STORY LINES

- Tulane (0-3, 0-1 C-USA) continues non-conference play and closes out a two-game home stand on Saturday against UL-Monroe (1-2) at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on Cox Sports Television (CST).
- The Green Wave will look to avoid its first 0-4 start since 2001 when the Wave dropped its first four contests to BYU, LSU, East Carolina and UCF.
- Saturday's game marks just the third all-time meeting between Tulane and ULM and the Wave leads the series, 2-0.
- Tulane ranks second among Conference USA schools and 36th nationally in pass defense, surrendering just 197 yards per game. The Green Wave allowed Ole Miss' two quarterbacks to a combined 146 yards through the air last week.
- Last week, Devin Powell started at quarterback for the Green Wave against Ole Miss, becoming the first true freshman to do so for Tulane since Shaun King against these same Rebels on Oct. 7, 1995, in Oxford, Miss. Powell replaced injured senior Ryan Griffin under center, snapping Griffin's 16-game starting streak. Powell finished the day 22-of-41 for 145 yards and three interceptions.
- The Green Wave continue to honor senior safety Devon Walker who suffered a serious neck injury three weeks ago in a 45-10 loss at Tulsa (see cover page for more information on Devon Walker).
- Tulane is in search of its first win of a young 2012 season and its first victory under first-year head coach Curtis Johnson.
- The Green Wave already resembles a youth movement with 19 players, including 13 true freshmen, making their college debuts over the course of Tulane's first three games, while 11 players earned a starting assignment for the first time in their careers against Rutgers and Tulsa.
- Tulane junior receiver Ryan Grant enters Saturday's game ranked first among C-USA players and 27th nationally with 91.33 receiving yards per game. Grant finished with 110 yards on six receptions against Rutgers and hauled in five catches for 109 yards and a touchdown at Tulsa. Last week, he grabbed six catches for 55 yards. This season, Grant has 17 receptions for 274 yards (16.1 ypc) and one score.
- Grant has caught at least one pass in the last 11 consecutive games he has played in. Grant missed the final 12 games in 2011 with an injury and returned to the field in the opener against Rutgers and collected six receptions against the Scarlet Knights. The last time Grant failed to record a reception in a game he played was on Oct. 9, 2010 against Army.

TEAM NOTES

• In recognition of Devon Walker, the team will wear Walker's number "18" on the left side of the helmet.

• A New Orleans native and senior who prepped at nearby Destrehan High School, Walker was seriously injured when he suffered a cervical spine fracture after he collided with a teammate while attempting to make a tackle on the final play of the first half in a game at Tulsa.

• Last week, Green Wave defenders forced three fumbles and recovered a trio against Ole Miss. It was the first time Tulane recovered three fumbles in a game since Oct. 30, 2010 vs. SMU. The last time the defense forced at least three fumbles in a contest came on Nov. 26, 2011, when Tulane jarred the ball free four times in the season finale at Hawai'i.

• The Tulane defense registered seven tackles for loss and two sacks last week vs. Ole Miss and both were high-water marks for the 2012 season. The last time the Green Wave had at least seven tackles behind the line of scrimmage came on Nov. 19, 2011, when Tulane had 10 at Rice. The Wave's previous multiple-sack outing was in the 2011 season finale at Hawai'i when Tulane posted a pair.

• The Green Wave comes into the UL-Monroe game in search of its first rushing touchdown of the year. TU has scored both of its touchdowns this season through the air with RB Rob Kelley hauling in an 11-yard scoring pass from Ryan Griffin vs. Rutgers and WR Ryan Grant catching a 66-yard touchdown pass from Devin Powell at Tulsa.

• Last season, the Green Wave produced 17 rushing touchdowns. However, 13 of the scores came from RB Orleans Darkwa, who has yet to play this season because of an ankle injury.

• Tulane's quarterback duo of Ryan Griffin and Devin Powell has combined to complete 60.2 percent of their pass attempts for 569 yards and a pair of touchdowns. The duo has sprinkled their combined 71 completions to 13 different receivers this season.

• The Green Wave returns 53 lettermen, including 15 starters (7-offense/5-defense/3-specialists), 10 players that redshirted last season and 27 newcomers, for the 2012 campaign.

• The 2012 roster features 46 players from Louisiana, including 16 players from New Orleans.

• The 2012 squad consists of one graduate student, 18 seniors, 20 juniors, 26 sophomores, nine redshirt freshmen and 25 true freshmen.

NOTING THE GREEN WAVE

• Tulane freshman quarterback Devin Powell made his first collegiate start against Ole Miss became the first true freshman quarterback to start since Shaun King on Oct. 7, 1995, at Ole Miss. Tulane lost that game 20-17, and King finished 9-of-28 for 97 yards, an interception and a third-quarter touchdown run which put the Wave ahead for the moment 17-13.

• Three weeks ago, Powell entered the game in place of an injured Ryan Griffin and became the first true freshman quarterback to play in a game since King in 1995. King first played against Wake Forest on Sept. 9, 1995, but did not throw a pass. That was second game of the 1995 season.

