It was also the most points ULM scored in a game since Feb. 17, 2001 in a game against UTSA. Additionally, the 67-point victory is the largest of any game in the Sun Belt Conference this season
- The Warhawks followed it up with a 28-point home win over Louisiana College as both Deng and Coppola recorded double-doubles
- ULM has had two players tally double-doubles in the same game twice this season, both at home (against La. College and Northwestern St.)

- The Warhawks opened the season with a 74-65 victory on the road over UAB. It was the first opening night victory for ULM since Nov. 14, 2008 when it defeated Morehead State, 56-54 and the first opening night road win since Nov. 23, 1999 when it won at Samford, 67-60. Additionally, it was the largest opening night road victory since Dec. 1, 1979 when it beat Nicholls State, 79-69

Scouting South Alabama

At the halfway point of conference play, the Jaguars are 5-5 in the league and 7-14 overall. They are coming off an 89-85 win at home on Thursday against UL-Lafayette after the Ragin' Cajuns led by 10 at halftime. USA swept the season series over UL-Lafayette.

Ken Williams leads the team with 15.0 points per game on the year. He's the top three-pointer shooter in the conference in SBC games only at .456 (26-57). Taishaun Johnson shoots .400 (14-35) and scores 13.1 per game. USA enters the game as the top three-point shooting team in the league at a remarkable .415 clip.

Dionte Ferguson is the team's leading rebounder with 6.8 per game and also puts in 11.1 points per outing.

Enter his second season as head coach, Matthew Graves made it top priority to change the culture at South Alabama. He brought with him 17 years of success at Butler University, both as a student-athlete and coach. Graves overhauled the team on and off the court last year, resulting in the team's highest GPA in five seasons.

During his tenure at Butler, Graves helped the program to an overall record of 244-98 (71.3%), a berth in national postseason tournaments each of the last eight seasons and eight straight years with 20-plus victories. Following the 2009-10 campaign that saw the Bulldogs finish 33-5 after falling to Duke 61-59 in the national title contest, he was promoted to associate head coach.

In ULM's Last Outing...

ULM Escapes Troy with 58-55 Come-From-Behind Overtime Win

TROY, Ala. – The ULM men's basketball program started slow but made big plays in the second half and overtime to comeback and pull-out a 58-55 victory over Troy on Thursday at Trojan Arena.

ULM (13-8, 7-3 SBC) trailed by 10 points at halftime and 13 points in the second half before coming back to even the score. Juniors Majok Deng and Mack Foster each tallied 15 points on five made field goals and a trio of three-pointers apiece. Foster's 15 points marked a career-high.

Troy led 34-21 early in the second half when ULM came storming back with a 14-4 run to force a Trojan timeout with the score 38-35 with 13:08 to go. After Troy pushed its lead up to 44-38, the Warhawks responded with three-pointers from junior Jamaal Samuel and sophomore Nick Coppola to tie it, 44-44 at the 8:19 mark.

Troy's Kelton Ford hit a free throw and then made a three-pointer to put the Trojans back on top, 48-45. Foster came back and levelled the score once again, 50-50, after a big three-pointer with 1:18 remaining. Both teams had a chance to score on their last possession of regulation but couldn't get the finishing bucket to go through. The Trojans had the final chance but Ford's driving lay-up was deflected in the closing seconds.

ULM scored the first six points in overtime on two free throws from both Foster and Roberson and a lay-in by Foster. The Trojans answered with baskets from Musa Abdul-Aleem and Kevin Thomas to cut it to 56-54 with 1:49 left.

Troy was able to get a pair of stops defensively and had the ball with 22 seconds. Thomas found an open driving lane and a ULM student-athlete was called for a flagrant foul for intentionally fouling him in order to stop an easy lay-in. However, Thomas missed both free throws. ULM got a stop after Troy was rewarded the ball after the flagrant foul and Roberson hit a pair of free throws to make it a four-point game with 13 seconds left.

Abdul-Aleem posted a game-high 17 points for the Trojans including four three-pointers.

ULM led 58-49 when it pulled away from the Jaguars in the last six minutes. It used an 11-1 run to go up 69-50 after a three-pointer by Amajoyi. The Warhawks scored their final basket of the game on a lay-up from Coppola.
