upon as ULM's "sixth man" after starting the first 17 games of the season

- In ULM's last 43 games against SBC opponents, it has only allowed 75 points three times. Ironically, all three resulted in wins, and twice the opposition made 15 three-pointers. The Warhawks held a streak of 47 consecutive games overall of not allowing a 75-point scorer, the second longest active streak in the nation, which was snapped at Houston on a jumper with nine seconds left

- Five different Warhawks have registered a double-double this season for a total of 14

- The Warhawks have won nine weekly awards this year. In addition to Deng's three this week, Roberson was named SBC Student-Athlete of the Week and Louisiana Player of the Week (Jan. 25), Coppola won College Sports Madness SBC Player of the Week (Feb. 1) and Deng won National Mid-Major Player of the Week (Dec. 7), Louisiana Player of the Week (Dec. 21) and College Sports Madness SBC Player of the Week (Jan. 25)

- ULM completed a season-sweep over Texas State, holding the Bobcats to under 60 points in both contests. In the second meeting, the Warhawks jumped out to a 19-point advantage at halftime and never saw their lead drop below 15 points in the second half

- Two weekends ago, ULM won a 91-90 thriller over Appalachian State. ULM scored the final six points of the game, including a drive by Coppola to put the Warhawks ahead with 9.6 seconds left. The Mountaineers shot 60 percent from the field and three-point range. It was ULM's second victory over APP this year after a wire-to-wire 72-56 win on Dec. 31, 2015

- During ULM's first four-game SBC winning streak this year, it scored at least 85 points in three straight conference games for the first time since 1995-96 when it was a Southland Conference member

- Against UT Arlington, ULM came one point away from scoring 100 points in back-to-back games for the first time since the 1992-93 season when it defeated Nicholls State, 105-64 and Southern Miss, 113-106 (OT). The last time the Warhawks scored 100 points in back-to-back league games was in 1967-68 when ULM fell in overtime to both Northwestern State 114-111 and Southeastern Louisiana 103-101 as a member of the Gulf States Conference

- The Warhawks went 15-30 from three-point range against the Mavs. ULM was one three-pointer shy of tying the school record for most threes made in a game. It made 16 against Arkansas-Monticello on Dec. 3, 1996, and at Troy on Jan 27, 2007. Deng became the first Warhawk to make at least seven three-pointers in a game since Hugh Mingo in 2010-11. It was the 16th time in school history that a Warhawk made at least seven three-pointers in a game

- ULM's 32-point win over South Alabama was its largest margin of victory over an SBC opponent since Feb. 22, 2007 when it thumped Denver, 87-51 at home

Warhawks never trailed in the contest. It was ULM's third consecutive win over the Ragin' Cajuns as it swept the season series last year

- ULM holds back-to-back wins over teams selected to win their leagues in the preseason polls as it defeated Chattanooga, 64-54, in addition to UL-Lafayette. The Mocs were picked to win the Southern Conference and were ranked No. 8 in the CollegeInsider Mid-Major Top-25 poll at the time of the game

- The Warhawks pushed a pair of Big Ten opponents to the brink. ULM led 51-50 with 6:44 remaining at Minnesota, and 40-39 with 5:34 left at Penn State. The Warhawks were without Deng against the Nittany Lions

- Three of ULM's non-conference losses came without Deng (at Kent State, Penn State and West Virginia). He sat out for precautionary reasons due to a lower leg injury

- Keith Richard picked up his 200th career victory as a head coach in an 80-64 victory over NSU on Nov. 19. Both Deng and Munnings recorded double-doubles in the contest

Scouting UT Arlington

Like ULM, the Mavs enter play on a four-game winning-streak after their come-from-behind 84-83 victory in overtime over UL-Lafayette on Thursday. They started their winning-streak with wins at Georgia State and Texas State before returning home to crush Appalachian State by 31 points.

UTA lost its leading scorer and rebounder, Kevin Hervey, just before the mid-point of conference play but have been able to make up his 18.1 points and 9.8 rebounds per game. Erick Neal has flipped the switch and averages 13.8 points and 5.8 assists per game which leads the league. Jalen Jones scores 12.8 points per outing and shoots .402 from beyond-the-arc. In conference games, Jones is shooting at a .453 clip from long-range.

In SBC-only games, the Mavs lead the league in scoring, averaging 81.6 points per contest. They are also first in three-pointers made (9.9 3fgm) steals (6.9 spg), assists (17.4 apg), assist:turnover ratio (1.3), offensive rebounds (13.6 orgp), defensive rebounds (29.7 drpg) and second in rebounding margin with a +6.7 clip.

Scott Cross has coached UTA to three of its top-five winningest seasons in school history including the top-two. The Mavericks have gone to the postseason three times under his watch, including back-to-back trips in 2011-12 and 2012-13. That marked the first consecutive postseasons in program history. Over that two-year span, only two of Texas' 21 Division I programs had more wins than the Mavericks' 43.

UT Arlington had only one postseason trip in the 46 years prior to Cross' arrival. He's the only men's basketball coach in school history with a winning record. Cross is a UTA alum as he graduated in 1998.

The Last Time They Played at UTA...

Huge Second Half, Clutch Overtime Plays Lift ULM Over UTA, 76-73

ARLINGTON, Texas —A defensive battle in the first half turned into a second half scoring fest as the ULM men's basketball program surged to send the game to overtime and gut-out a 76-73 victory over UT Arlington.

The Warhawks (8-6, 2-1 SBC) were cold in the first half and shot just .267 (8-30) from the field and scored 20 points. However, ULM flipped the script in the second with 47 points, shooting .515 (17-33) and made clutch plays in overtime to pull out the thriller despite three players fouling out.

ULM trailed by 13 early in the second half before coming back to tie it, 43-43 at the 13:14 mark. The Warhawks then had to come back again after UTA went on a 9-0 run to go up 54-45, and ULM fought its way to a 61-60 lead with 4:23 remaining. The Warhawks had a chance to win it on their final possession, but junior Mack Foster's three-pointer at the buzzer came just short.

In overtime, senior Marvin Williams came up huge, scoring eight of ULM's nine points to cap his second consecutive monster performance. He made a big lay-up to put ULM up three with 1:14 left, and then finished after finding a loose ball with three seconds left to put the Warhawks up four.

Williams matched both his point and rebounding career-highs with 22 and 13, respectively. Junior Majok Deng also registered a career-high with 15 points. Foster got the nod for his second straight start and posted 11 points.

History Behind the 'Warhawk'

Moving into the Sun Belt Conference in the 2006-07 season, ULM's athletic department completed a transformation. The mascot holds a local historical connection to the P-40 'Warhawk' airplane flown by northeast Louisiana's General Claire Chennault and the Flying Tigers of WWII. The Warhawk is also symbolic of the red-shouldered hawk, a local predatory bird commonly found nesting along Bayou DeSiard and soaring above ULM's athletic facilities. ULM's Warhawk moniker is the only one at the NCAA Division I level. Prior to becoming the ULM Warhawks, the school competed as the Northeast Louisiana Indians.