• Powell completed 8-of-16 pass attempts for 110 yards and one touchdown at Tulsa. His first career score was a 66-yard strike to receiver Ryan Grant.

• Freshman Darion Monroe, who started the first two games of the 2012 season at cornerback, opened the game against Ole Miss at free safety and tallied a career-high 12 tackles (all solo).

• Monroe was one of seven Tulane players to post career-high tackle totals last Saturday against Ole Miss – joining freshman CB Jordan Batiste with five (all solo), freshman CB Lorenzo Doss with four (all solo), freshman DT Calvin Thomas with four (2 solo, 2 assists), junior DE Wendell Beckwith with three (2 solo, 1 assist), freshman DT Corey Redwine with three (2 solo, 1 assist), sophomore DB Brandon LeBeau with two (1 solo, 1 assist).

• Senior CB Ryan Travis is one of the Wave's most productive players in the secondary. Travis is tied for fifth on the team in tackles (11), has the team's lone interception, has a team-best three pass break-ups and has forced and recovered a fumble this season.

• Travis tied a career high with three pass break-ups against Ole Miss. He previously set his personal best with a trio against UTEP on Oct. 15, 2011, in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

• In his first season as a full time starter, junior MLB Zach Davis leads the Wave in tackles with 20 (15 solo) and is tied for the team lead in sacks (1), while senior DE Austen Jacks has seven tackles, including three stops for lost yardage.

• Tulane's offensive line might be the most youthful groups in the nation this season. The O-line entered the season with just one player- OT Eric Jones- with a career start. Take out Jones' 26 career starts and the remaining offensive linemen combine for just 12 career starts and only OG Adam Skidmore, C Mike Henry and OT Sean Donnelly have started both games this season.

- Freshman RG Alex Paul made his first career start at Tulane making him the 11th first-time starter for Tulane this season.
- Three Tulane players extended their double-digit starting streaks on Saturday vs. Rutgers – senior DE Austen Jacks (28), senior CB Ryan Travis (28), senior OT Eric Jones (18).
- Ten Green Wave players started for the first time in the season opener against the Scarlet Knights: sophomore Sean Donnelly at left tackle, junior Mike Henry at center, sophomore Rob Kelley at running back, junior Rio Mares at right guard, freshman Darion Monroe at cornerback, redshirt-freshman Corey Redwine at nose tackle, sophomore Justyn Shackleford at wide receiver, sophomore Adam Skidmore at left guard, sophomore Evan Tatford at tight end and sophomore Kenny Welcome at defensive tackle.
- Tulane junior kicker Cairo Santos is off to a strong start this season, knocking down all three of his field goal attempts, including a 49-yarder in the first quarter three weeks ago at Tulsa, which matched his career long. He also made 49-yard FGs at Duke and vs. Syracuse in 2011.
- Santos ranks fourth among C-USA kickers and 47th nationally in field goals per game (1.00). He is 1-1 from 30-39 yards and is 2-2 from 40-49 yards this season.
- Although he has yet to play this season, RB Orleans Darkwa, a 2011 All C-USA second team performer and 2011 and 2012 Doak Walker Award Candidate, led Tulane in rushing attempts (210), rushing yards (924), rushing touchdowns (13), receptions (37) and points scored (78) while ranking second in all-purpose yards (1229) and total offense (958), and fourth in receiving yards (305). He finished third in C-USA in rushing yards per game (71.1) while sitting tied for fourth in points scored via touchdown per game.
- Orleans Darkwa scored 13 rushing touchdowns a year ago, the second most in a single season in the school annals. Darkwa now owns the No. 2 and No. 3 spots in TU's single season list after scoring 11 touchdowns as a freshman in 2010. The school record of 23 was set by All-America running back Matt Forté in 2007.
- Orleans Darkwa achieved a rare milestone last season. He became the first running back to lead the team in rushing attempts (210) and receptions (37) in the same season since Mewelde Moore in 2002. In fact, he became just the fourth running back to achieve the feat in the last 71 years at Tulane.
- Mewelde Moore did it twice in 2001 and 2002, while All-American and NFL first round draft pick (1960) Tommy Mason pulled off the trick in 1960, Claude Mason in 1957 and Richard Hoot in 1945.

SCOUTING THE WARHAWKS

- ULM (1-2) got the nation's attention when it upended No. 8 Arkansas on the road in its season opener, 34-31, in overtime on Sept. 8. One week later, the Warhawks fell short of upsetting its second straight Southeastern Conference school with a narrow, 31-28, loss at Auburn on the road on Sept. 15. Last week, ULM fell short of Big 12 Conference opponent, 47-42, on its home field. The Warhawks rank 18th nationally in total offense (506.67) per game.
- Quarterback Kolton Browning has completed 62.5 percent of his pass attempts (95-of-152) for 921 yards and eight touchdowns against just two interceptions. Browning is averaging 307 passing yards per game.
- Running back Jyruss Edwards leads the team with 232 yards on 53 attempts (4.4 avg) and two touchdowns, while Browning has rushed for a team-best three scores.
- Receiver Brent Leonard has hauled in a team-high 26 receptions for 237 yards and two touchdowns and is one of four receivers just under 200 receiving yards for the season.
- Defensively, linebacker R.J. Young has a team-high 27 tackles (9 solo), while defensive back Mitch Lane is second on the team in tackles (23), has a team-best three pass break-ups and one interception.

