ULM Quick Notes

- ULM has reached the SBC Semifinals for the first-time in school history. The Warhawks defeated South Alabama, 77-59 in the quarterfinals for the program's first postseason win since 2010. The 18 points was ULM's largest margin of victory in postseason play since 1997 when it downed Northwestern State, 85-54
- The Warhawks finished in a tie for second-place in the Sun Belt Conference standings after being picked sixth in the SBC Preseason Poll
- ULM notched its 11th 20-win season in school history and the first since 2001-02. The 21 wins are the most since 1992-93
- The Warhawks etched their 39th winning season in school history and their first since 2006-07
- ULM and Georgia Southern split its pair of meetings this season with both teams winning on the road. The Warhawks are 9-2 all-time against the Eagles, but they have never played on a neutral court
- Keith Richard won his second career SBC Coach of the Year award. Senior Tylor Ongwae was named to the All-Conference First-Team and junior Majok Deng earned All-Conference Third-Team honors. Ongwae became the first-ever ULM student-athlete to earn All-SBC First-Team accolades. It also marked the first time ULM had two All-SBC players in the same year
- For the second year in a row, the Warhawks doubled both their overall and conference win totals. ULM finished 10-17 (7-11 SBC) last season
- The Warhawks posted the most single-season SBC wins in school history with 14
- On the season, ULM has held the opposition to under 60 points 16 times, including 10 times (half its games) in SBC play
- ULM is one of four teams in the nation to not allow 75 points in a single game this season. The list also includes Saint Peter's, Baylor and New Hampshire

- ULM ranks 11th in the country in field goal percentage defense (.382) and 14th in the nation in three-point field goal percentage defense (.296). It also leads the conference in blocks with 4.3 per game

- The Warhawks notched five season-sweeps on the year. ULM completed the season-sweep over rival UL-Lafayette for the first time since 1971-72. The Warhawks also swept South Alabama, UALR, Troy and Texas State. It was the second year in a row that ULM swept both South Alabama and UALR

- ULM completed a three-game season sweep over USA. It marked the first-time ULM defeated a team three times in the same year since 1996-97 when it did it to Northwestern State. It also marked the fifth consecutive victory over the Jaguars dating back to last season

- Two players registered a double-double (Deng/Harvey) against the Jags in the SBC Quarterfinals. It marked the third time the Warhawks have done that in a game this season (previously against La. College and Northwestern St.)

- ULM is 17-1 on the season when it has at least three double-figure scorers and 9-0 when it shoots over 50 percent from the field

- Ongwae leads the team in scoring with 13.9 points per game and grabs 6.8 rebounds per contest. Ongwae has reached double-figures in scoring 21 times this year, including six 20-plus outings. He's a three-time LSWA, two-time SBC and two-time CSM Player of the Week winner this season. Ongwae ranks second in the SBC in free throw percentage (.849). He has seven career double-doubles including four this season

- Deng put in 11.1 points per game in league action and shooting .368 (25-68) from three-point range. He averages 1.4 blocks per game on the year, third-best in the SBC. Deng has swatted a block in 24 games this season and at least two blocks 14 times. He has posted five double-doubles on the year and has reached double-figures in scoring 18 times

- Sophomore Nick Coppola leads the SBC in assist:turnover ratio (2.2) and is third in assists (3.9 apg). He's played 40 minutes (or more) 13 times this season and 22 times in his career. He played six straight 40 minute games, a school record, breaking Maurice Bell's string of five in a row in 1999-2000. Coppola scores 9.4 points per game on the year and is shooting a team-high .400 (50-125) from beyond-the-arc

- Junior Justin Roberson has reached double-figures in scoring in six of the last eight games. He averages 9.2 points per game on the year and leads the team with 34 steals

- Junior DeMondre Harvey has posted a double-double in two of the last three games. He etched 11 points and 10 rebounds in the SBC Quarterfinals against South Alabama

