- Jeremy Licea has made 10 of his last 11 field goal attempts, including all four attempts this season, but is just 1-3 in PATs this year. His 43-yard field goal vs. Tennessee State was a career long.
- Alabama A&M is 14-26-1 all-time in games vs. teams from the state of Louisiana (4-13 vs. Grambling, 5-6 vs. Southern, 4-3 vs. Dillard, and 2-5-1 vs. Xavier).

QUITE A DEBUT

Alabama A&M Football

Anthony Jones

Anthony Jones has begun his 10th season as a head coach and the seventh as the leader of the AAMU Bulldog football program. In 2006, Jones led the Bulldogs to their first SWAC title and tied the school record with nine victories. The Bulldogs posted back-to-back nine-win seasons, before last year's 8-3 final record. The 2006 SWAC Coach of the Year has led A&M to three SWAC title games in six seasons and is one just three wins from his 70th overall victory entering the 2008 campaign with a 67-34 record.

Jones has won a greater percentage of his games than any coach in Alabama A&M history with a 49-23 record in six-plus seasons on "The Hill." His .681 winning percentage stands ahead of legendary A&M coach Louis Crews, who won 62 percent of his games over 16 years leading the Bulldogs. Jones' 49 wins at A&M rank third all-time behind Crews (93) and Ray Greene (53). In 2005, Jones led the Bulldogs to their second SWAC East Championship under his reign, and a 9-3 record. The nine wins also earned Jones a milestone victory in the regular season finale, a 31-16 win at Prairie View served as the 50th win in Jones' career.

After the Bulldogs posted tremendous 8-4 records in each of his first two seasons in 2002 and 2003, the team from the Rocket City capped off another outstanding season in 2004 with a 7-4 mark. In 2007, Jones led the Bulldogs to their fifth victory in the Magic City Classic in his six seasons. The 2006 and 2007 teams also captured the John Merritt Classic title, defeating Tennessee State in the season-opener.

Twice, Jones has led A&M to six-game winning streaks in his tenure. After two early losses in 2002, Jones' Bulldogs won six straight and eight of nine to finish the regular season. The Bulldogs captured the SWAC East (6-1). This led to A&M's second berth in the SWAC championship in three years. In 2005, after a disappointing Homecoming loss to Texas Southern, the Bulldogs regrouped and won six straight games to finish the regular season en route to another SWAC East title and a berth in the SWAC Championship game.

Jones arrived at Alabama A&M from Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia, where he spent four years. After serving as the offensive coordinator and assistant head coach in his first year with the Maroon Tigers, he was promoted to head coach in 1999. After going 2-8 in his first season, Jones led the Tigers to the first back-to-back eight-win seasons in school history. He was named SIAC Coach of the Year both times. The 2000 campaign (8-3) qualified him and the Tigers as the second-most improved team in NCAA Division II.

Following his second consecutive eight-win season (8-2), Jones was one of three finalists for the 2001 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award along with Doug Williams (Grambling State) and Rick Comegy (Tuskegee). He was a finalist again in 2002, his inaugural season at AAMU when he became just the second coach in AAMU history to win the Magic City Classic and Homecoming in his first year as head coach (Ray Bonner in 1992).

Jones is a native of Baltimore, Maryland. He played college football at Wichita State University for Willie Jeffries, where he earned several honors as a tight end, including the Ben Hustle Award (1981), and All-Missouri Valley Conference (1983). Following his senior season with the Shockers, Jones went on to play for the Redskins in the National Football League, where he helped Washington win the 1987 Super Bowl. The Redskins traded him to the San Diego Chargers during to the 1988 season, but Jones was forced to retire after suffering a knee injury before the next season.

In 1991 Jones joined the staff at Western Maryland College in Westminster, Maryland, where he served as the receivers/tight ends coach. Jones moved to South Carolina State University in 1992, where he rejoined his mentor, Willie Jeffries, as a defensive assistant. In 1993, he was promoted to offensive coordinator at SCSU, a position that he held until his departure for Morehouse in 1998. In 1994, SCSU won the MEAC title and earned the Black College National Champions following a win over Grambling at the Heritage Bowl.

Jones and his wife, Valerie, have two sons, Drew and Julian.

Alabama A&M Athletics

Home of Champions

The Alabama A&M Athletics Department sponsors 15 varsity sports - football, volleyball, bowling, baseball, softball, men's/women's tennis, men's golf, men's/women's soccer, men's/women's basketball, women's cross country, and men's/women's track and field.

Since 1912, the University has fielded at least one varsity sport. Through the course of its 96-year history, the Bulldogs have won numerous national and conference championships.

The University first gained nationwide acclaim from its athletics department as Louis Crews guided the football program through a decade of winning seasons. Then, the men's soccer team won the NCAA Division II title under first-year head coach Salah Yousif. The national spotlight returned as the women's track and field program won more than a handful of NCAA Championships under retired coach Joe Henderson. The national spotlight remained as the men's basketball team advanced to the NCAA tournament multiple times. In 2006, the women's bowling team finished as the NCAA Division I national runner-up, appearing on ESPN in the championship match.

In 1998, A&M moved from Division II to Division I, joining the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC). With this move, AAMU added two women's sports - softball and bowling. A year later, women's soccer was added to the varsity list. Entering the 2008-09 athletic year, the Bulldogs will continue their quest for excellence on the field, in the classroom, and within the community.