SERIES & NOTES:

- Saturday's game marks third all-time meeting between Tulane and Louisiana-Monroe, and the Green Wave leads the series, 2-0, including a record of 1-0 in New Orleans.
- Tulane downed ULM, 24-10, in the last meeting on Sept. 20, 2008 in the then-Louisiana Superdome. The first game on the series took place in Monroe on Oct. 5, 2002, and the Wave downed the then-ULM Indians, 52-9.
- Aside from its series with LSU, Tulane owns an 14-game win streak against teams from Louisiana.
- Since the 1998 season, Tulane has faced eight in-state schools, including Louisiana-Lafayette (1998, 1999, 2000), Louisiana-Monroe (2002, 2008), LSU (2001, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009), Louisiana Tech (1998), McNeese State (2009), Northwestern State (2003), Southern (2001, 2002) and Southeastern Louisiana (2005, 2007, 2010, 2011), and the Wave boasts a combined record of 14-5 with all five losses coming to LSU.

TULANE AGAINST THE SUN BELT CONFERENCE:

• Saturday's contest with ULM marks the Green Wave's 28th meeting against a current member of the Sun Belt Conference and all 27 previous meetings have come against UL-Monroe (2-0) and UL-Lafayette (21-4). Next season, two Sun Belt schools will become Conference USA members on July 1, 2013, including Florida International (FIU) and North Texas.

TULANE AGAINST IN-STATE SCHOOLS:

When Tulane takes the field against Louisiana-Monroe this Saturday, it will mark the 157th time in school history that the Green Wave has faced an in-state opponent. TU has a record of 76-73-7 against Louisiana schools with match-ups against the following teams:

- | | |
|------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| - Camp Beauregard (1-0) | - Louisiana Tech (7-0) |
| - Centenary (3-0) | - McNeese State (1-0) |

| - Louisiana-Monroe (2-0) | - Southeastern Louisiana (6-0) |
| - LSU (23-68-7) | - Southern (2-0) |

THE COACHES:

Tulane: Curtis "CJ" Johnson (Idaho, 1985) is in his first season as the head coach of the Green Wave and has a career mark of 0-3. Johnson was tabbed as the 39th head football coach in school history on Monday, December 5, 2011.

Johnson spent six seasons (2006-2011) as the wide receivers coach for the New Orleans Saints. During his time with the Saints, he and his electrifying receiving corps helped the franchise to its first NFL title in 2009 and New Orleans made playoff appearances in four of his six seasons.

A New Orleans native, Johnson has over 25 years of coaching experience from both the collegiate and professional level to the Green Wave and has been a part of an NFL Championship with the Saints and a Bowl Championship Series National Championship with the University of Miami (Fla.) Hurricanes in 2001.

Prior to the Saints, Johnson spent 10 seasons at Miami (Fla.) and helped the storied program to 96 total victories, five Big East titles and nine bowl appearances. Along with its national title in 2001, the Hurricanes finished as the national runner-up in 2002. Johnson also coached at Cal (1995), SMU (1994), San Diego State (1989-93) and Idaho (1987-88).

UL-Monroe: Todd Berry (Tulsa, 1983) is in his third season as the head coach of the Warhawk football Team and boasts a mark of 11-18 at the school and an overall record of 40-78 in 11 seasons. Berry, who is highly regarded as an offensive mastermind, returned to ULM as the program's 14th head coach after serving as the offensive coordinator for two seasons.

Prior to ULM, Berry had head coaching stops at Illinois State (1996-99) and Army (2000-03). His first stop in Monroe was during the 2004 and 2005 campaigns and those were followed a four-year run, 2000-03, as the head coach at Army. Berry's is the last Army coach to defeat Navy (26-17, 2001).

His tenure at Army followed a four-year stint at Illinois State (1996-99) where Berry presided over one of the most remarkable turnarounds in Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) history. The team had not won a conference title since 1950, but under Berry the Redbirds advanced to the NCAA FCS Playoff's in his third season and finished in FCS top 20.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

• Redshirt freshman DT Kenny Welcome leads the team with two forced fumbles in three games this season.

• Freshman P Peter Picerelli boomed a 70-yard punt early in the second quarter, marking his career-long and the first Tulane punt of at least 70- yards since Jonathan Ginsburgh's 73-yard punt at Rutgers on Oct. 2, 2010.

• Through two games, Picerelli is averaging 40.6 yards per attempt. He has 21 punts for 852 yards and has placed eight inside the opponents' 20-yard line, four have been fair caught, three have traveled 50+ yards and he has two touchbacks.

