THE SERIES

This is the first meeting between ULM and Alabama A&M in both schools' history.

This is ULM's only game this season that is a first meeting, but the Warhawks have only played their first four opponents a combined 14 times prior to this season (3.5 per team), compared to 96 times for their next three opponents (32 per team).

TEAM CAPTAINS SELECTED

The Warhawks selected their team captains for the 2008 season with a representative from the offense, defense and special teams. Two of the three '08 captains were named to the Sun Belt Preseason All-Conference Team. Tight end Zeek Zacharie, bandit James Truxillo and punter Scott Love will serve as the '08 captains -- Zacharie and Love were both named Preseason All-Sun Belt.

BROWN NAMED LOUISIANA DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Playing in just his second collegiate game, ULM redshirt freshman Nate Brown recorded 12 tackles and a sack against Arkansas on Saturday earning him Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) Defensive Player of the Week honors.

The Wichita Falls, Texas, native was the only player in the game to record double-figure tackles. He also broke up a pass as the Warhawks came within a point, 28-27, of their second victory over a Southeastern Conference opponent in their past three tries.

Brown, one of two freshmen who start for the Warhawks, had 11 solo tackles from his cornerback position. His seven-yard sack of Casey Dick set up a blocked punt and a ULM field goal, giving the Warhawks a 10-6 lead heading into halftime.

For the season, Brown leads the Warhawks with 19 tackles (17 solo) and a pair of pass breakups.

Brown is the first LSWA honoree for the Warhawks this season after ULM earned six LSWA awards last season.

ZACHARIE ON MACKEY WATCH LIST

For the second straight season, tight end Zeek Zacharie was named to the John Mackey Award watch list presented to the nation's top tight end.

Zacharie has been named Mackey Tight End of the Week twice in his career. The first honor came after a two touchdown performance at Kansas in 2006 and the second came last season following the Warhawks thrilling 33-30 triple overtime victory at Florida Atlantic where he caught six passes for 69 yards and a touchdown.

JUNIOR COLLEGE IMPACT

ULM brought in nine junior college players (seven before spring ball) this season and the group has already made an impact. Four of the nine -- Ryan Dercher, Keating Helms, Otis Stamps and Aaron Williams -- started on either offense and defense, while Jeremy Gener handled the kickoffs, attempted a field goal and had a punt. Troy Giddens, Alex Ford and Rodney Lovett also saw time for the Warhawks in the opener at Auburn.

Defensive tackle Thomas Robinson got in the mix seeing his first Division I action in the Warhawks near upset against Arkansas.

WARHAWK RADIO NETWORK

Longtime "Voice of the Warhawks" Frank Hoffmann returns to the booth for his 32nd season as the play-by-play man for ULM football. Former ULM athletics director Bruce Hanks will serve as Hoffman's color analyst for the season, while former Warhawk and San Diego Charger wide receiver Tag Rome will handle the sideline duties.

UNCHARTED TERRITORY

All 27 of the Warhawks points against Arkansas came from players who had not scored a point prior to the game.

Redshirt freshman receiver Anthony McCall caught a pair of touchdown passes, junior running back Gary Frazier scored on a one-yard run and junior college transfer Jeremy Gener booted a pair of field goals and knocked through three extra points.

AIRING IT OUT

The Warhawks are taking to the air early this season with 78 pass attempts through the first two games of the season. ULM didn't hit the 78 pass attempt mark until the final play of game three last year at Texas A&M. Kinsmon Lancaster has completed 55.8 percent of his pass attempts this season with a pair of touchdowns and no interceptions.

10 different Warhawks have already recorded a reception this season, just two behind last year's total of 12 (which included a catch by Lancaster on a tipped ball).

MALONE STADIUM OPENERS

ULM has traditionally been tough on opponents in their home openers, posting a 23-7 (.767) record in such contests over the last 30 years. ULM picked up victories in their home opener in 22 of the first 23 seasons at Malone Stadium.

WARHAWKS VS. THE SWAC

ULM is a perfect 3-0 all-time against the current members of the Southwest Athletic Conference. The Warhawks defeating Grambling State 28-14 last season in front of a Malone Stadium record crowd of 30,101.

