The Carencro native joined Brian Mitchell, who rushed for 271 yards and passed for 205 yards against Colorado State in 1987, as the lone players in Ragin' Cajuns to record 200 yards rushing and passing in the same game.

Nixon's 201 yards on the ground were the ninth-most in school history and fourth all-time among Ragin' Cajuns quarterbacks.

Elijah McGuire tied a career-high with 10 receptions for Louisiana (2-4, 1-1 SBC) while setting a career-best with 134 yards receiving. The Last Meeting

Louisiana 34, ULM 27

November 15, 2014 — Monroe, La.

MONROE, La. – Terrance Broadway tossed a pair of touchdowns and rushed for another, Alonzo Harris rushed for 133 yards and the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns defense recorded seven sacks, forced three turnovers and set a single-game school record for rushing defense as it held off ULM, 34-27, in a Sun Belt Conference game at JPS Field at Malone Stadium

Head coach Mark Hudspeth earned his 100th career victory at the NCAA level as Louisiana (7-3, 6-0 Sun Belt) built a 17-7 lead in the first quarter before scoring a pair of touchdowns to withstand a rally by ULM (3-7, 2-4 Sun Belt).

Harris, who entered the game needing 19 yards to join Tyrell Fenroy and Brian Mitchell as the only players in school history to rush for over 3,000 yards, needed one carry to eclipse the mark when his 54-yard run on the game's third play from scrimmage put the ball at the ULM 5. The drive would stall and Hunter Stover would boot a 22-yard field goal to cap a seven-play, 70-yard drive to give the Ragin' Cajuns a 3-0 lead.

The Cajuns would score again on their next possession after ULM failed to convert a fourth-and-7 play at the UL 39. McGuire scored on a 1-yard plunge that capped a five-play, 61-yard drive for a 10-0 lead at 7:03 of the first quarter.

After a Pete Thomas five-yard scoring pass to Kenzee Jackson cut the lead to 10-7 at the 2:24 mark, Louisiana drove 65 yards in four plays to push its lead to 17-7 before the opening quarter expired.

The Cajuns added a 38-yard field goal from Stover with 6:51 remaining in the second quarter for a 20-10 lead before ULM's Justin Manton kicked a 47-yard field goal at the buzzer to cut the lead to 20-13.

After a scoreless third quarter, Broadway (12-yard run) and Thomas (two-yard run) swapped scores and it was 27-20 in favor of the Cajuns with 6:46 left in the fourth quarter.

Louisiana took a two-score lead when Broadway flipped a shovel pass to Gabe Fuselier who tip-toed down the right sideline with 2:53 remaining for a 34-20 advantage.

GUIDRY TO BE INDUCTED INTO UL ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

- Former Ragin' Cajuns pitcher and New York Yankees All-Star Ron Guidry will be inducted into the UL Lafayette Athletics Hall of Fame during halftime of Saturday's game. Guidry, after a standout career at UL Lafayette, was chosen in the third round of the Major League Baseball draft in 1971. He spent several years in the minor leagues, then, in 1975, began a brilliant, 14-year playing career with the Yankees.
- He earned the Cy Young Award in 1978 as the top pitcher in the American League, posting a 25-3 record and helping the Yankees to the World Series title.

- Nixon's 201 yards on the ground were the ninth-most in school history and fourth all-time among Ragin' Cajuns quarterbacks.

QUAVE SIDELINED FOR THE SEASON; CHANGES MADE ON THE O-LINE

- The most consistent area for the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns football team during the past three seasons saw its first mid-season change after senior left guard Mykhael Quave was lost for the season with a torn rotator cuff.
- Quave, a two-time All-Sun Belt Conference selection and two-time Lombardi Award nominee, injured his rotator cuff early in the first quarter in Louisiana's Oct. 3 game at Louisiana Tech.
- The loss of Quave, who started all 43 games in his Ragin' Cajuns career, saw the first mid-season change within the offensive line since 2012. Grant Horst, who started four games at left tackle for the Ragin' Cajuns moved to center for the Texas State game before moving to left guard for Arkansas State. Eddie Gordon, the team's starting center for the first four games, moved to left guard for Texas State before moving back to center against A-State. D'Aquin Withrow has started the last two games for the Ragin' Cajuns at left tackle.
- Octravian Anderson, a two-year starter, has started the last 32 games for Louisiana with Donovan Williams, who moved over to right guard replacing 52-game starter Daniel Quave, starting in 19 straight games after playing every game last season at left guard.