• QB Devin Powell (freshman), OG Nate Skold (redshirt freshman) and OT Todd Jacquet (freshman) became the 17th, 18th and 19th players to make their collegiate debut for the Green Wave this season. The three joined the 16 that made in their collegiate debuts for the Green Wave last week against Rutgers. They were true freshmen Darion Monroe (CB), Jordan Batiste (CB), Richard Carthon (DB), Lorenzo Doss (CB), Royce LaFrance (DE), Sydie London (WR), Alex Paul (OG), Peter Picerelli (P) Josh Rounds (RB) and Calvin Thomas (DL), redshirt-freshmen Cory Redwine (DT), Aaron Bryant (DE), Marc Edwards (WR) and Arturo Uzdavinis (OL) and sophomore Cameron DeJean (LB).

• Sophomore S Sam Scofield recorded a career-high 12 tackles in the game at Tulsa. His previous high of 10 came at Army last season. Scofield made his first start of the season and the third of his career against the Golden Hurricane.

• Sophomore Rob Kelley spent his rookie season as the team's primary kick returner and his 64 returns were the second most in a single season in NCAA history.

• Quarterback Ryan Griffin was one of 117 nominees selected for the 2012 Allstate American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Good Works Team. As one of college football's most prestigious off-the-field honors, the award recognizes a select group of college football players committed to making a difference in their communities.

TARGET PRACTICE:

Tulane's passing game has been balanced through three games with every offensive position but a quarterback catching a pass this season. Receiver Ryan Grant leads the team in receptions (17), yards (274), average (16.1) and he is tied for first in touchdown receptions, while Derrick Strozier is second on the team in receptions and leads the running backs with 10 receptions for 52 yards.

RAISE THE BAR:

Tulane first-year head coach Curtis Johnson has one clear slogan for his program this season and that's to "Raise the Bar." Johnson and his staff have not only accepted the challenge of improving every facet of the program but have placed the slogan above every door in the football offices, team meeting rooms and preseason camp tee shirts.

THE STATE OF TULANE:

When Curtis Johnson was introduced as the 39th head coach in school history on Dec. 5, 2011, he state his priority for recruiting would be to recruit within the city of New Orleans and the state of Louisiana and create the "State of Tulane."

On signing day, he was able to ink 13 players from the state, including nine from the New Orleans area. He was also able to pull off a couple of upsets by signing Jordan Batiste, who had previously committed to Ole Miss, and Darion Monroe, who had committed to Texas A&M. Each of Tulane's Louisiana signees ranked among the Top 100 recruits in the state and Monroe headlined the list as the No. 5 incoming freshman out of Louisiana according to ESPN.com.

With recruiting currently ongoing, Tulane already has 17 verbal commitments for the class of 2013 with the majority of the group coming from the state and local area.

GRIFFIN READY TO CEMENT HIS NAME AMONG SCHOOL'S TOP SIGNAL CALLERS:

Senior quarterback Ryan Griffin is set to embark on his fourth straight season as the starter for the Wave. Griffin, who has started 32 of 35 career games, earned the starting nod as a redshirt-freshman during the mid-point of the 2009 season and hasn't relinquished the role except to injury, which has sidelined him for the UCF game in 2010.

Griffin has made his way into the school record books. He is ranked among the top-10 career leaders in 12 different categories and already owns single game records for passing attempts in a game (64 vs. Marshall in 2010) and the freshman record by a quarterback for passing yards (1,382 in 2009).

Already the most experienced quarterback returning in C-USA this season, Griffin is 2,636 yards shy of the school record for passing yards of 9,205 set by Patrick Ramsey (1998-2001), is 293 passing attempts shy of the school record of 1,355 also set by Ramsey and is 167 completions shy of Ramsay's school mark of 798.

STILL THE ONE: DARKWA CONTINUES HIS RUSH UP THE RECORD LADDER:

Like the famous song: "Still the One" released from the pop-rock group Orleans in 1976, Tulane's own Orleans Darkwa has been the "one" for the Green Wave over the past two seasons.

Darkwa has rushed for 1,849 yards and 24 touchdowns, which places him 12th among TU's career leaders, while his touchdown total is already fifth all-time. He already ranks among the school's career leaders in five different categories and his 13 touchdowns last season is second among TU's single season leaders, while his 11 scores as freshman is third all-time. He ran for 925 as a rookie in 2010 and 924 yards last season. Both efforts among the school's top-10 single season leaders. He has led the team in scoring the last two seasons.

TULANE FOOTBALL TEAMS UP WITH AFCA FOR COACH TO CURE DUCHENNE MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY

• For the fifth year in a row, the Tulane University football coaching staff will lend their support to the Coach to Cure MD program, which will be held around the nation during games of Saturday, September 22-29, 2012. The rapidly growing annual effort has raised more than half a million dollars to battle Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy.

Last year, Tulane football joined more than 10,000 college coaches and 505 different institutions to participate. Football fans can donate to Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy research by either going online to www.CoachtoCureMD.org or by texting the word CURE to 90999 (a $5 donation will automatically be added to your next phone bill).