- ULM finished 12-3 at Fant-Ewing Coliseum this year and 402-172 (.700) all-time

- The Warhawks won seven of their last nine road games this season. It included a stretch of six road victories in a row, the most since 1993-94

- The Warhawks finished 5-2 in February. The five wins were the most since 1999-2000. They wrapped up the month of January with an 8-2 record, their best January record since 2001-02

- ULM honored Chinedu Amajoyi, Tylor Ongwae, Evan Sims and Marvin Williams on Senior Day with a special presentation before the game. All four are on pace to graduate with degrees from ULM in the spring

- The Warhawks are receiving votes in the latest CollegeInsider Mid-Major Top-25 Poll. They have been as high as No. 22 this season

- This season, the Warhawks etched two win streaks of six games in the same year for the first time since 1992-93

- Twice this season the Warhawks erased a 13-point second half deficit to come back and win in overtime. They did it at UT Arlington and Troy. Keith Richard is 20-9 all-time in overtime in his head coaching career and 3-0 SBC this year

- The Warhawks also came back from a 12-point second half deficit against Texas State on Senior Day to win, 56-53

- ULM posted an 18-point win over South Alabama on the road in the second meeting this year, the largest win over USA in school history in 18 meetings. Roberson went off for 18 points on six made field goals, six free throws, five offensive rebounds, four assists, three steals and a block

- ULM has had five different players tally a double-double and eight different players reach double-figure scoring in a game this season

- At the start of conference play, ULM shot up to the top of the standings after its first six-game winning streak of the year. It was the most consecutive SBC victories in school history. It was also the most league wins in-a-row since 1998-99 when it was a member of the Southland Conference

- Ongwae won Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week, College Sports Madness SBC Player of the Week and Louisiana Player of the Week on Feb. 9. He averaged 20 points per game on the week and led the Warhawks to a pair of victories including a road win at Georgia Southern to catapult them into first-place

- It marked the second SBC and CSM weekly awards and third LSWA weekly award for Ongwae this season. ULM is also the only team in the SBC to win three weekly awards this year as senior Marvin Williams won on Jan. 12

- Ongwae was also named to the Capital One Academic All-District First-Team, the only one from the Sun Belt Conference

- Senior Marvin Williams was named SBC Player of the Week and Co-Louisiana Player of the Week on Jan. 12, 2015. Williams shot 26-33 (.798) and averaged 20.7 points on the week. He posted a career-high 22 points against Red Wolves and then matched his scoring and rebounding highs with 22 and 13 against the Mavs, respectively. Williams' Player of the Week honors came on a stretch of three games in five days where the Warhawks went undefeated

- Ongwae's first couple weekly awards came when he won Co-LSWA Player of the Week on Dec. 22, 2014 and Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week on Nov. 18, 2014. He was named to the Preseason All-SBC Second-Team after earning four postseason awards in 2013-14

- The Warhawks have won three SBC Player of the Week awards this season with Ongwae winning twice. ULM has had two different players earn SBC Player of the Week honors in the same season for the first time in school history

- Ongwae has won the Warhawk of the Week award nine times in his career, the most in the award's two-year history