THE BOOK OF ELI

- In his third season in a Ragin' Cajuns uniform, McGuire has rushed for 2744 yards, ranking fifth on the school's all-time list. McGuire became the fourth player in school history (joining Tyrell Fenroy and former quarterbacks Brian Mitchell and Michael Desormeaux) to rush for over 1,000 yard in a season when he gained 1,264 yards in 2014.
- McGuire, the 2015 Preseason Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year, was the 2013 SBC Freshman of the Year and the 2014 Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year.
- This season, McGuire is a candidate for the Doak Walker Award, the Maxwell Award, the Paul Hornung Award and the Walter Camp Player of the Year.

MR. ALL-PURPOSE

In the Ragin' Cajuns Oct. 20 game at Arkansas State, Elijah McGuire became the third player in school history to record 4,000 all-purpose yards in his career. Below are the top three players in all-purpose yards in Ragin' Cajuns history.

MR. ROBINSON IS BACK IN HIS NEIGHBORHOOD

- After being limited to four games last season due to knee and foot injuries, senior Jamal Robinson has made a successful return to the lineup, catching 16 passes for 245 yards and two touchdowns.
- Against Texas State on Oct. 10, Robinson recorded his first touchdown in over a year when he grabbed a 17-yard pass from Jalen Nixon in the final minute of the first half. The duo hooked up again in the third period with a go-ahead 31-yard TD strike, marking the fifth multi-TD game of Robinson's career.
- His 58-yard reception against Northwestern State was the third-longest of his career, following grabs of 86 yards (vs. Lamar) and 81 (at ULM) in 2012.

Mark Hudspeth

38-20 • Fifth season at Louisiana

104-41 • 12th season overall

Delta State, 1992

Hired as Louisiana's 26th head coach in program history on Dec. 13, 2010, Mark Hudspeth quickly grabbed the attention of Ragin' Cajuns fans with his dynamic personality, energy and desire. He tirelessly toured the Acadiana area, speaking to any group that wanted to listen to him speak about Ragin' Cajuns football.

- The development of the Ragin' Cajuns in four seasons under Hudspeth has been dramatic. With 38 wins during Hudspeth's tenure in Cajun Country, Louisiana has posted the best four-year record in program history while also becoming the first school in NCAA history to win the same bowl game (R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl) four consecutive times.

- With bowl victories in each of the past four seasons, the Ragin' Cajuns are one of five schools in the country to accomplish that feat joining Michigan State, Oregon, South Carolina and Texas A&M. And during that same four-year span, the Ragin' Cajuns join Oregon as the only schools in the nation to win nine-plus game, including a bowl victory.

- With 38 wins under Hudspeth's arrival in 2011, Louisiana has established itself as one of the elite football programs in the Group of 5. During the same time span beginning in 2011, only Northern Illinois, Boise State, Cincinnati and Utah State had won more games than the Ragin' Cajuns.

- Under Hudspeth, the Cajuns have been dominant on their home turf posting a 20-5 record in four seasons. With an exciting brand of football, attendance at Cajun Field has risen with eight of the top 15 single-game attendance marks in school history occurring since Hudspeth's arrival.

- In three of Hudspeth's first four seasons, the Cajuns have led the Sun Belt Conference in average attendance while posting the three highest single-season marks in school history, highlighted by a single-season average of 29,171 fans in 2011.

- Since Hudspeth's arrival in Lafayette, 36 players have been named to the All-Sun Belt Conference team with running back Elijah McGuire being selected as the league's Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year in 2014. Two players - Alonzo Harris (2011) and McGuire (2013) - were named the league's Freshman of the Year, while McGuire earned Freshman All-America honors after a solid inaugural campaign in 2013.

- While the Ragin' Cajuns have excelled on the field under Hudspeth, they have also thrived in the classroom. In seven semesters under Hudspeth dating back to 2011, the Cajuns have turned in six of the best team grade point averages dating back to 1982. During the 2013-14 academic year, the Ragin' Cajuns were one of 16 teams honored by the Sun Belt Conference for excellence in the classroom, earning the league's Team Academic Award.

- The Cajuns success in the classroom was evident during the Fall 2014 semester as the team posted the highest semester grade point average (2.923) in school history, and the sixth consecutive semester of earning a team GPA of 2.6 or better. Sixty-five student-athletes earned a 3.0 GPA during the semester with six earning a perfect 4.0 and 11 earning their degree.

