ULM Quick Notes

- ULM is over .500 after seven games for the first time since 2004-05. The Warhawks are looking to be two games over .500 after eight games for the first time since 1999-2000 when they began 6-2
- With a win, ULM would improve to 2-1 on the road for the first time since 1993-94. The Warhawks won at UAB, 74-65 to begin the season before falling at No. 8 Florida in overtime
- The Warhawks are looking to defeat a team from the Mountain West Conference for the first time since Dec. 30, 1986 when they edged Nevada, 69-68. It's the program's ninth-ever game against a Mountain West opponent
- ULM has had four different players tally a double-double and eight different players reach double-figure scoring in a game this season
- The Warhawks enter the game ranking first in the SBC in field goal percentage defense (.355), assists (16.6 apg), blocks (6.4 bpg) and defensive rebounds (27.1 drpg). The field goal percentage defense and blocks both rank top-15 in the country
- It marks the third time this season that Keith and Lance Richard will be going up against another father/son combo. They have already played against Eric/Josiah Capaci (Champion Baptist) and Billy/Billy Donovan (Florida). However, UNM's Cullen Neal is not expected to play due to an ankle injury
- The Warhawks are 4-0 this season when they have at least four double-figure scorers in a game and 3-0 when they shoot over .500 from the field. They've scored at least 80 points in back-to-back games
- ULM is 3-0 at home for the first time since 2006-07 when it went 14-0. The Warhawks are 393-169 (.699) all-time at Fant-Ewing Coliseum

- The Warhawks are coming off a thrilling 82-74 victory over Northwestern State on Tuesday. ULM led 36-19 in the first half and then had to overcome a 68-65 deficit with 5:45 remaining in the game. Senior Tylor Ongwae led the team with 19 points and 10 rebounds, and junior DeMondre Harvey also etched a double-double with career-highs of 12 points and 10 rebounds

- ULM has had two players tally double-doubles in the same game twice this season (against Louisiana College and Northwestern State)

- Ongwae leads the team on the season with 15.4 points and 7.0 rebounds per game. He was one assist away from a triple-double in ULM's last outing against Northwestern State with nine. He won the first Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week to begin the season and was also named to the Preseason All-Conference Second-Team

- Junior Justin Roberson also averages in double-figures with 10.3 points per game. He's tied for the team lead with 10 steals on the year

- Sophomore Nick Coppola ranks first in the SBC in assist:turnover ratio with a 3.5 clip. His career-high 12 assists against Louisiana College were the most by a player in the league in a single game this season. Coppola scores 9.7 points per game and is shooting .414 (12-29) from beyond-the-arc. He started all 27 games last year at point guard as a true freshman

- Junior Majok Deng has posted two double-doubles and is second in the league in blocks with 1.8 per game. Deng scores 9.6 points per game

- Earlier this season, ULM took eighth-ranked Florida to overtime. Coppola hit a three-pointer with 19 seconds left to level the score at 51. ULM led 54-53 with 3:00 remaining in overtime after a three-point play from Ongwae

- The 61 points allowed versus No. 8 Florida was the lowest ULM has ever let up against a ranked opponent in program history

- ULM posted a historic 106-39 victory over Champion Baptist in its home opener. The 67-point win broke the school record for largest margin of victory. It was also the most points ULM scored in a game since Feb. 17, 2001 in a game against UTSA. Additionally, the 67-point victory is the largest of any game in the Sun Belt Conference this season

- The Warhawks followed it up with a 28-point home win over Louisiana College as both Deng and Coppola recorded double-doubles

- It was the first opening night victory for ULM since Nov. 14, 2008 when it defeated Morehead State, 56-54 and the first opening night road win since Nov. 23, 1999 when it won at Samford, 67-60. Additionally, it was the largest opening night road victory since Dec. 1, 1979 when it beat Nicholls State, 79-69

- The Warhawks were tabbed for sixth in the Sun Belt Conference Preseason Poll. They return three starters and six players overall on a team that more-than doubled both its overall and conference win totals