COMING HOME:

• Former Tulane and NFL standout Lionel Washington returns to his alma mater as a co-defensive coordinator for coach Curtis Johnson. A native of nearby Litcher, Washington was a four-year letterwinner for the Wave from 1979-82, Washington helped Tulane to 26 wins and appearances in the Liberty Bowl (1979) and Hall of Fame Bowl (1980) during his career. He served as team captain during his senior season of 1982 and was a fourth round choice (103rd overall) in the 1983 NFL Draft by the St. Louis (now Arizona) Cardinals.

Washington spent 27 years in the NFL as a player or coach, all on the defensive side of the football. He played 15 seasons in the NFL as a defensive back and was a secondary coach for 12 years following retirement.

TULANE'S ALL-NAME TEAM:

• One area where Tulane will excel for sure this season will be on the all-name lists:

-Fudge Van Hooser

-Orleans Darkwa

-Sydie (Sigh-ceed) London, aka "Antonio Hates"

-Along with London, we also have a France in Royce LaFrance and a Rome in Ryan Rome

-Kenny Welcome

-Corey Redwine

-Josh Drum

-Cairo Santos

-Austen Jacks

FORMER GREEN WAVE DEZMAN MOSES MAKES GREEN BAY'S 53-MAN ROSTER

• Former Tulane defensive standout Dezman Moses has played his way onto the Green Bay Packers 53-man roster after signing with the team as a free agent. Moses, who played at Tulane during the 2010 and 2011 campaigns, gives the Green Wave three current players on NFL rosters, joining Mewelde Moore (2000-03 with the Indianapolis Colts, Matt Forte (2004-07) with the Chicago Bears and Troy Kropog (2005-08) with the Tennessee Titans.

Moses was a two-year letterwinner and starter for the Green Wave after transferring to Tulane from the University of Iowa. Moses started 22 of 23 games played, including all 13 this past season, and completed his career with 114 total tackles (59 solo), including 24.5 stops for lost yardage, 15.5 sacks, and forced six fumbles, while recovering two, and logged one interception.

During his final season, Moses was an All-Conference USA and All-Louisiana second team performer and finished the season with 52 tackles, including 12 stops for lost yardage and 9.5 sacks, along with three forced fumbles, five pass break-ups and seven hurries. He led TU's defensive line in total stops and ranked fifth overall in tackles

JOHNSON
 Head Coach
 First Year

• Curtis Johnson is 0-3 in his first season as a collegiate head coach.

• Johnson was tabbed as the 39th head football coach in school history on Monday, December 5, 2011.

• Johnson made the short trip to the Tulane campus after spending the previous six seasons (2006-2011) as the wide receivers coach for the New Orleans Saints. During his time with the Saints, he and his electrifying receiving corps helped the franchise to its first NFL title in 2009 and New Orleans made playoff appearances in four of his six seasons.

• A New Orleans native and graduate of St. Charles High School, Johnson brings over 25 years of coaching experience from both the collegiate and professional level to the Green Wave and has been a part of an NFL Championship with the Saints and a Bowl Championship Series National Championship with the University of Miami (Fla.) Hurricanes in 2001.

• The Saints were rewarded with outstanding results from his wide receiver group since his arrival in 2006. He came to New Orleans after forging a reputation for developing top-flight targets on the college level for over two decades, and his stature has only grown on the NFL level.

• Over the last six seasons, Johnson has worked with both veteran and young wide receivers, with all benefiting from his guidance and high-energy teaching style. Among the players who have continued to improve under his watch through their own dedication and his tutelage are Marques Colston, Devery Henderson, Robert Meachem and Lance Moore.

• Johnson boasts a list of prominent pupils that very few coaches at any level can match. While specializing with wide receiver development, the group of standouts under his direction while at University of Miami (Fla.) and his prior stop at San Diego State includes some of the top wide receivers over the last decade, including NFL first-round picks Andre Johnson, Santana Moss, fellow New Orleans native Reggie Wayne and Yatil Green.

• At Miami (Fla.), Johnson was part of a staff that went to nine bowl games and won the 2001 National Championship. He polished the skills of at least one All-Big East performer each season from 1996-2005, including Johnson - the third overall pick by Houston in 2003 - and Moss, who became the Hurricanes' all-time leader in receiving yardage before making the Pro Bowl for the Washington Redskins. Wayne departed ranked first in school history in catches and was a five-time Pro Bowl performer for the Indianapolis Colts.

• In his five-year stint at San Diego State (1989-93) Johnson landed some of the school's biggest recruits, including 2000 NFL MVP and fellow New Orleans native Marshall Faulk, who was recently inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame, as well as wide receiver Darnay Scott, who completed his eight-year NFL career with 408 grabs and 37 touchdowns. Each year Johnson was with the Aztecs, the school had an all-conference performer at wide receiver.

• Johnson began his coaching career as a receivers coach at Lewiston (Idaho) High School in 1984, serving for three seasons before holding a similar position at the University of Idaho. He spent 1987 and 1988 at the school before becoming the receivers coach at San Diego State. His next stop was at Southern Methodist in 1994 before becoming wide receivers coach in 1995 at the University of California-Berkeley.