- The Warhawks closed out non-conference play with a winning record for the first time since 2007-08
- Earlier this season, ULM took eighth-ranked Florida to overtime. Coppola hit a three-pointer with 19 seconds left to level the score at 51. ULM led 54-53 with 3:00 remaining in overtime after a three-point play from Ongwae
- The 61 points allowed versus No. 8 Florida was the lowest ULM has ever let up against a ranked opponent in program history
- ULM hung around in front of 13,710 fans at The Pit against New Mexico in a closely contested 54-46 decision. ULM went on an 11-0 run in the second half to make it a six-point game with 3:48 remaining
- The Warhawks posted a historic 106-39 victory over Champion Baptist in their home opener. The 67-point win broke the school record for largest margin of victory. It was also the most points ULM scored in a game since Feb. 17, 2001 in a game against UTSA. Additionally, the 67-point victory is the largest of any game in the Sun Belt Conference this season
- The Warhawks followed it up with a 28-point home win over Louisiana College as both Deng and Coppola recorded double-doubles
- Coppola dished out a career-high 12 assists against Louisiana College in a double-double. Coppola started all 27 games last year at point guard as a true freshman and has started every game of his career
- The Warhawks opened the season with a 74-65 victory on the road over UAB. It was the first opening night victory for ULM since Nov. 14, 2008 when it defeated Morehead State, 56-54 and the first opening night road win since Nov. 23, 1999 when it won at Samford, 67-60. Additionally, it was the largest opening night road victory since Dec. 1, 1979 when it beat Nicholls State, 79-69
- ULM has 15 home games on the 2014-15 schedule, the most since 1985-86
- Keith and Lance Richard have gone up against four other father/son duos this season. The Richard's took on Josiah/Eric Capaci at Champion Baptist, Billy/Billy Donovan at Florida, Cullen/Craig Neal at New Mexico and Ron/R.J. Hunter at Georgia State twice
- ULM was tabbed for sixth in the Sun Belt Conference Preseason Poll. It returns three starters and six players overall on a team that more-than doubled both its overall and conference win totals
- The Warhawks entered the 2014-15 season without any APR penalties for the first time in five years. Keith Richard turned the program around academically since inheriting APR sanctions when he took over at the helm, and the Warhawks have won back-to-back Sun Belt Conference academic awards
- For the first time since the NCAA instituted academic progress rate (APR) scores in 2003-04, the ULM men's basketball program tallied a perfect 1,000 score in the 2013-14 season. Over the summer, ULM was the only Division I institution in the state of Louisiana to earn the Team Academic Excellence award from the NABC
- On Jan. 24, 2015, legendary former head coach Mike Vining was honored at halftime in the game against Georgia Southern with the raising of a "402" banner. It represents his total number of regular season and postseason victories at ULM over 24 seasons at the helm

Ongwae, Deng Earn All-Conference Honors; Richard Wins SBC Coach of the Year

After a breakthrough year from the ULM men's basketball program, senior Tylor Ongwae earned All-Conference First-Team honors, junior Majok Deng was named to the All-Conference Third-Team, and head coach Keith Richard won Coach of the Year, the league office announced Tuesday.

Ongwae, a native of Eldoret, Kenya, led the team in scoring with 13.8 points per game and tied Deng for the team high in rebounding with 6.9 per contest. Ongwae reached double-figures in scoring 20 times this year, including six 20-plus outings.

On the season, Ongwae tallied four double-doubles and four double-figure rebounding games. He registered a season-high 25 points two times. Ongwae played six 40-minute games, all in conference play, including a stretch of four in a row.

Ongwae was the only player from the SBC selected to a Capital One Academic All-District First-Team from any of the eight districts. He was a three-time LSWA Player of the Week winner, two time SBC Player of the Week winner and two time College Sports Madness SBC Player of the Week winner.

It marked the second consecutive All-Conference recognition for Ongwae as he was named to the Third-Team last season.

Deng got it done on both ends of the court, averaging 11.1 points and 6.9 rebounds in conference play. He ranked third in the league in blocks with 1.4 per contest. Deng swatted away a block in 24 games this year, including at least two blocks in 14 games.

The Adelaide, Australia product reached double-figures in scoring 18 times and double-figures in rebounding five times. He posted a team-high five double-doubles on the year, including a big 14-point, 15-rebound outing against UALR at home.

Deng set his career-high in scoring with 21 points on the road against UALR and neared a double-double with nine rebounds. He played 40 minutes twice and ranked third in the league in defensive rebounds with 5.1 per game.

The length of both Ongwae and Deng resulted in big defensive numbers for ULM all season. The duo helped the Warhawks keep the opposition to under 60 points 15 times, including half (10) of their conference games. ULM also ranked top-15 in the nation in both field goal and three-point field goal percentage defense the entire year.

Richard coached the Warhawks to their 11th 20-win season in school history and their first in 13 years. He elevated ULM to a tie for second-place in the final SBC standings after being picked sixth preseason and last two years ago.

