THE SERIES

ULM and Arkansas will be meeting for the eighth time in the history of the two schools, with all seven prior meetings coming between 1994 and 2006. Arkansas has won all seven previous meetings and has scored at least 44 points in the last five.

The last three meetings all took place in Little Rock after the previous four were played in Fayetteville.

TEAM CAPTAINS SELECTED

The Warhawks selected their team captains for the 2008 season with a representative from the offense, defense and special teams. Two of the three '08 captains were named to the Sun Belt Preseason All-Conference Team. Tight end Zeek Zacharie, bandit James Truxillo and punter Scott Love will serve as the '08 captains -- Zacharie and Love were both named Preseason All-Sun Belt.

EXPERIENCED SIGNAL CALLER

Senior quarterback Kinsmon Lancaster has 24 career starts (as a quarterback) under his belt, which ranks number one in the Sun Belt Conference. Lancaster has started one game in 2008, 11 games in 2007 and 12 games in 2006 (he started one game in 2005 as a wide receiver).

JAMES EYEING INTERCEPTION RECORD

Junior all-conference safety Greg James is on pace to set the ULM career interception record this season. James finished 2007 tied for 28th nationally after averaging 0.42 per game. He currently ranks just outside the ULM top 10 with 10 career picks, but if he maintains his average of five per year he will tie the career mark with still one year remaining.

WARHAWKS VS. THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Last season ULM shocked the nation defeating Alabama 21-14 in Tuscaloosa, Ala., but that wasn't the first time the Warhawks have knocked off a Southeastern Conference school.

The Warhawks defeated Mississippi State 34-32 in 1995 and Kentucky 21-14 in 1994. ULM has also had some close calls against the SEC. ULM lost 28-24 at Auburn in 1996, 28-16 at Arkansas in 1997, 24-10 at Mississippi State in 1997, 42-40 at Kentucky in 2006.

ULM is 3-30-1 all-time against the current members of the SEC.

ARKANSAS WARHAWKS

Despite the close proximity to Monroe, the Warhawks have just one player from the state of Arkansas on the roster. Backup cornerback Alex Blake is a Little Rock native and attended Central High School.

ZACHARIE ON MACKEY WATCH LIST

For the second straight season, tight end Zeek Zacharie was named to the John Mackey Award watch list presented to the nation's top tight end.

Zacharie has been named Mackey Tight End of the Week twice in his career. The first honor came after a two touchdown performance at Kansas in 2006 and the second came last season following the Warhawks thrilling 33-30 triple overtime victory at Florida Atlantic where he caught six passes for 69 yards and a touchdown.

YOUTH IN ACTION

The ULM coaches have hit the recruiting path hard and have found a lot of success over the past couple of years. The season opener at Auburn proved it as 15 freshmen (redshirt & true) saw action against the 10th-ranked Tigers.

JUNIOR COLLEGE IMPACT

ULM brought in nine junior college players (seven before spring ball) this season and the group has already made an impact. Four of the nine -- Ryan Dercher, Keating Helms, Otis Stamps and Aaron Williams -- started on either offense and defense, while Jeremy Gener handled the kickoffs, attempted a field goal and had a punt. Troy Giddens, Alex Ford and Rodney Lovett also saw time for the Warhawks in the opener at Auburn.

WARHAWK RADIO NETWORK

Longtime "Voice of the Warhawks" Frank Hoffmann returns to the booth for his 32nd season as the play-by-play man for ULM football. Former ULM athletics director Bruce Hanks will serve as Hoffman's color analyst for the season, while former Warhawk and San Diego Charger wide receiver Tag Rome will handle the sideline duties.

HEIR TO THE THRONE?

Sophomore Frank Goodin gets his first opportunity to be starting running back for the Warhawks this season after backing up ULM's all-time leader rusher Calvin Dawson last season.

The West Monroe, La., product rushed for 596 yards and four touchdowns last season as a redshirt freshman, which was 498 yards and four touchdowns more than what Dawson totaled in his freshman season.

In addition, he completed 63.8 percent of his passes in conference games -- also second best among regular starters in the league. ULM HEAD COACH CHARLIE WEATHERBIE

Charlie Weatherbie begins his sixth season at the helm of the ULM football program after leading the Warhawks to one of their most memorable seasons in the program's history.