• Johnson attended the University of Idaho and received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1985. He was a four-year starter for the Vandals and an All-Big Sky Conference selection.

• Johnson and his wife, Angel, have six children, Janene, Kiejon, Curtis III "Trey", and Aaron, Angele and Justin. Johnson serves as a deacon at his church, First African Baptist Church in New Orleans.

COMING IN 2014...

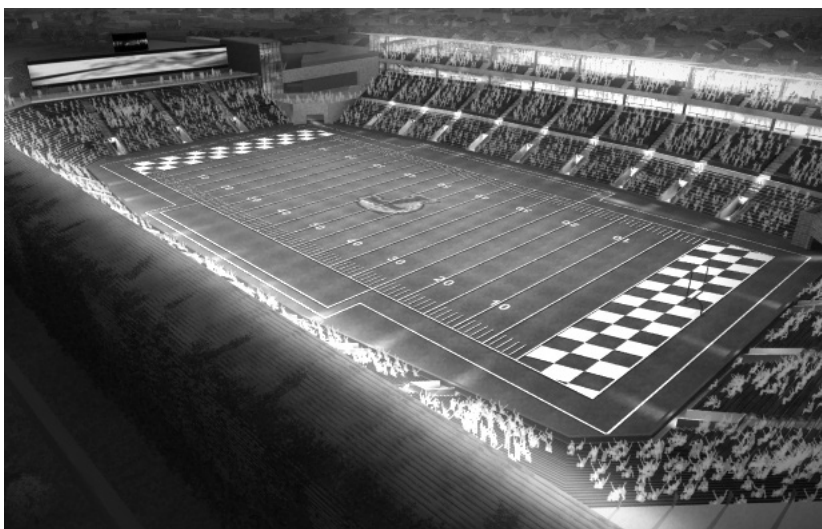

Thousands of people experienced college football on Tulane's Uptown campus over multiple decades and even 36 years later it is not hard to find a story about someone's experience at the old Tulane Stadium. Boy Scouts selling programs... watching the Wave defeat LSU in front of a record crowd of 86,598 in 1973... It is time to recreate these memories for a new generation of Green Wave fans. The Tulane Stadium will be a catalyst for the resurgence of Tulane Football in New Orleans.

The Stadium will create a home-field environment unrivaled in college football. Fans will be on top of the action on every side of the field and there will not be a bad seat in the house. It will serve as a critical recruiting tool for future Green Wave student-athletes and will provide another reason for Tulanians across the country to come back to campus and reconnect with their university.

The Stadium will serve as an epicenter of activity for Tulane University as well as serve as an incubator for future fans, students, and student-athletes. Thousands will be introduced to the new era of Tulane Football... one in which memories will be made and shared for decades by the next generation of Tulanians.

An on-campus stadium will foster a sense of community for students and will provide a rallying point and sense of pride and tradition. It will be a magnet for New Orleansians who want to experience college football in New Orleans. Fans young and old, alumni and those who never attended Tulane will swarm to the Stadium.

Tulane Football will be part of the fabric of our great city.

Tulane Stadium was the home to Tulane Football from 1926 until 1974. Built on an old plantation where sugar was first granulated, the original construction cost approximately $300,000 and was made mostly from brick and concrete. As the site of the annual Sugar Bowl, Tulane Stadium was often informally referred to as "Sugar Bowl Stadium." After its expansion in the 1940's, Tulane Stadium became the largest football stadium in the south.

Tulane Hall of Famer Steve Barrios Celebrates his 30th season as the Green Wave's color analyst in 2012

Steve Barrios begins his 30th year as Tulane's color analyst in 2012.

Tulane Athletics Hall of Famer Steve Barrios has been a cornerstone for the Green Wave football program for the better part of nearly 35 years. Barrios, who was a three-year letterman from 1969-71, returned to his alma mater in 1983 to serve as the color analyst on the radio broadcast.

Fast forward to 2012, and Barrios remains a fixture in the radio booth for the Green Wave. Barrios begins his 30th season of adding insight and experience for Tulane broadcasts every Saturday.

Barrios has seen his share of Green Wave football games as a player, where he helped the Wave to a Liberty Bowl victory as a junior in 1970 during the "Year of the Green," and up above the field in the radio booth where he has called 329 Tulane's football games and been a part of four of the school's 10 total bowl games either as a player or as a broadcaster.

He has missed just a total of five regular season games over the past 29 years and was forced to miss the entire 2005 campaign due to his job as an insurance agent after the damage inflicted on the gulf region and in New Orleans from Hurricane Katrina.

A Tulanian through and through, Barrios grew up in the New Orleans area, graduated from West Jefferson High School in 1968 and enrolled at Tulane the following fall. He graduated from Tulane in 1972 and earned his master's degree from Loyola in 1975.