- ULM brought back starting center Marvin Williams who ranked top-10 in the SBC in blocks last year. He tallied nine double-figure scoring games. Williams notched a 19-point performance against No. 5 Kansas and outscored both Andrew Wiggins and Joel Embiid, the first and third picks of the NBA draft

- The Warhawks enter the 2014-15 season without any APR penalties for the first time in five years. ULM head coach Keith Richard has turned the program around academically since inheriting APR sanctions when he took over at the helm, and the Warhawks have won back-to-back Sun Belt Conference academic awards

- For the first time since the NCAA instituted academic progress rate (APR) scores in 2003-04, the ULM men's basketball program tallied a perfect 1,000 score in the 2013-14 season. Over the summer, ULM was the only Division I institution in the state of Louisiana to earn the Team Academic Excellence award from the NABC

- The ULM men's basketball program will honor legendary former head coach Mike Vining by raising a banner featuring the number "402" in a special halftime ceremony during the Warhawks game on Saturday, Jan. 24, 2015 against Georgia Southern at Fant-Ewing Coliseum. The 402 represents the total number of Vining's regular season and post-season victories over his 24 seasons as ULM head coach from 1981-2005

Scouting New Mexico

The Lobos (5-3) are coming off back-to-back wins. They defeated New Mexico State, 62-47 at home before taking down Valparaiso on the road, 63-46. UNM is 3-1 at home this season with its only loss coming to USC, 66-54 on Nov. 30.

UNM played three games at the ESPN Puerto Rico Tip-Off where it went 1-2. It fell to Boston College 69-65, defeated George Mason 69-58 and dropped the final game to Texas A&M 64-61.

Cullen Neal, the coach's son, leads the team with 17.0 points per game but has missed the last five games due to an ankle injury. He is not expected to play against ULM. In his absence, Deshawn Delaney has stepped in with 13.5 points and 5.8 rebounds per game, while Hugh Greenwood scores 10.5 points per game.

The Lobos have not allowed a team to score 70 points against them this season. They have held opponents to under 60 points five times and under 50 points in both of their last two games.

UNM was picked third in the Mountain West Preseason Poll, only behind San Diego State and Boise State.

Craig Neal enters his second season at the helm. He brought the Lobos to the NCAA Tournament last year and posted a 27-7 record. Craig Neal coached UNM to the Mountain West Tournament title, the third straight for the school. He was a finalist for a pair of national coaching honors: the Joe B. Hall Award as the nation's top rookie coach, and the Jim Phelan Award for national coach of the year.

Cullen was previously Associate Head Coach at UNM and also held stints as Assistant Coach at Iowa and the Toronto Raptors.

ULM Starts Strong, Finishes Strong in 82-74 Thriller Over Northwestern State

MONROE, La. — In the 120th meeting between the ULM men's basketball program and Northwestern State, the Warhawks built a 17-point lead in the first half and then had to overcome a late second half deficit in a thrilling 82-74 win on Tuesday at Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

ULM (4-3) led 36-19 with 11:19 remaining in the first half and brought a 42-30 advantage into halftime before the Demons (3-5) came storming back. NSU cut the deficit to just 49-47 at the 13:54 mark and took the lead, 68-65 after a three-pointer by Zeek Woodley at the 5:45 mark.

The Warhawks answered with five consecutive points from junior Majok Deng to leap back in front, 72-68. After NSU brought the deficit back down to two points, Deng hit a huge three-pointer near the end of the shot clock to put ULM up for good with 1:13 remaining.

Senior Tylor Ongwae led ULM with a team-high 19 points and 10 rebounds. He was one assist shy of a triple-double with a career-high nine.

The Warhawks built their early lead after a huge first half from junior DeMondre Harvey. He finished with his first career double-double with career highs of 12 points and 10 rebounds. Harvey was a perfect six-for-six from the field and had 10 points and eight rebounds at halftime.

Deng ended with 14 points to match his career-high and also grabbed seven rebounds and swatted two blocks.