The Warhawks opened the 2006 season with a 24-6 victory over Alcorn State and they also defeated the Braves 78-27 during the 1992 season.

ULM has outscored SWAC opponents by a 130-47 (43.3-15.7) margin.

ALABAMA WARHAWKS

Five Warhawks call the state of Alabama home and as an interesting twist they are all freshmen. Anthony Montgomery (Adamsville), Jonathan Price (Fairfield), Ken Dorsey (Homewood), Anthony McCall (Montgomery) and Cody Wells (Hoover) all hail from Alabama. Wells is the lone true freshman on the squad from Alabama, while the other four are all redshirt freshmen.

ULM HEAD COACH CHARLIE WEATHERBIE

Charlie Weatherbie begins his sixth season at the helm of the ULM football program after leading the Warhawks to one of their most memorable seasons in the program's history.

The 2007 season marked the first year that ULM was bowl eligible since it made the jump to Division I-A in 1994. The Warhawks won five of their last six games on the season including one of the biggest upsets in all of college football, knocking off Alabama 21-14 in Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Weatherbie guided 10 players to Sun Belt All-Conference honors this past season and oversaw ULM running back Calvin Dawson's climb to greatness as he set the ULM career rushing record. Dawson and the rest of the Warhawk offense posted the highest per game scoring average in the ULM Division I-A era.

Under his direction, the Warhawks football program has made significant strides in a short amount of time improving from winning one game in 2003 to winning the 2005 Sun Belt Conference Championship in just three seasons.

Weatherbie, ULM's 13th head coach, took over the program a little less than three months before kicking off the 2003 season.

The 2006 Warhawks finished the season by winning three of their last four games, including a win over Louisiana-Lafayette for the fourth time in five years, and coming close to upsetting bowl-bound Kentucky. Quarterback Kinsmon Lancaster and Dawson created a high-powered offense for ULM with a league-leading 350.7 yards per game. It was the first time a Warhawk had rushed for over 1,000 yards in the Weatherbie era. Dawson and safety Kevin Payne joined the growing list of all-Sun Belt first team members during Weatherbie's tenure.

The 2005 squad made its mark by winning ULM's first conference title since 1992. The Warhawks finished the season with a 5-2 Sun Belt record and had 10 players receive all-Sun Belt honors, including Sun Belt Player of the Year Steven Jyles. Jyles re-wrote the ULM passing and total offense records book and has gone on to play for the Edmonton Eskimos and the Saskatchewan Rough Riders in the Canadian Football League.

The 2004 squad won five of their last seven games, including four wins in Sun Belt play. ULM's 4-3 Sun Belt record put Weatherbie's squad in a tie for third place. The season also saw ULM beat intrastate rival Louisiana-Lafayette for the third season in a row.

In 2003, his first season at the helm, ULM lost seven games by seven points or less and highlighted the season with a win over Louisiana-Lafayette.

Weatherbie has twice proven that he can take over sub .500 football programs and transform them into winning teams. At Utah State University, he inherited a program that had not had a winning season in 12 years and took the Aggies to their first Big West Conference championship in 15 years, their first bowl game in 32 years and their first bowl victory ever, beating Ball State 42-33 in the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl. He was 13-10 after his first two seasons, 1992-93, leaving after the third season to take the same position at the United States Naval Academy. The Aggies' 1993 win over Brigham Young still stands as Utah State's only win in the last 18 meetings with their in-state rival.

At Navy, Weatherbie had similar success. He took the Midshipmen, who had suffered through 12 consecutive losing seasons prior to his arrival, to a 9-3 record and the championship of the 1996 Aloha Bowl in his second season. The nine wins were the most by a Navy team in 18 years. At the time, he was just the third coach in academy history to win a bowl game.

In 1997, Weatherbie led Navy to a 7-4 mark, the first time since the 1981-82 seasons that the Midshipmen had compiled back-to-back winning seasons. The 16 wins over two years tied for the third most in academy history. He was named ECAC Coach of the Year and was the head defensive coach at the Kelly Tire Blue/Gray Classic.

Weatherbie's first team at Annapolis went 5-6 in 1995, after Navy had won just nine games the previous four seasons combined.

Weatherbie entered the coaching ranks in 1977 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma State.