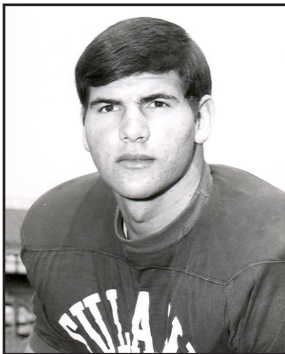

Along the way, Barrios completed his career as the leading receiver in Tulane history with career totals of 1,197 yards, 60 receptions and eight touchdowns. He also set a TU single season record for receiving yards with 505 and established the school mark for yards per reception with 25.3 during his junior year. His efforts helped the Wave to an 8-4 overall record and a victory over a heavily-favored Colorado team in the Liberty Bowl in 1970.

Barrios was named to the Associated Press All-South Independent Team all three years and completed his playing days with the highest average per reception in a career (20.0). His career did not go unnoticed by his alma mater as he was inducted into the Tulane Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000.

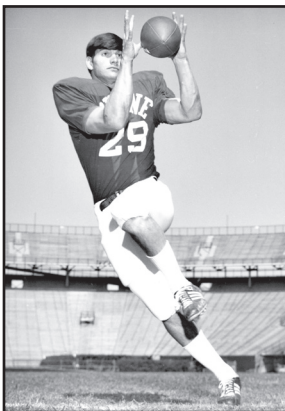

Following college, Barrios was drafted in the 14th round by the hometown New Orleans Saints. He would go on to play for the Birmingham Americans of the World Football League in 1974. When his professional career ended, he returned to his hometown and has been a State Farm Insurance Agent since 1978.

Barrios fights for yardage following a reception at No. 8 Notre Dame in 1971.

Barrios was a three-year letterman for the Green Wave from 1969-71.

Barrios completed his hall of fame career as one of the finest receivers in school history.

Q&A with Steve Barrios

TU: Why did you choose Tulane?

SB: I wanted a Tulane degree and to stay close home.

TU: What was your most memorable moment as a Tulane football player?

SB: My first game back my senior year after missing the first four with a shoulder injury. I caught three passes for over a 100 yards and two touchdowns against North Carolina

TU: What got you into broadcasting?

SB: I was playing in the World Football League with the Birmingham Americans in 1974 and the play-by-play announcer was Larry Matson. He was hired by Tulane in 1978 and remembered me being from Tulane and eventually contacted me to be his color analyst.

TU: Can you recall one of your most memorable games in the radio booth?

SB: The Hawaii Bowl 2002. Tulane was a big underdog and we won. Plus we were in Hawaii!

TU: What is your take on Curtis Johnson?

SB: He is an outstanding choice as the new head coach. Curtis is a fantastic recruiter with great credentials and the players love him.

TU: What do you most remember about your first football game in the radio booth?

SB: These days it's hard for me to remember what I had for breakfast, but I do remember being nervous and not wanting to have any bloopers my first broadcast.

TU: Have you missed any games over the past 29 years?

SB: Yes, four of them and the entire 2005 season because of my duties as a State Farm Agent.

2012 Game Recaps

Game 1 • Rutgers 24, Tulane 12

Mercedes-Benz Superdome • New Orleans, La.
Sept. 1, 2012 • 26,059 Attendance

Ryan Griffin completed 34-of-48 passes for 254 yards - including an 11-yard touchdown pass to Rob Kelley - and Ryan Grant had six catches for 110 yards, but it was not enough as Tulane dropped a 24-12 decision to Rutgers in the season opener for both teams.

The Green Wave defense held the Scarlet Knights to 309 yards of total offense, but big plays and penalties proved to be the difference as Tulane fell in the debut of first-year head coach Curtis Johnson.

Rutgers ran for 151 yards on the night and held the Green Wave ground attack to just eight yards. Turnovers and big plays haunted Tulane in key situations as a long kickoff return led to a Scarlet Knights' touchdown late in the first half and an interception return by Rutgers' Brandon Jones accounted for another. In addition, the Knights had a 46-yard scoring run by Jawan Jamison and a 43-yard touchdown pass from Gary Nova to Brandon Coleman to account for their point total.

Grant, who played in his first game since suffering an injury in last year's season opener, posted the third 100-yard receiving day of his career, and three Tulane defensive veterans tallied career-high tackle totals. Devon Walker led the way with nine tackles (7 solo, 2 assists) while Zach Davis had eight stops (5 solo, 3 assists) and Kenny Welcome added four (all solo). Ryan Travis accounted for Tulane's lone forced turnover with a second-quarter interception which helped set up a 40-yard field goal by Cairo Santos.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Rutgers drew first blood on Jamison's long touchdown run with 9:43 to play before halftime. Travis' interception and Santos' field goals cut the deficit to 7-3 with 41 second before the break, but Rutgers' Jeremy Deering, however, returned the ensuing kickoff 55 yards to swing momentum back to the Scarlet Knights' sideline. The Rutgers offense responded with a five-play, 34-yard drive which Kyle Federico capped with a 28-yard field goal on the final play on the second quarter to make it 10-3 at the half.

Both teams had long drives stall to open the third quarter, and Tulane had something going late in the game as the Green Wave held the ball first-and-10 from the Rutgers 16. The Green Wave could only manage four more yards over the next three plays and Santos connected on his second field goal of the day - this time from 32 yards out - to make it 10-6 early in the fourth.