- From the day he arrived on campus, Hudspeth began educating the Ragin' Cajuns on how to win on a consistent level. Inheriting a team that was coming off a 3-9 record in 2010, Hudspeth led the Ragin' Cajuns to a school-record tying nine wins and the school's first bowl appearance in over 40 years.

- The NFL has also paid attention to what is happening with the Ragin' Cajuns. In 2011, Dwight Bentley (Detroit) and Ladarius Green (San Diego) were selected in the NFL Draft. In 2012, seven Cajuns seniors earned invitations to NFL preseason camps while five former Cajuns earned spots after the 2013 campaign. After concluding a stellar career with the Ragin' Cajuns, linebacker Justin Anderson signed a free agent contract with the New York Giants and made the active roster during the 2014 season.

- After finishing a career in which he set the single-season record for sacks, defensive tackle Christian Ringo was selected in the sixth round by the Green Bay Packers in the 2014 NFL Draft. Fellow defensive lineman Justin Hamilton (Buffalo), running back Alonzo Harris (Green Bay), offensive lineman Daniel Quave (Dallas) and James Butler (Green Bay) all inked free agent contracts to add to the Ragin' Cajuns presence in the NFL.

- A 23-year coaching veteran, Hudspeth carries a 103-38 career record in his 12th season as a collegiate head coach, winning 10 or more games five times and having winning records in 10 straight campaigns.

- Hudspeth, 46, came to Lafayette after serving as the passing game coordinator at Mississippi State for two seasons (2009-10), helping the Bulldogs end eight years of football frustrations by making a Gator Bowl appearance in his final season.

- After three years as an assistant coach at Delta State (1999-2000) and Navy (2001), Hudspeth took over as head coach at North Alabama and the winning quickly commenced. He guided the Lions to a 66-21 record in seven seasons (2002-08), winning two Gulf South Conference titles and making five appearances in the NCAA Division II Championship, advancing to the semi-finals three times (2003, 2005, 2008).

- Inheriting a program that had three consecutive losing records, Hudspeth turned things around quickly, helping UNA to a 13-1 record in just his second season (2003). UNA claimed the league title with a perfect 9-0 mark and advanced to the NCAA Championship for the first time in seven years, defeating Southern Arkansas and Carson-Newman before falling at North Dakota in the national semi-finals.

- For his effort, Hudspeth was named the Gulf South Coach of the Year while also being voted the NCAA Division II Region 2 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

- The winning didn't stop there as the Lions went 11-3 and advanced to the NCAA semis in 2005, the first of four straight 10-win campaigns.

- UNA went 11-1 in 2006, including 8-0 in league play to claim its second Gulf South title, with Hudspeth earning his second coach of the year award while also being selected as the NCAA Division II Region 2 Coach of the Year again. The Lions followed that up with a 10-2 record and an appearance in the NCAA Division II quarterfinals in 2007.

- Hudspeth capped off his tenure at North Alabama by guiding the Lions to a 12-2 record in 2008 and making their fourth straight NCAA appearance, falling in the semifinals.

- A native of Louisville, Miss., Hudspeth grew up in a town with a population of just 7,000, and quickly became one of the towns' most notable young men, along with current NCAA head coaches Andy Kennedy (Ole Miss men's basketball) and Matthew Mitchell (Kentucky women's basketball).

- After graduating from Delta State with a degree in health and education in 1992, Hudspeth began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Central Arkansas, receiving his master's degree in secondary school administration in 1993.

- Hudspeth is married to the former Tyla McConnell and is the father of three sons: Gunner (a freshman quarterback for the Ragin' Cajuns), Major and Captain, and one daughter, Carley.

at Kentucky

 Louisiana	33
 Kentucky	40

Sat., Sept. 5, 2015 • Commonwealth Stadium • ESPN
Lexington, Ky. • Attendance: 62,933

LEXINGTON, Ky. – Mikel Horton scored on a 12-yard touchdown with 57 seconds remaining and Kentucky held off a second-half rally by the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns to earn a 40-33 victory before an announced crowd of 62,933 at the New Commonwealth Stadium.

Horton's touchdown capped a nine-play, 58-yard drive as Kentucky (1-0) built a 24-7 lead at halftime and led, 33-17, after three quarters.