The 2007 season marked the first year that ULM was bowl eligible since it made the jump to Division I-A in 1994. The Warhawks won five of their last six games on the season including one of the biggest upsets in all of college football, knocking off Alabama 21-14 in Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Weatherbie guided 10 players to Sun Belt All-Conference honors this past season and oversaw ULM running back Calvin Dawson's climb to greatness as he set the ULM career rushing record. Dawson and the rest of the Warhawk offense posted the highest per game scoring average in the ULM Division I-A era.

Under his direction, the Warhawks football program has made significant strides in a short amount of time improving from winning one game in 2003 to winning the 2005 Sun Belt Conference Championship in just three seasons.

Weatherbie, ULM's 13th head coach, took over the program a little less than three months before kicking off the 2003 season.

The 2006 Warhawks finished the season by winning three of their last four games, including a win over Louisiana-Lafayette for the fourth time in five years, and coming close to upsetting bowl-bound Kentucky. Quarterback Kinsmon Lancaster and Dawson created a high-powered offense for ULM with a league-leading 350.7 yards per game. It was the first time a Warhawk had rushed for over 1,000 yards in the Weatherbie era. Dawson and safety Kevin Payne joined the growing list of all-Sun Belt first team members during Weatherbie's tenure.

The 2005 squad made its mark by winning ULM's first conference title since 1992. The Warhawks finished the season with a 5-2 Sun Belt record and had 10 players receive all-Sun Belt honors, including Sun Belt Player of the Year Steven Jyles. Jyles re-wrote the ULM passing and total offense records book and has gone on to play for the Edmonton Eskimos and the Saskatchewan Rough Riders in the Canadian Football League.

The 2004 squad won five of their last seven games, including four wins in Sun Belt play. ULM's 4-3 Sun Belt record put Weatherbie's squad in a tie for third place. The season also saw ULM beat intrastate rival Louisiana-Lafayette for the third season in a row.

In 2003, his first season at the helm, ULM lost seven games by seven points or less and highlighted the season with a win over Louisiana-Lafayette.

Weatherbie has twice proven that he can take over sub .500 football programs and transform them into winning teams. At Utah State University, he inherited a program that had not had a winning season in 12 years and took the Aggies to their first Big West Conference championship in 15 years, their first bowl game in 32 years and their first bowl victory ever, beating Ball State 42-33 in the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl. He was 13-10 after his first two seasons, 1992-93, leaving after the third season to take the same position at the United States Naval Academy. The Aggies' 1993 win over Brigham Young still stands as Utah State's only win in the last 18 meetings with their in-state rival.

At Navy, Weatherbie had similar success. He took the Midshipmen, who had suffered through 12 consecutive losing seasons prior to his arrival, to a 9-3 record and the championship of the 1996 Aloha Bowl in his second season. The nine wins were the most by a Navy team in 18 years. At the time, he was just the third coach in academy history to win a bowl game.

In 1997, Weatherbie led Navy to a 7-4 mark, the first time since the 1981-82 seasons that the Midshipmen had compiled back-to-back winning seasons. The 16 wins over two years tied for the third most in academy history. He was named ECAC Coach of the Year and was the head defensive coach at the Kelly Tire Blue/Gray Classic.

Weatherbie's first team at Annapolis went 5-6 in 1995, after Navy had won just nine games the previous four seasons combined.

Weatherbie entered the coaching ranks in 1977 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma State.

After three years playing professionally, Weatherbie was hired as an assistant coach at Wyoming. Serving as the quarterbacks coach, Wyoming led the nation in fewest interceptions in 1981.

He left Wyoming after the 1983 season to be an assistant coach at the United States Air Force Academy. During his six seasons on legendary head coach Fisher DeBerry's staff, Air Force was an overall 48-25-1 and participated in four bowl games. The Falcons had five winning seasons during his tenure, finishing 8-4 and winning the Independence Bowl in 1984. The next season the Falcons went 12-1, finished the year ranked No. 5 nationally, and were Bluebonnet Bowl champions.

The University of Arkansas would be the next stop on Weatherbie's coaching journey. He spent two seasons on the Razorback staff before being named the head coach at Utah State in 1992.

