- The Warhawks are coming off a 91-90 thriller over Appalachian State. ULM scored the final six points of the game, including a drive by Coppola to put the Warhawks ahead with 9.6 seconds left. The Mountaineers shot 60 percent from the field and three-point range. It was ULM's second victory over APP this year after a wire-to-wire 72-56 win on Dec. 31, 2015

- ULM is 5-0 in conference play when it scores at least 80 points and 6-0 when it shoots over 50 percent from the field

- The Warhawks hold a 21-11 SBC record over the last two seasons, the second best in the league

- In ULM's last 40 games against SBC opponents, it has only allowed 75 points twice. Ironically, both resulted in wins after the opposition made 15 three-pointers each time. The Warhawks held a streak of 47 consecutive games overall of not allowing a 75-point scorer, the second longest active streak in the nation, which was snapped at Houston on a jumper with nine seconds left

- The Warhawks have won six weekly awards this year. Roberson was named SBC Student-Athlete of the Week and Louisiana Player of the Week (Jan. 25), Coppola won College Sports Madness SBC Player of the Week (Feb. 1) and Deng won National Mid-Major Player of the Week (Dec. 7), Louisiana Player of the Week (Dec. 21) and College Sports Madness SBC Player of the Week (Jan. 25)

- Deng ranks second in the league and 41st in the nation in scoring with 19.4 points per game. He averages 19.8 points per game in league play. Deng is also the team's leading rebounder (7.0 rpg) and shot blocker (1.5 bpg) and shoots a team-high .829 from the free throw line. He has scored at least 13 points in 15 of his last 16 outings. He has a trio of 30-plus scoring games this year, eight 20-plus scoring games

- Deng ranks seventh all-time in career blocks at ULM with 81. He needs eight more to move into sixth and catch Rudy Turner. Deng also has 13 career double-doubles and 42 career double-figure scoring games in two seasons at ULM

- In his last seven games, Roberson has posted his six highest scoring games of his career, all of at least 20 points. He scored a career-high 26 points against Troy. He averages 13.3 points, 4.6 rebounds and 2.6 assists per game on the year. Roberson is leading the team in steals for the second straight season and averages 1.7 per game on the year, third-best in the league. Roberson has reached double-figures 15 times this year and is shooting .441 from beyond-the-arc which ranks third in the SBC. It is a remarkable improvement from his .186 (8-43) three-point percentage last season. He has started every game his year

- Coppola has scored at least 25 points in two of his last three games. He ranks fourth all-time in career assists at ULM with 343 and needs 22 more to catch Bob Carson and move into third. Coppola also ranks fifth all-time in minutes played (3,118) and first in career minutes per game (35.4). He's played at least 40 minutes 32 times in his career including a school record 54 minutes vs. Canisius. Coppola has started every game in his career and ranks sixth in school history with 88 starts. He played 1,384 minutes last year, third most in the nation and also third in single-season program history. Additionally, Coppola finished second in the SBC last season in both assist:turnover ratio (2.0) and assists (3.7 apg). This year, Coppola is averaging 11.1 points, 5.0 assists and 3.0 rebounds per game. He logs 36.3 minutes per game on the season which leads the conference and ranks 34th in the country

- Samuel has scored in double-figures in five of the last six games including 17 points on five three-pointers against UL-Lafayette. He has scored in double-digits 13 times this year and has started every game. Samuel poured in a career-high 19 points at No. 14 West Virginia and scored ULM's first 15 points of the contest. He also recorded a 15-point game at Arkansas State. Samuel averages 9.3 points and 4.7 rebounds per game on the year

- ULM is 5-1 since inserting Harvey into the starting lineup. He has hit 51-90 (.567) field goals this season and scored a career-high 20 points against South Alabama where he went 10-11 from the free throw line. He also started three games earlier in the season in-place of Deng. Harvey led the team in field goal percentage in back-to-back years coming into this season. He's reached double-figures in scoring six times this year and 10 times in his career