Louisiana (0-1) battled back from a 21-0 deficit early in the second quarter as the Ragin' Cajuns scored a pair of second-half touchdowns by Torrey Pierce before a 23-yard scamper by Jalen Nixon and two-point conversion by Elijah McGuire tied the game at 33-33 with 7:36 remaining in the game.

Kentucky scored on the game's first play when Boom Williams raced 75 yards untouched for a quick 7-0 lead. The Wildcats added a second touchdown two possessions later when Patrick Towles connected with Garrett Johnson for a 35-yard scoring pass to cap a seven-play, 99-yard drive that gave Kentucky for a 14-0 lead with 6:17 remaining.

Louisiana got on the board with 8:33 remaining in the second quarter when Brooks Haack capped a 13-play, 75-yard drive with a 4-yard touchdown run.

After Austin MacGinnis converted on his second field goal of the game to give Kentucky a 27-7 lead with 9:54 remaining in the third quarter, the Ragin' Cajuns began their comeback.

Freshman Stevie Artigue booted a 31-yard field goal – the first of his career – that cut the lead to 27-10 at the 6:04 mark before Kentucky answered when Towles connected with Blake Bone on a 5-yard scoring pass for a 33-10 lead with 3:47 left in the period.

Pierce, who was playing in his first game since a season-ending injury against Texas State, then took over in recording his first career 100-yard rushing game. The senior took a handoff from Haack and scampered 56 yards to cap a five-play, 74-yard drive and cut the Wildcat lead to 33-17.

The Ragin' Cajuns then capitalized when MacGinnis missed on a 46-yard field goal and drove 71 yards in eight plays to cut the lead to 33-25. Pierce slipped past the Wildcat defense and scored from 26 yards out and Nixon's pass to McGuire on the two-point conversion was good with 11:39 left.

Nixon would race 23 yards untouched to the end zone and McGuire would convert his second 2-point conversion of the night off a "Statue of Liberty" call with 7:36 remaining.

Northwestern State

 Northwestern State	17

Sat., Sept. 12, 2015 • Cajun Field • ESPN3
Lafayette, La. • Attendance: 26,824

LAFAYETTE – Elijah McGuire recorded four of his school-record tying five rushing touchdowns in the first half leading the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns to a 44-17 victory over Northwestern State at Cajun Field.

McGuire's five rushing TDs matched the record established by Brian Mitchell (vs. Lamar, 1989) and reached by Alonzo Harris (vs. New Mexico State, 2013). The junior running back accumulated 162 rushing yards on 14 carries, the bulk of the 360 rushing yards Louisiana totaled as a team.

Brooks Haack started at quarterback and completed 7-of-8 passes for 187 yards. He added 51 yards rushing on six attempts.

Devin Scott led Cajuns receivers with 90 yards. Jamal Robinson hauled in two receptions for 68 yards, netting 58 yards on a third-quarter reception that set up the Louisiana's final touchdown of the night.

Tracy Walker topped the Louisiana defense with nine tackles (seven solo). Zachary DeGrange recorded six tackles and had a team-high two for a loss (one sack).

Louisiana received the opening kickoff and marched 75 yards over six plays capped by a seven-yard touchdown run from McGuire at 13:01 for a quick 7-0 lead. After a defensive stop, McGuire scampered 88 yards on the first play of the ensuing drive to open a 14-0 advantage at 9:07.

The Demons (0-2) cut their deficit in half at 10:17 of the second quarter on a 41-yard touchdown run by Chris Jones. The Cajuns answered quickly to reclaim a double-digit lead. Facing third-and-15 at the NSU 25, Haack scrambled 22 yards to set up a three-yard touchdown run by McGuire to extend the lead to 20-7 with 3:55 remaining before halftime.

A sack by DeGrange pinned the Demons at their own four yard line which resulted in a short punt that placed the Cajuns at the NSU 40. Three plays later, McGuire found the end zone for the fourth time in the opening stanza on a 24-yard score that increased the lead to 27-7.

NSU converted a fake punt attempt on the opening possession of the second half and reached the UL 25. Blaine Winston sacked Joel Blumenthal for a nine-yard loss that forced NSU into a fourth-and-long play, which led the Demons being stopped short of a first down on a pass to Ed Eagan.

Haack quickly put UL into Demons territory with a 48-yard completion to Scott at the NSU 30. Torrey Pierce and McGuire combined for six rushes that pushed the Cajuns over the goal line and stretched the lead to 34-10 with 6:16 remaining in the third quarter.