During Weatherbie's years as a head coach, he has had numerous current NCAA Bowl Subdivision head coaches and NFL coaches work under his tutelage, including Gary Patterson (TCU), Brent Guy (Utah State), Paul Johnson (Naval Academy), and Jim Zorn (Seattle Seahawks).

Weatherbie graduated from Fort Scott High School in Kansas in 1973. He was a quarterback during his scholastic playing days, earning all-state and honorable

78 YEARS STRONG

ULM begins its 78th season of college football this season and eighth as a member of the Sun Belt Conference. The Warhawks began playing in 1931 as a junior college and won the first of the school's two national championships with an 8-0 record in 1935. ULM became a senior college in 1951 and joined the NAIA where it stayed until 1975 when the Warhawks became a Division I independent. The Warhawks joined Division I-AA in 1982 and won the school's second national championship in 1987, going 13-2. ULM made the final step to college football's top stage in 1994 as a I-A independent and then joined the Sun Belt in 2001.

ULM IN SEASON OPENERS

The Warhawks are 15-18-1 in season openers since 1975 (first year in NCAA).

OFFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT

In just his first year as the offensive coordinator, Steve Farmer directed the ULM offense to its highest yards per game average since the Warhawks moved to Division I-A in 1994. ULM averaged 385.7 yards per game last season, ranking sixth best all-time in school history and the most since the 1993 squad set the school record with 473.8 yards per game.

What is more remarkable about the total offense output from last season, is that it is just one of two seasons in the top 10 that came when the Warhawks were Division I-A.

WARHAWKS VS. RANKED OPPONENTS

ULM is 0-16 all-time against ranked opponents (since 1994) and 0-3 in season openers against a ranked opponent. The Warhawks closest upset bid against a ranked foe came at No. 22 Auburn in a 28-24 loss in 1996.

The Warhawks played a pair of ranked teams last season (No. 25 Clemson, No. 15 Texas A&M) in back-to-back weeks.

The highest ranked team that ULM has ever squared off against was No. 2 Florida in 2001.

The Warhawks have opened the season four times against a ranked foe: 1994 at #8 Colorado (L, 13-48), 2003 at #13 LSU (L, 7-49), 2004 at #17 Auburn (L, 0-31), 2008 at #10 Auburn (L, 0-34).

UNDEFEATED IN OVERTIME

ULM's overtime game at Florida Atlantic last season was its first game to go into extra time since 2002. The Warhawks are now 5-0 all-time in overtime games, with three of the five going to multiple overtime periods.

ULM All-Time Overtime Games:

Nov. 22, 1996	Jacksonville State	W, 31-28 (2OT)
Oct. 25, 1997	at Louisiana-Lafayette	W, 28-21
Nov. 22, 1997	at Hawaii	W, 23-20
Oct. 26, 2002	Utah State	W, 51-48 (2OT)
Oct. 27, 2007	at Florida Atlantic	W, 33-30 (3OT)

STATE-OF-THE-ART PLAYING SURFACE

The latest addition to Malone Stadium features a ProPlay monofilament fiber "grass" with a shock and drain pad and Envirofill clear coated sand infill. In addition to looking more like natural grass, ULM's new playing surface has measures in place to help prevent injuries and drain water at a rate of 10 inches per hour. The clear-coated sand used has obvious benefits over its predecessor (ground-up black rubber) in that it does not absorb as much heat, does not compact over time, and does not migrate during use. The first game played on the new surface was the 2007 season opener against Tulsa on ESPN2 HD.

NUMBERS ON THE BOARD

ULM has scored in 66-of-69 games dating back to Sept. 14, 2002, against McNeese State. The Warhawks were shut out 34-0 in the season opener at No. 10 Auburn snapping a streak of 32 straight games without being shut out.

Prior to the Auburn game, the last time the Warhawks were shut out came on Sept. 10, 2005, 38-0 at Wyoming. The only other time during the streak came in a season-opening loss at Auburn 31-0 in 2004, the year the Tigers went undefeated.

The 32 game streak passed the previous best mark of 22 which was set from Sept. 14, 2002-Nov. 22, 2003. The next milestone was 82 games; ULM was not shut out from Sept. 9, 1989-Nov. 4, 1995 -- the streak ended at Louisville on Nov. 11, 1995 in a 39-0 defeat.

