- ULM is looking for its third consecutive win over Troy after sweeping the season series last year. The Warhawks won at home, 63-54 as senior Majok Deng netted a game-high 16 points. ranks eighth in total minutes played and ninth in career starts. He averages 35.1 minutes per game in his career, second-most in school history. He's played at least 40 minutes 28 times in his career including a school record 54 minutes vs. Canisius. Coppola has started every game in his career. He played 1,384 minutes last year, third most in the nation and also third in single-season program history. Additionally, Coppola finished second in the SBC last season in both assist:turnover ratio (2.0) and assists (3.7 apg)

- Roberson averages 1.8 steals per game through six SBC games which ranks third in the conference. He's leading the team in steals for the second consecutive year. Roberson is shooting a team-high .421 from beyond-the-arc. He's notched seven double-figure scoring games in his last eight outings and is coming off a career-high 20 points at Georgia Southern

- Senior DeMondre Harvey has been ULM's most efficient player off the bench as he's hit 33-62 (.532) field goals this season and went 7-7 from the field against Canisius in 40 minutes. He started three games in-place of Deng. Harvey led the team in field goal percentage in back-to-back years coming into this season

- ULM holds back-to-back wins over teams selected to win their leagues in the preseason polls as it defeated Chattanooga, 64-54, in addition to UL-Lafayette. The Mocs were picked to win the Southern Conference and were ranked No. 8 in the Colleg Insider Mid-Major Top-25 poll at the time of the game

- The Warhawks pushed a pair of Big Ten opponents to the brink. ULM led 51-50 with 6:44 remaining at Minnesota, and 40-39 with 5:34 left at Penn State. The Warhawks were without Deng against the Nittany Lions

- Three of ULM's non-conference losses came without Deng (at Kent State, Penn State and West Virginia). He sat out for precautionary reasons due to a lower leg injury

- ULM posted a wire-to-wire victory over Appalachian State, 72-56, to improve to 2-0 in the league. The Warhawks used a 7-0 run in the second half to go up 54-38 with 12:47 remaining and their lead never dropped below 13 points after that

It comes after a 24-win season, the third-most in school history and also the third biggest turnaround in the country from the year before. It was ULM's first 20-win season since 2001-02. Richard has more-than doubled ULM's win totals in back-to-back years

Scouting Troy

The Trojans are coming off a 66-57 victory at home against Texas State on Saturday. It was their first league win of the season as they carry a 1-5 SBC record and 6-11 overall. Their non-conference slight was highlighted by wins at South Florida, North Texas and Southern Miss, and an overtime loss at Ole Miss.

Wesley Person, the SBC Freshman of the Year winner last season, leads the team with 17.4 points per game. Jordan Vernado scores 15.9 points per outing and is shooting .386 from long-range. Jeremy Hollimon averages 11.8 points per game, and John Walton III records 9.1 points and a team-high 8.1 rebounds per game. All four also average at least 10 points per game in league play.

History Behind the 'Warhawk'

Moving into the Sun Belt Conference in the 2006-07 season, ULM's athletic department completed a transformation. The mascot holds a local historical connection to the P-40 'Warhawk' airplane flown by northeast Louisiana's General Claire Chennault and the Flying Tigers of WWII. The Warhawk is also symbolic of the red-shouldered hawk, a local predatory bird commonly found nesting along Bayou DeSiard and soaring above ULM's athletic facilities. ULM's Warhawk moniker is the only one at the NCAA Division I level. Prior to becoming the ULM Warhawks, the school competed as the Northeast Louisiana Indians.
