. Towles was 9-for-9 on the drive, connecting with eight different receivers.

The 'Dores evened the game on a 13-yard interception return for a touchdown by Darius Sims in the second quarter. UK answered immediately on the strength of a 44-yard field goal from freshman Austin MacGinnis, completing an 11-play, 47-yard drive. UK stretched the lead to the final margin with a 66-yard drive that concluded with Towles plunging in on third and one with eight seconds remaining in the first half. It improved UK's stretch of outscoring foes in the first half through four games to 72-10, with the UK defense not allowing a touchdown on the campaign.

With the Commodores facing a 10-point hole after intermission, UK's defense went to work, picking off three passes in the fourth quarter to clinch the conference win for UK, improving the Wildcats to 3-0 at home in 2014.

UK's defense totaled three interceptions and six pass breakups, charting four sacks and forcing VU quarterback Wade Freebeck into an 8-for-25 game. UK's front seven was paced by 1.5 sacks from senior defensive end Alvin "Bud" Dupree, with Ashely Lowery, Marcus McWilson and A.J. Stamps each recording interceptions. The interception for McWilson, a sophomore safety, marked his first career pick.

A native of Ft. Thomas, Ky., Towles was 23-for-30 from the air for 201 yards, notching rushing and receiving touchdowns. Senior Javess Blue hauled in a game-high four catches, collecting 35 yards. Timmons, who notched his third career touchdown and his first of the year, finished with three catches for 34 yards.

On the ground, junior Braylon Heard rushed a career-best 15 times for 64 yards, with sophomore Jojo Kemp totaling 60 yards on eight carries. Freshman Mikel Horton rushed six times for 31 yards, with freshman Stanley Williams charting 27 rushing yards on five carries, 39 yards on three catches and 56 yards on two kick returns.

KENTUCKY 45, SOUTH CAROLINA 38

OCT. 4, 2014 • COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

LEXINGTON, KY.

Alvin "Bud" Dupree's six-yard interception return for a touchdown with 2:29 remaining capped the biggest fourth-quarter comeback win in school history, a 45-38 victory over South Carolina at Commonwealth Stadium.

In front of 62,135, Patrick Towles threw for 208 yards and a touchdown and Jojo Kemp had 131 yards rushing and three scores - most of them out of the Wildcat formation - to lead the Wildcats to their second consecutive Southeastern Conference victory. Kentucky improved to 4-1 and 2-1 in league play, while South Carolina fell to 3-3 and 2-2 in the SEC.

Kentucky found itself down by two scores twice, but continued to battle back. Trailing 38-24 early in the fourth quarter, UK tallied 21 unanswered points that was the game changer. UK's offense found the end zone on consecutive drives, both Kemp touchdown runs, to tie the game at 38-38.

It was on South Carolina's possession after Kentucky tied the game that the UK defense made its biggest statement yet. With the Gamecocks on their own 20-yard line, defensive tackle Mike Douglas tipped a pass which Dupree gathered at the six-yard line and the senior went untouched into the end zone for the game-winning touchdown. The Kentucky defense followed with another crucial stop, an Ashely Lowery interception on UK's 30-yard line with just over 1:30 to play that all but sealed the Wildcats victory.

South Carolina scored the first 14 points of the game, with touchdowns on its first two possessions. A Mike Davis one-yard run capped a 19-play, 79-yard drive to open the night to give the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead. After Kentucky punted on its next possession, Davis scored from two yards out to end a 72-yard drive 18 seconds into the second quarter.

Kemp rushed in on UK's following drive to cut the lead in half and after a SC field goal made it 17-7, UK's Braylon Heard scored and A.J. Stamps had a key interception late in the half to set up a 47-yard field goal to tie the game 17-17 at the break.