For the second straight year, Richard doubled both ULM's overall and conference win totals. The 14 SBC victories were the most in school history. He coached the Warhawks to two different six-game winning streaks in conference, a 12-3 home record and won seven of his last nine road games.

Richard won Coach of the Year in his very first season without any APR penalties from the NCAA. He inherited heavy APR sanctions when he took over at the helm on April 22, 2010, and has since won back-to-back SBC team academic awards. Last year, ULM recorded a perfect 1,000 APR score for the first time since the NCAA instituted APR scores in 2003-04.

It marked the second career SBC Coach of the Year award for Richard who previously won in 1998-99 as head coach of former league-member Louisiana Tech.

Scouting Georgia Southern

Led by Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year Jelani Hewitt, the Eagles wrapped up the 2014-15 regular season with a 21-8 overall record and 14-6 in league action. Georgia Southern played for the regular season championship in its last game, but fell on the road at Georgia State, 72-55.

Hewitt was third in the league in scoring with 18.2 points per game and was named to the All-Conference First-Team. He led the league in steals with 77, which was 15 more than the next player in line. Hewitt also led the team in assists (110) and free throw percentage (.807).

Trent Wiedeman also earned All-Conference honors as he was named to the Third-Team. He averaged 11.8 points and 5.5 rebounds per contest. Wiedeman led the team in blocks with 26 on the year.

ULM and GS split their regular season meetings with each team winning on the road. The Eagles won the first meeting, 57-53 but the Warhawks came back to win the second, 71-68 in overtime.

Mark Byington is in his second year as head coach. In his first season, the final season for the Eagles in the Southern Conference, Georgia Southern made its first semifinal appearance in the conference tournament since 2004-05.

Byington previously spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at the College of Charleston. CofC posted an overall record of 194-100 and a 108-51 mark in the SoCon during Byington's time there, including six 20-win seasons and three regular season titles.

ULM Falls to Georgia Southern 57-53; Vining Honored at Halftime

MONROE, La. – The ULM men's basketball program dropped a 57-53 decision to Georgia Southern to close out the weekend on Saturday at Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

Legendary former head coach Mike Vining was honored at halftime with the raising of a "402" banner which represents the total number of regular season and postseason victories at ULM over 24 seasons at the helm. To read the full release, click here.

Senior Tylor Ongwae posted a double-double with 17 points and a game-high 10 rebounds. Sophomore Nick Coppola also reached double-figures with 10 points.

The Warhawks (12-8, 6-3 SBC) were neck-and-neck with the Eagles (13-4, 6-2 SBC) the whole way, but couldn't overcome a cold shooting night from beyond-the-arc as they went 2-19 (.105).

Eric Ferguson led GS with a game-high 19 points. Jelani Hewitt pitched in with 15 points including a trio of three-pointers.

The Warhawks trailed 38-35 in the second half when the Eagles made a jumper and three-pointer to go up 43-35 with 9:55 to go. A jumper by junior Jamaal Samuel and a big dunk by Ongwae forced GS to call timeout with a 43-39 lead at the 9:13 mark.

After the Eagles pushed their lead back up to nine, 52-43, ULM answered with lay-ups from Samuel, Williams and junior Justin Roberson to make it a 52-49 game with 3:31 left. GS was able to close it out with big baskets from Ferguson and Mike Hughes in the closing minutes.

In the Second Meeting against GS...

ULM Moves into First-Place with 71-68 Overtime Thriller over Georgia Southern

STATESBORO, Ga. – In a back-and-forth battle between the top two teams in the Sun Belt Conference standings, the ULM men's basketball program pulled out a 71-68 overtime thriller on the road over Georgia Southern on Saturday at a noisy Hanner Fieldhouse.

ULM (16-8, 10-3 SBC) thought it had the game won at the end of regulation when junior Mack Foster put-back an offensive rebound in the closing seconds, but it was waved off after a clock malfunction.