After three years playing professionally, Weatherbie was hired as an assistant coach at Wyoming. Serving as the quarterbacks coach, Wyoming led the nation in fewest interceptions in 1981.

He left Wyoming after the 1983 season to be an assistant coach at the United States Air Force Academy. During his six seasons on legendary head coach Fisher DeBerry's staff, Air Force was an overall 48-25-1 and participated in four bowl games. The Falcons had five winning seasons during his tenure, finishing 8-4 and winning the Independence Bowl in 1984. The next season the Falcons went 12-1, finished the year ranked No. 5 nationally, and were Bluebonnet Bowl champions.

The University of Arkansas would be the next stop on Weatherbie's coaching journey. He spent two seasons on the Razorback staff before being named the head coach at Utah State in 1992.

During Weatherbie's years as a head coach, he has had numerous current NCAA Bowl Subdivision head coaches and NFL coaches work under his tutelage, including Gary Patterson (TCU), Brent Guy (Utah State), Paul Johnson (Naval Academy), and Jim Zorn (Seattle Seahawks).

Weatherbie graduated from Fort Scott High School in Kansas in 1973. He was a quarterback during his scholastic playing days, earning all-state and honorable

ONE OF THE BEST IN "THE ZONE"

The Warhawks converted in the red zone 86 percent of the time last season to rank second in the Sun Belt and 34th in the nation. The Warhawks scored on 37 of their 43 red zone possessions, including 6-of-6 against Arkansas State and 6-of-7 at Florida Atlantic (blocked field goal). ULM scored touchdowns in 65 percent of their red zone opportunities, second-best in the Sun Belt and 32nd in the nation.

Here is a breakdown of how 2008 is shaping up:

Opponent	Times In RZ	Times Scored	TD	Rush TD	Pass TD	Made FG	FGs Missed	Downs	Int.	Fum.	Half
Arkansas	3	3	2	1	1	1	0	0	0	0	0

ULM Scoring Percentage: 75.0% (3-4)

Percentage Scoring TD: 50.0% (2-4)

ULM Points: 17

Opp. Scoring Percentage: 80.0% (8-10)

Percentage Scoring TD: 60.0% (6-10)

Opp. Points: 48

The Warhawks were even better when it came to red zone defense last year leading the Sun Belt and ranking sixth nationally allowing opponents to score only 70 percent of the time.

Here is a breakdown of 2008:

Defense Opponent	Times In RZ	Times Scored	TD	Made FG
Auburn	5	4	2	2
Arkansas	5	4	2	0

NO-FLY ZONE

The Warhawk defense turned the air in Jordan-Hare Stadium into a no-fly zone during the season opener holding Auburn to just 85 yards in the air -- 33 of which came on one pass play. The 85 yards is the third fewest allowed by a ULM defense under Charlie Weatherbie and the fewest for Auburn since 2006 when Georgia held them to just 35 yards.

78 YEARS STRONG

ULM begins its 78th season of college football this season and eighth as a member of the Sun Belt Conference. The Warhawks began playing in 1931 as a junior college and won the first of the school's two national championships with an 8-0 record in 1935. ULM became a senior college in 1951 and joined the NAIA where it stayed until 1975 when the Warhawks became a Division I independent. The Warhawks joined Division I-AA in 1982 and won the school's second national championship in 1987, going 13-2. ULM made the final step to college football's top stage in 1994 as a I-A independent and then joined the Sun Belt in 2001.

ULM IN SEASON OPENERS

The Warhawks are 15-18-1 in season openers since 1975 (first year in NCAA).

OFFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT

In just his first year as the offensive coordinator, Steve Farmer directed the ULM offense to its highest yards per game average since the Warhawks moved to Division I-A in 1994. ULM averaged 385.7 yards per game last season, ranking sixth best all-time in school history and the most since the 1993 squad set the school record with 473.8 yards per game.

What is more remarkable about the total offense output from last season, is that it is just one of two seasons in the top 10 that came when the Warhawks were Division I-A.

WARHAWKS VS. RANKED OPPONENTS

ULM is 0-16 all-time against ranked opponents (since 1994) and 0-3 in season openers against a ranked opponent. The Warhawks closest upset bid against a ranked foe came at No. 22 Auburn in a 28-24 loss in 1996.