- Munnings ranks second in the SBC in field goal percentage (.540) and averages 8.6 points and 6.2 rebounds per game on the year. He has four double-doubles on the season and 10 double-figure scoring games. Munnings scored a career-high 22 points at Penn State and also pulled down 10 rebounds in the contest. In his new role, he is looked upon as ULM's "sixth man" after starting the first 17 games of the season

- The Warhawks have won at least four straight games in conference three times in the last two seasons

- During ULM's four-game winning streak this year, it scored at least 85 points in three straight conference games for the first time since 1995-96 when it was a Southland Conference member

- Against UT Arlington, ULM came one point away from scoring 100 points in back-to-back games for the first time since the 1992-93 season when it defeated Nicholls State, 105-64 and Southern Miss, 113-106 (OT). The last time the Warhawks scored 100 points in back-to-back league games was in 1967-68 when ULM fell in overtime to both Northwestern State 114-111 and Southeastern Louisiana 103-101 as a member of the Gulf States Conference

- The Warhawks went 15-30 from three-point range against the Mavs. ULM was one three-pointer shy of tying the school record for most threes made in a game. It made 16 against Arkansas-Monticello on Dec. 3, 1996, and at Troy on Jan 27.

2007. Deng became the first Warhawk to make at least seven three-pointers in a game since Hugh Mingo in 2010-11. It was the 16th time in school history that a Warhawk made at least seven three-pointers in a game over an SBC opponent since Feb. 22, 2007 when it thumped Denver, 87-51 at home

- The Warhawks opened league play with an 81-70 win over Sun Belt Conference preseason favorite UL-Lafayette. ULM shot 9-15 from beyond-the-arc; the .600 percentage was the highest by an SBC team in a single game this season. The Warhawks never trailed in the contest. It was ULM's third consecutive win over the Ragin' Cajuns as it swept the season series last year

- ULM holds back-to-back wins over teams selected to win their leagues in the preseason polls as it defeated Chattanooga, 64-54, in addition to UL-Lafayette. The Mocs were picked to win the Southern Conference and were ranked No. 8 in the CollegeInsider Mid-Major Top-25 poll at the time of the game

- The Warhawks pushed a pair of Big Ten opponents to the brink. ULM led 51-50 with 6:44 remaining at Minnesota, and 40-39 with 5:34 left at Penn State. The Warhawks were without Deng against the Nittany Lions

- Three of ULM's non-conference losses came without Deng (at Kent State, Penn State and West Virginia). He sat out for precautionary reasons due to a lower leg injury

- Keith Richard picked up his 200th career victory as a head coach in an 80-64 victory over NSU on Nov. 19. Both Deng and Munnings recorded double-doubles in the contest

- ULM opened the season with an 88-43 victory over McMurry. The 45-point margin of victory was ULM's largest in school history in a season opener. The Warhawks improved to 47-18 all-time in home openers

- Keith Richard is the reigning Sun Belt Conference and Louisiana Coach of the Year winner. It comes after a 24-win season, the third-most in school history and also the third biggest turnaround in the country from the year before. It was ULM's first 20-win season since 2001-02. Richard has more-than doubled ULM's win totals in back-to-back years

- The Warhawks made a run to the CBI championship series last year for their 10th postseason appearance in school history and the first since 1995-96. They played their first-ever game in the month of April in their 64-year history. They were also the first team from the SBC to ever play a game in April

- ULM picked up a pair of preseason honors as Deng was named to the 2015-16 All-Conference Second-Team, while Coppola earned recognition on the Third-Team. Deng was also named to the College Sports Madness Preseason All-SBC First-Team while Coppola was Third-Team (page 10)

- The Warhawks were picked to finished third in the SBC Preseason Poll. It comes after they finished in a tie for second-place in the SBC standings last season. In 2013-14, ULM was picked to finish dead last preseason

