- The Warhawks hold a win over first-place Little Rock, 86-82 at home on Feb. 11. The Trojans came into the game with the best record in the nation. They were also ranked No. 2 in the Colleg Insider Mid-Major Top-25 Poll. It was ULM's second win over a top-10 team in the poll as it previously defeated No. 8 Chattanooga

- Deng is the team's leading scorer, rebounder and shot blocker and shoots a team-high .824 from the free throw line. He has scored at least 13 points in 18 of his last 20 outings. He has a trio of 30-plus scoring games this year, 10 20-plus scoring games

- Deng ranks fifth all-time in career blocks at ULM with 91. He needs eight more to move into fourth and catch Terry Martin. Deng also has 13 career double-doubles and 46 career double-figure scoring games in two seasons at ULM

- In his last 11 games, Roberson has posted the nine highest scoring games of his career, all of at least 20 points. He scored a career-high 26 points against Troy. "sixth man" after starting the first 17 games of the season

- The Warhawks have won 10 weekly awards this year. Deng has won six including National Mid-Major Player of the Week (Dec. 7), Louisiana Player of the Week (Dec. 21) and College Sports Madness SBC Player of the Week (Jan. 25). He won three on Feb. 15 (SBC, LSWA and CSM). Roberson was named SBC Student-Athlete of the Week and Louisiana Player of the Week (Jan. 25), and Coppola won College Sports Madness SBC Player of the Week (Feb. 1) and Co-Louisiana Player of the Week (Feb. 22)

- In ULM's last 44 games against SBC opponents, it has only allowed 75 points three times. Ironically, all three resulted in wins, and twice the opposition made 15 three-pointers. The Warhawks held a streak of 47 consecutive games overall of not allowing a 75-point scorer, the second longest active streak in the nation, which was snapped at Houston on a jumper with nine seconds left

- Five different Warhawks have registered a double-double this season for a total of 14

- In the season sweep over Texas State, the Warhawks held the Bobcats to under 60 points in both contests. In the second meeting, the Warhawks jumped out to a 19-point advantage at halftime and never saw their lead drop below 15 points in the second half

- The season sweep over UTA saw two completely different flows. The first was a 99-88 three-point contest, while the second was a 64-61 defensive battle. At home, the Warhawks went 15-30 from three-point range. ULM was one three-pointer shy of tying the school record for most threes made in a game. It made 16 against Arkansas-Monticello on Dec. 3, 1996, and at Troy on Jan 27, 2007. Deng became the first Warhawk to make at least seven three-pointers in a game since Hugh Mingo in 2010-11. It was the 16th time in school history that a Warhawk made at least seven three-pointers in a game

- ULM's season sweep over Appalachian State was similar to UTA where the two games played out very differently. The Warhawks cruised to a wire-to-wire victory, 72-56 at home in the first meeting. The second came down to the very end as ULM scored the final six points of the game, including a game-winning drive by Coppola to put the Warhawks ahead 91-90 with 9.6 seconds left. ULM won despite the Mountaineers shooting a red-hot 60 percent from both the field and three-point range

- During ULM's first four-game SBC winning streak this year, it scored at least 85 points in three straight conference games for the first time since 1995-96 when it was a Southland Conference member

- Against UT Arlington at home, ULM came one point away from scoring 100 points in back-to-back games for the first time since the 1992-93 season when it defeated Nicholls State, 105-64 and Southern Miss, 113-106 (OT). The last time the Warhawks scored 100 points in back-to-back league games was in 1967-68 when ULM fell in overtime to both Northwestern State 114-111 and Southeastern Louisiana 103-101 as a member of the Gulf States Conference

- The Warhawks opened league play with an 81-70 win over Sun Belt Conference preseason favorite UL-Lafayette. ULM shot 9-15 from beyond-the-arc; the .600 percentage was the highest by an SBC

- The Warhawks pushed a pair of Big Ten opponents to the brink. ULM led 51-50 with 6:44 remaining at Minnesota, and 40-39 with 5:34 left at Penn State. The Warhawks were without Deng against the Nittany Lions

- Three of ULM's non-conference losses came without Deng (at Kent State, Penn State and West Virginia). He sat out for precautionary reasons due to a lower leg injury

Scouting South Alabama

The Jaguars are coming off a 75-71 victory over Appalachian State on the road last Thursday and had Saturday off. They have won three of their last four games after sweeping Georgia State and Georgia Southern at home the weekend prior. They are 12-15 overall and 7-9 in the league.

Ken Williams leads the team with 15.2 points per game on the season. Georgi Boyanova averages 11.1 points and 8.0 rebounds per game and shoots .516 from the field. Shaq Calhoun and Barrington Stevens are the top three-point threats, both shooting over 35 percent from long-range.

In conference games, South Alabama ranks second in the league in three-point defense, holding teams to a .321 clip. The Jaguars are also second in blocks with 3.6 per contest. Don MuepoKelly is the team's leading shot blocker with 18 on the year.

In his third season as head coach, Matthew Graves made it top priority to change the culture at South Alabama. He brought with him 17 years of success at Butler University, both as a student-athlete and coach. Graves overhauled the team on and off the court last year, resulting in the team's highest GPA in five seasons.

During his tenure at Butler, Graves helped the program to an overall record of 244-98 (71.3%), a berth in national postseason tournaments each of the last eight seasons and eight straight years with 20-plus victories. Following the 2009-10 campaign that saw the Bulldogs finish 33-5 after falling to Duke 61-59 in the national title contest, he was promoted to associate head coach.

Foster Comes Up Clutch Off the Bench in 64-61 Road Win at UT Arlington

ARLINGTON, Texas – Senior Mack Foster scored seven of ULM's last 11 points in the game to guide the men's basketball program to its fifth straight victory, 64-61 over UT Arlington on Saturday at the College Park Center.

Foster, who entered the game with a season-high of five points, was called upon after two different ULM student-athletes fouled out. The Warhawks (15-12, 11-5 SBC) led by one with 2:02 left when Foster drilled his second three-pointer of the game to push the lead up to 58-54.

The Mavs (18-8, 9-6 SBC) answered with a lay-up and a three-pointer to take a 59-58 edge with 1:06 remaining. On ULM's next possession, the Warhawks were off the mark on a jumper when Foster came flying in on the offensive rebound and tipped in the go-ahead bucket with 38 seconds left.

ULM got stops defensively and made its final four free throws, a pair from both junior Nick Coppola and senior Majok Deng, to seal the victory.

Foster finished the game with 10 points and five rebounds in 17 minutes. He went 3-4 from the field, 2-2 from long-range and 2-2 from the charity stripe. Foster also got his hands on a pair of steals in the contest.

Coppola scored a game-high 19 points and also recorded six assists and three steals in 40 minutes. Senior Justin Roberson also finished in double-figures with 10 points and eight rebounds.

History Behind the 'Warhawk'

Moving into the Sun Belt Conference in the 2006-07 season, ULM's athletic department completed a transformation. The mascot holds a local historical connection to the P-40 'Warhawk' airplane flown by northeast Louisiana's General Claire Chennault and the Flying Tigers of WWII. The Warhawk is also symbolic of the red-shouldered hawk, a local predatory bird commonly found nesting along Bayou DeSiard and soaring above ULM's athletic facilities. ULM's Warhawk moniker is the only one at the NCAA Division I level. Prior to becoming the ULM Warhawks, the school competed as the Northeast Louisiana Indians.