The Warhawks played a pair of ranked teams last season (No. 25 Clemson, No. 15 Texas A&M) in back-to-back weeks.

The highest ranked team that ULM has ever squared off against was No. 2 Florida in 2001.

The Warhawks have opened the season four times against a ranked foe: 1994 at #8 Colorado (L, 13-48), 2003 at #13 LSU (L, 7-49), 2004 at #17 Auburn (L, 0-31), 2008 at #10 Auburn (L, 0-34).

UNDEFEATED IN OVERTIME

ULM's overtime game at Florida Atlantic last season was its first game to go into extra time since 2002. The Warhawks are now 5-0 all-time in overtime games, with three of the five going to multiple overtime periods.

ULM All-Time Overtime Games:

Nov. 22, 1996	Jacksonville State	W, 31-28 (2OT)
Oct. 25, 1997	at Louisiana-Lafayette	W, 28-21
Nov. 22, 1997	at Hawaii	W, 23-20
Oct. 26, 2002	Utah State	W, 51-48 (2OT)
Oct. 27, 2007	at Florida Atlantic	W, 33-30 (3OT)

STATE-OF-THE-ART PLAYING SURFACE

The latest addition to Malone Stadium features a ProPlay monofilament fiber "grass" with a shock and drain pad and Envirofill clear coated sand infill. In addition to looking more like natural grass, ULM's new playing surface has measures in place to help prevent injuries and drain water at a rate of 10 inches per hour. The clear-coated sand used has obvious benefits over its predecessor (ground-up black rubber) in that it does not absorb as much heat, does not compact over time, and does not migrate during use. The first game played on the new surface was the 2007 season opener against Tulsa on ESPN2 HD.

NUMBERS ON THE BOARD

ULM has scored in 67-of-70 games dating back to Sept. 14, 2002, against McNeese State. The Warhawks were shut out 34-0 in the season opener at No. 10 Auburn snapping a streak of 32 straight games without being shut out.

Prior to the Auburn game, the last time the Warhawks were shut out came on Sept. 10, 2005, 38-0 at Wyoming. The only other time during the streak came in a season-opening loss at Auburn 31-0 in 2004, the year the Tigers went undefeated.

The 32 game streak passed the previous best mark of 22 which was set from Sept. 14, 2002-Nov. 22, 2003. The next milestone was 82 games; ULM was not shut out from Sept. 9, 1989-Nov. 4, 1995 -- the streak ended at Louisville on Nov. 11, 1995 in a 39-0 defeat.

MALONE IS HOME FOR 31 YEARS

The 2008 season marks the 31st consecutive year that the Warhawks have called Malone Stadium on the campus of ULM home. Dedicated to legendary football head coach James L. Malone (1934-52) on Sept. 27, 1980, Malone Stadium has seen ULM teams post a combined 97-51-1 (.654) record.

The grounds of Malone Stadium have been the home to ULM's National Championship team in 1987, four Southland Conference Championships, and most recently a Sun Belt Conference championship in 2005.

DORSEY ON THE MOVE

Redshirt freshman Ken Dorsey was forced to evacuate his home not once, but twice due to hurricanes.

He was first forced out of his New Orleans home by Hurricane Katrina. His family was staying in Lake Charles, La., when not even a month later Hurricane Rita blew threw Louisiana once again and forced the Dorseys to move once again.

Ken and his father loaded up the car and drove until they found a hotel with a vacancy. That happened to be in Homewood, Ala., (suburb of Birmingham) where Ken and his dad watched the Homewood Patriots pound Shades Valley 40-2 on local television. Ken turned to his dad and said this is where I want to go to school.

PRESEASON HONORS

Three Warhawks were named to the Sun Belt Preseason All-Conference Team -- the SBC only releases a first team.

Tight end Zeek Zacharie, safety Greg James and punter Scott Love were named to the preseason list, tying the Warhawks for the third most selections. ULM was the only school in the conference to have an offensive, defensive and special teams representative on the all-conference team.

PRESEASON PRAISE

After recording its best season in 14 years in 2007, ULM was picked to finish third in the Sun Belt by the league's coaches. It is the highest the Warhawks have ever been picked to finish in the SBC in the preseason poll, including the 2005 season when they won a share of the conference title.