In overtime, the Warhawks built a five-point lead on Georgia Southern (16-5, 9-3 SBC) after sophomore Nick Coppola hit his third three-pointer of the game and senior Tylor Ongwae scored in transition. Ongwae and Coppola both played 45 minutes.

The Eagles clawed their way back and had the ball down by one with the shot clock turned off when Mike Hughes was forced to take a contested jumper with four seconds left. Ongwae grabbed the rebound and hit a pair of free throws with 0.9 seconds left to close it out.

Ongwae led the way with a team-high 19 points, five rebounds and three steals. Junior Jamaal Samuel posted his second consecutive big-game with 17 points, one shy of his career-high. Foster finished the game with 12 points including a pair of three-pointers. Junior Justin Roberson dished out a game-high six assists.

In the game, ULM shot 51.9 percent (27-52) from the field and 52.6 percent (10-19) from three-point range. Jelani Hewitt and Trent Wiedeman led the Eagles with 14 points apiece. Eric Ferguson also played a big role with 13 points off the bench.

In the SBC Quarterfinals...

Warhawks Fly Above Jaguars 77-59, Advance to SBC Semifinals

NEW ORLEANS – The ULM men's basketball program soared to a 77-59 victory over sixth-seeded South Alabama on Friday to advance to the semifinals of the Sun Belt Conference Championships at Lakefront Arena.

The third-seeded Warhawks (21-11) led by 10 points at halftime and then dominated the glass to break open the game in the second half. Senior Tylor Ongwae, an All-Conference First-Team selection, led the team with 17 points.

Both juniors Majok Deng and DeMondre Harvey registered a double-double in the game. Deng, an All-Conference Third-Team honoree, posted 12 points and 14 rebounds, while Harvey notched 11 points and 10 rebounds.

Sophomore Nick Coppola also reach double-figures with 12 points after hitting four three-pointers in the first half. Junior Justin Roberson had a solid outing with eight points and eight rebounds.

South Alabama (13-20) was led by Dionte Ferguson's 16 points and seven rebounds. All-Conference Second-Team selection Ken Williams had 13 points on a trio of made three-pointers.

The Warhawks led 59-44 when they used an 8-0 run to pull away, capped by a jumper by Roberson to make it 67-44 with 6:31 to go. ULM took its biggest lead of the game, 75-51 after Foster put in a lay-up with 3:12 remaining.

In ULM's Last Regular Season Game...

Warhawks Post Win No. 20 with 56-53 Triumph over Texas State on Senior Day

MONROE, La. – The ULM men's basketball program closed out the 2014-15 regular season strong as it erased a 12-point second half deficit to come back and defeat Texas State, 56-53 on Senior Day at Fant-Ewing Coliseum on Saturday.

ULM (20-11, 14-6 SBC) trailed 43-31 with 12:26 remaining when its defense clamped down and did not allow a Texas State (13-16, 7-13 SBC) field goal until the 4:50 mark. During that span, the Warhawks went on a 14-2 run to leap ahead, 46-45.

After the Bobcats regained the lead, 49-48, sophomore Nick Coppola hit a big three-pointer to put the Warhawks back on top, 51-49 with 2:17 left. Coppola then got fouled after a strong-take to the rim and hit a pair of free throws to make it 53-49 with 59.7 seconds.

Wesley Davis was able to grab an offensive rebound and put it back in to cut ULM's lead to 53-51 with 13.9 seconds left. Junior Mack Foster was fouled and drained both free throws to push the lead back up to 55-51 with 11.1 seconds remaining.

D.J. Brown went the length of the court and was able to put in a lay-up to make it 55-53 ULM with 3.3 seconds left. Coppola was fouled and hit a free throw to make it 56-53. Texas State's full-court heave at the buzzer fell short.

Junior Majok Deng etched team-highs of 11 points and nine rebounds. Junior Justin Roberson also reached double-figures with 10 points.

Kavin Gilder-Tilbury led the Bobcats with 16 points and eight rebounds, while Davis had 10 points.