Lafayette, La. • Attendance: 24,679

LAFAYETTE – Thomas Woodson tossed a pair of touchdowns, while adding a rushing score, and Conor Hundley rushed for a pair of scores as Akron pulled away from a 14-7 lead at halftime and defeated the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns, 35-14, before an announced crowd of 24,679 on Saturday at Cajun Field.

Louisiana junior running back Elijah McGuire moved past Darren Brister into fifth place on the all-time rushing yards list (2,458) after running for 83 yards and a touchdown.

Akron dominated the first quarter, controlling the football for nearly 13 minutes and outgaining Louisiana, 134-8, in total yards. Woodson, who completed 13-of-29 passes for 238 yards, connected with Andrew Pratt on a 9-yard pass to give Akron a 7-0 lead with 7:10 remaining in the first quarter.

The Zips increased their lead to 14-0 on their next possession as Woodson engineered a 13-play, 85-yard drive that took 6:12 off the clock. The Zips were aided by three Ragin' Cajuns penalties on the drive, which resulted in 41 yards. Woodson capped the drive on the first play of the second quarter when he scored on a 14-yard draw.

Louisiana cut the deficit to 14-7 by driving 75 yards in seven plays with McGuire scoring on a 17-yard touchdown run with 10:50 remaining in the second quarter.

After Akron's Robert Stein missed a 42-yard field goal on the ensuing possession, Louisiana drove to the Akron 1-yard line with a chance to draw even. However, McGuire was denied on fourth down trying to sneak into the end zone with 2:35 to play in the second quarter.

The Zips took advantage of an early second half turnover by the Cajuns to return their lead to double figures. DeAndre Scott intercepted Brooks Haack at the Cajuns 30 at 14:04 of the third quarter. Six plays later, Hundley pushed through the Cajuns defensive line for a touchdown at 11:24.

The Ragin' Cajuns were forced to punt following six plays. Woodson then hit wide receiver Jerome Lane on a slant pattern for a 72-yard score, increasing Akron's lead to 28-7 with 7:53 remaining in the third quarter.

Following the first career interception of senior safety Zachary LeGrange, the Cajuns offense picked up just 17 yards before backup quarterback Jalen Nixon had the ball stripped by Se'Von Pittman and recovered by Cody Grice who returned it 12 yards to the Louisiana 21. Akron took advantage of the forced turnover, with four straight carries by Hundley that covered 21 yards and resulted in a touchdown, making it 35-7 with 10:08 left to play.

JONESBORO, Ark. — Junior Jalen Nixon became the second quarterback in school history to record both 200 yards rushing and passing in a single game, but Arkansas State built a 34-7 lead in the second quarter and held on for a 37-27 victory over the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns in a nationally-televised game on Tuesday at Centennial Bank Stadium.

Freddie Knighten tossed second-quarter touchdown passes of 2 yards to Darion Griswold and 46 yards to Chris Murray as Arkansas State (4-3, 3-0 SBC) gained 435 yards of total offense, including 306 on the ground. Freshman Warren Wand led the Red Wolves with 96 yards on the ground while Michael Gordon added 73 yards with a touchdown.

Nixon completed 17 of 44 passes for a career-high 253 yards and two TDs while rushing for 201 yards on 19 carries. The Carencro native joined Brian Mitchell, who rushed for 271 yards and passed for 205 yards against Colorado State in 1987, as the lone players in Ragin' Cajuns history to record 200 yards rushing and passing in the same game.

Elijah McGuire tied a career-high with 10 receptions for Louisiana (2-4, 1-1 SBC) while setting a career-best with 134 yards receiving. The junior, who entered the game with 999 yards receiving in his career, took a swing pass from Nixon and gained 21 yards to become the first player in school history to record 2,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving in a career.

McGuire became the third player in school history to record 4,000 all-purpose yards in his career following Tyrell Fenroy (5,231 yards from 2005-08) and Darryl Surgent (4,945 from 2010-13).

After Cody Brown gave the Red Wolves a 27-0 lead with a 30-yard interception return for a touchdown, Nixon put the Ragin' Cajuns on the board when he raced 75 yards for a touchdown with 11:16 remaining in the first half.

The Ragin' Cajuns added a second touchdown late in the second quarter to cut the lead to 34-14 when Nixon engineered a 10-play, 75-yard drive. The junior connected with McGuire on a 21-yard pass to the A-State 40 before gaining 19 yards on third-and-8 to the A-State 19.