HOMETOWN TALENT

Eight players on the Warhawks two deep are from either Monroe or West Monroe. If you expand the search area out 90 miles to Shreveport, the number jumps to 12 players on the two deep.

The Warhawks have 13 total players from the Twin Cities and eight from Shreveport-Bossier City.

GAME1*ULM*No. 10 AUBURN*0*34Jordan-Hare Stadium (87,451) -- Auburn, Ala.
Aug. 30, 2008

AUBURN, Ala.—No. 10 Auburn scored touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams to defeat ULM 34-0 Saturday night in front of 87,451 fans in Jordan-Hare Stadium in the season opener for both teams.

Both defenses dominated the opening half of play with the teams combining for only 245 yards of total offense. Auburn (1-0) finished sixth in the nation last season in both overall and scoring defense, while the Warhawks (0-1) led the Sun Belt in rush defense.

ULM held Auburn without an offensive touchdown in the first half; however the Tigers were able to find the end zone twice in the first quarter on a nine-yard fumble return by Michael Goggins and a 66-yard punt return by Robert Dunn – Auburn's first punt return for a touchdown since 1996.

The strong defensive play for both teams carried into the second half with the only touchdown of the third quarter coming after ULM fumbled the opening kickoff of half. Brad Lester scored from three yards out after the Tigers started the possession on the ULM 30-yard line.

The Warhawks held Auburn to just 85 passing yards -- the third fewest allowed by a ULM defense under head coach Charlie Weatherbie.

ULM tight end Zeek Zacharie caught a career-high eight passes for 61 yards to lead the offensive attack. Sophomore Frank Goodin carried the ball 15 times for 39 yards in his first start.

Quarterback Kinsmon Lancaster completed 20-of-32 for 136 yards moving into sixth place all-time on the ULM pass attempts list passing Super Bowl quarterback Stan Humphries with 606.

Auburn's pair of quarterbacks struggled in their first game in the spread offense as Chris Todd completed 9-of-18 for just 70 yards and Cody Burns completed only 4-of-9 for 15 yards. Ben Tate rushed for 115 yards on 13 carries.

GAME2*ARKANSAS*ULM*28*27War Memorial Stadium (55,048) -- Little Rock, Ark.
Sept. 6, 2008

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—D.J. Williams scored with just over one minute remaining to lift Arkansas to a 28-27 come-from-behind victory over upset-minded ULM Saturday night in front of 55,048 fans at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Ark.

In search of its second victory over a Southeastern Conference opponent in four games, ULM took a 24-6 lead with 6:11 remaining in the third quarter on a one-yard plunge by Gray Frazier – the first touchdown of his career. The Warhawks defeated Alabama 21-14 in the second to last game of the 2007 season.

Arkansas (2-0) scored three touchdowns, including two by Williams, over the final 17 minutes of the game to complete its second comeback win in as many weeks.

Casey Dick found Williams from eight yards out for the game winner. The touchdown capped an 11-play 79-yard drive that included a dramatic fourth-down conversion that would have ended the game.

After Williams scored the eventual game winner, the Warhawks (0-2) had a chance to win the game, but a 45-yard field goal attempt by Jeremy Gener sailed wide right to preserve the victory for the Razorbacks.

ULM redshirt freshman receiver Anthony McCall caught a pair of touchdown passes and finished the game with six receptions for 125 yards, while Kinsmon Lancaster finished the game 23-of-39 for 270 yards and the pair of touchdown strikes.

Lancaster moves into fifth place on the ULM all-time completions list with 366 and into sole possession of ninth place on the career touchdown passes list with 22.

Williams led Arkansas with five catches for 124 yards, while Dick was 22-of-34 for 323 yards and two touchdowns. Back from a suspension, Michael Smith carried the ball 22 times for 157 yards and a pair of scores.

McCall also got into the action on special teams by blocking a punt on the possession following his first touchdown catch.

Arkansas opened the scoring with a Smith touchdown run early in the second quarter, but Alex Tejada missed the extra point, after missing two field goals earlier.

Gener made field goals of 20 and 40 yards in the second and fourth quarter, respectively.

Nate Brown had a game-high 12 tackles for the Warhawks and also had a sack – ULM finished the game with four sacks as a team.