- ULM is in its second season without any APR penalties which Richard inherited when he took over at the helm. Richard has turned the program around athletically and academically as the Warhawks have won back-to-back-to-back Sun Belt Conference academic awards

- The Warhawks will honor their 1985-86 NCAA Tournament team on Feb. 12-13 for their 30th anniversary. The Warhawks won both the Southland Conference Regular Season and Postseason titles that year

Unfriendly Rim Denies ULM Last Second, 58-57 at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. – The ULM men's basketball program had three shots to win the game in the last nine seconds, but the ball just would not go down for the Warhawks as Little Rock hung on by the slightest of all margins, 58-57 on Saturday at the Jack Stephens Center.

The Warhawks (6-9, 2-2 SBC) had the ball down by one with nine seconds left when they ran the floor and found senior Jamaal Samuel for three, but it was off the mark. Senior Majok Deng tried to tip-in the rebound, but his put-back rolled around the rim and popped out. Senior Justin Roberson grabbed the offensive rebound and put up a shot at the last second, but his attempt also rolled around the rim and came out at the buzzer.

Roberson finished with a game-high 17 points and six rebounds. Deng registered 15 points and six rebounds, and Samuel posted 10 points. Off the bench, junior Prince Cooper tallied six points on 3-4 shooting.

The Trojans (14-1, 4-0 SBC), who are ranked third in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top-25 Poll, were led by Lis Shoshi's 10 points. LR was balanced offensively as five other student-athletes had at least eight points.

Both teams shot nearly the same shooting percentage as ULM went 22-50 (.440) and LR 23-53 (.434). The Warhawks turned the ball over just nine times marking the second straight game they had under 10 turnovers. The Trojans committed just eight turnovers.

ULM Rallies Late to Top Hot-Shooting Appalachian State 91-90

BOONE, N.C. — Appalachian State made 15 three-pointers and shot 60 percent from long-range, but it wasn't enough as the ULM men's basketball program scored the final six points of the game and got a stop at the buzzer for a 91-90 win on Saturday at the Holmes Center.

ULM (11-12, 7-5 SBC) trailed by five with 1:45 remaining when it started to get stops, drove to the basket hard, drew fouls and made four free throws to get it down to a 90-89 deficit with 56 seconds left. After a rare missed three-pointer by APP (6-17, 4-8 SBC), the Warhawks had the ball with under 30 seconds left.

Junior Nick Coppola used a screen and rolled to the basket where he layed up a shot that bounced on the edge of the rim and spun in good to put the Warhawks up 91-90 with 9.6 seconds left.

On the final possession of the game, APP's Frank Eaves took a well-defended mid-range jumper that was off the mark, but Ronshad Shabazz came flying in for the offensive rebound but his dunk hit the back iron of the rim in the closing seconds.

The Mountaineers shot 31-54 (.574) from the field and 15-25 (.600) from long-range including 8-13 in the second half. ULM went 30-57 (.526), 5-11 (.455) from distance and 26-32 (.813) from the charity stripe.

Coppola registered a team-high 25 points, one away from his career-high, on 9-13 shooting. Senior Majok Deng finished with 22 points on 9-9 free throws, and senior Justin Roberson ended with 21 points and went 7-14 from the field.

Shabazz led the Mountaineers with 27 points and Eaves had 21.

History Behind the 'Warhawk'

Moving into the Sun Belt Conference in the 2006-07 season, ULM's athletic department completed a transformation. The mascot holds a local historical connection to the P-40 'Warhawk' airplane flown by northeast Louisiana's General Claire Chennault and the Flying Tigers of WWII. The Warhawk is also symbolic of the red-shouldered hawk, a local predatory bird commonly found nesting along Bayou DeSiard and soaring above ULM's athletic facilities. ULM's Warhawk moniker is the only one at the NCAA Division I level. Prior to becoming the ULM Warhawks, the school competed as the Northeast Louisiana Indians.