The Green Wave defense allowed just one first down on the ensuing drive, but Jones stepped in front of a Griffin pass two plays later and took it to the house to stake Rutgers to a 17-6 advantage. Following a three-and-out by Tulane, the Scarlet Knights all but put the Wave away on Nova's scoring strike to Coleman with 7:30 left to play. Griffin's touchdown pass to Kelley 5:07 later accounted for the final score.

Game 2 • Tulsa 45, Tulane 10

H.A. Chapman Stadium • Tulsa, Okla
Sept. 8, 2012 • 17,880 Attendance

Despite cracking the scoreboard first and last, Tulane was not able to hold off Tulsa as the Golden Hurricane scored 45 straight points in a, 45-10, victory in the Conference USA opener for both teams.

The Green Wave opened the game with a 12-play drive that ended with a career-long 49-yard field goal off the foot of Cairo Santos. Ryan Grant scored Tulane's only touchdown of the game on a 66-yard pass from Devin Powell with 3:30 remaining in the game.

Tulsa scored two first-quarter touchdowns, added three in the second quarter and one in the fourth. All six touchdowns were scored on drives of seven plays or less, including a pair of three-play drives. The big strike came when Tulsa quarterback Cody Green found Thomas Robertson for a 74-yard catch and run with 13:54 remaining in the second quarter to make the score 21-3.

The Golden Hurricane's first score came on their second possession of the game when Alex Singleton capped a six-play, 46-yard drive with a two yard rush up the middle. Singleton also scored on Tulsa's next possession on a one-yard rush to complete a three-play, 50-yard drive. Tulsa also had a field goal with less than five minutes remaining in the game.

Overall the Golden Hurricane collected 651 yards of total offense on 87 plays. 364 of those yards came via the run on 55 carries.

The Green Wave managed 177 yards of total offense on 55 plays. Tulane's Sam Scofield, who made his first start of the season at safety, collected a career-high 12 tackles in the loss.

Tulane forced the game's lone turnover when Julius Warmesley jarred the ball loose from Tulsa reserve quarterback Kalen Henderson, which Ryan Travis recovered early in the fourth quarter.

Grant led the Wave with five catches for 109 yards - his second straight 100-plus yard game and the fourth of his career. Powell, who came on in place of starter Ryan Griffin - who left the game in the second quarter with a shoulder injury - completed 8-of-16 passes for 110 yards. Griffin finished 7-of-13 passing for 60 yards passing.

Game 3 • Ole Miss 39, Tulane 0

Mercedes-Benz Superdome • New Orleans, La.
Sept. 22, 2012 • 28,913 Attendance

Spirits were high when Tulane took the field for its game against Ole Miss. Donning all white uniforms and sporting the No. 18 on the left side of their helmets in support of injured teammate Devon Walker - who suffered a spine injury in Tulane's last game on Sept. 8 at Tulsa - the Green Wave were not only attempting to pick up their first win of the year but also give their fallen family member a boost emotionally with a solid showing against the Rebels.

Ole Miss, however, had other ideas as the Rebels rolled to a 39-0 victory.

Darion Monroe had a game-high 12 solo tackles, and the Green Wave defense forced a trio of turnovers via fumble recovery, but it was not enough as the Rebels scored 26 first-quarter points and never looked back.

Things started off well for the Green Wave as Devin Powell found Ryan Grant for a 32-yard strike on the game's first play from scrimmage. Ole Miss forced a punt attempt and the snap got away from Peter Picerelli to set the Rebel offense up at the Tulane 23. Two plays later, Jeff Scott scored on a 13-yard run to provide all the points Ole Miss would need.

The Rebels scored touchdowns on each of their first four drives - capping the second with a Ja-Mes Logan 14-yard run, the third with a 28-yard Randall Mackey score and the fourth with a 23-yard touchdown strike from Bo Wallace to Donte Moncrief - to take a commanding 26-0 advantage.

Tulane had a chance to get on the scoreboard midway through the second quarter as a forced fumble by Kenny Welcome and subsequent recovery by Wendell Beckwith gave the Green Wave the ball at the Ole Miss 23-yard line. Powell and the offense drove down to the Rebels' two, but a fourth-down pass attempt fell harmlessly to the turf to turn the ball over on downs.

The Green Wave got another turnover - this time on a fumble recovery by Ryan Travis - on the second play of the third quarter, but the Tulane offense went three-and-out. Ole Miss followed Picerelli's punt for a touchback by driving 80 yards on 15 plays capped by a four-yard Scott touchdown to extend the lead to 33-0.

A Powell interception on the ensuing drive gave Ole Miss the ball at the Green Wave 40, and the Rebels capitalized on the short field when Bryson Rose split the uprights from 40 yards out to make it 36-0. Rose accounted for the game's final points with a 47-yard field goal with 5:09 left to play in regulation.

Undaunted, the Green Wave continued to fight and moved from their own 25-yard line to the Ole Miss three over the next six plays. On first-and-goal, however, Rebels' defensive back Chief Brown picked off a Powell offering in the endzone to thwart the drive.