MALONE IS HOME FOR 31 YEARS

The 2008 season marks the 31st consecutive year that the Warhawks have called Malone Stadium on the campus of ULM home. Dedicated to legendary football head coach James L. Malone (1934-52) on Sept. 27, 1980, Malone Stadium has seen ULM teams post a combined 97-51-1 (.654) record.

The grounds of Malone Stadium have been the home to ULM's National Championship team in 1987, four Southland Conference Championships, and most recently a Sun Belt Conference championship in 2005.

DORSEY ON THE MOVE

Redshirt freshman Ken Dorsey was forced to evacuate his home not once, but twice due to hurricanes.

He was first forced out of his New Orleans home by Hurricane Katrina. His family was staying in Lake Charles, La., when not even a month later Hurricane Rita blew threw Louisiana once again and forced the Dorseys to move once again.

Ken and his father loaded up the car and drove until they found a hotel with a vacancy. That happened to be in Homewood, Ala., (suburb of Birmingham) where Ken and his dad watched the Homewood Patriots pound Shades Valley 40-2 on local television. Ken turned to his dad and said this is where I want to go to school.

PRESEASON HONORS

Three Warhawks were named to the Sun Belt Preseason All-Conference Team -- the SBC only releases a first team.

Tight end Zeek Zacharie, safety Greg James and punter Scott Love were named to the preseason list, tying the Warhawks for the third most selections. ULM was the only school in the conference to have an offensive, defensive and special teams representative on the all-conference team.

PRESEASON PRAISE

After recording its best season in 14 years in 2007, ULM was picked to finish third in the Sun Belt by the league's coaches. It is the highest the Warhawks have ever been picked to finish in the SBC in the preseason poll, including the 2005 season when they won a share of the conference title.

HOMETOWN TALENT

Eight players on the Warhawks two deep are from either Monroe or West Monroe. If you expand the search area out 90 miles to Shreveport, the number jumps to 12 players on the two deep.

The Warhawks have 13 total players from the Twin Cities and eight from Shreveport-Bossier City.

ULM-ARKANSAS CONNECTION

There are plenty of story lines between ULM and Arkansas when the teams meet this weekend.

ULM head coach Charlie Weatherbie was an assistant at Arkansas in 1990 & 91, serving as the offensive coordinator in 91 taking the Razorbacks to the Independence Bowl.

Current UA assistant Kirk Botkin was an assistant at ULM from 2006-07.

GAME1*ULM*No. 10 AUBURN*0*34

Jordan-Hare Stadium (87,451) -- Auburn, Ala.
Aug. 30, 2008

AUBURN, Ala.—No. 10 Auburn scored touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams to defeat ULM 34-0 Saturday night in front of 87,451 fans in Jordan-Hare Stadium in the season opener for both teams.

Both defenses dominated the opening half of play with the teams combining for only 245 yards of total offense. Auburn (1-0) finished sixth in the nation last season in both overall and scoring defense, while the Warhawks (0-1) led the Sun Belt in rush defense.

ULM held Auburn without an offensive touchdown in the first half; however the Tigers were able to find the end zone twice in the first quarter on a nine-yard fumble return by Michael Goggins and a 66-yard punt return by Robert Dunn — Auburn's first punt return for a touchdown since 1996.

The strong defensive play for both teams carried into the second half with the only touchdown of the third quarter coming after ULM fumbled the opening kickoff of half. Brad Lester scored from three yards out after the Tigers started the possession on the ULM 30-yard line.

The Warhawks held Auburn to just 85 passing yards -- the third fewest allowed by a ULM defense under head coach Charlie Weatherbie.

ULM tight end Zeek Zacharie caught a career-high eight passes for 61 yards to lead the offensive attack. Sophomore Frank Goodin carried the ball 15 times for 39 yards in his first start.

Quarterback Kinsmon Lancaster completed 20-of-32 for 136 yards moving into sixth place all-time on the ULM pass attempts list passing Super Bowl quarterback Stan Humphries with 606.

Auburn's pair of quarterbacks struggled in their first game in the spread offense as Chris Todd completed 9-of-18 for just 70 yards and Cody Burns completed only 4-of-9 for 15 yards. Ben Tate rushed for 115 yards on 13 carries.
