2008-09 ULM Warhawk Women's Basketball

SEASON RECAP

The ULM women's basketball team saw its ups and downs this past season as it finished with a 15-16 overall record – only the fifth losing season under the direction of head coach Mona Martin. The Warhawks entered the season with a wealth of youth that progressed at a consistent pace throughout most of the season. During Sun Belt play ULM found it easy to win at home as it finished 6-3 inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum – 10-4 overall – but felt its lumps on the road against league foes and finished 11-of-16 overall away from home.

Entering its only tournament of the season the Warhawks endured a 17 hour travel day on their way to Huntington, W.V., and the Fifth Third Classic. After suffering through their travel the Warhawks pulled out a pair of come-from-behind victories to take home the championship trophy. Jesse Carrier provided the flare for the excitement as she hit both game-winning treys on her way to earning tournament MVP. During the Classic opener against Morgan State she scored six of her eight points in the last 44 seconds before hitting a 3-ball from the corner to win the game.

In the championship game against host-Marshall, Carrier tied her career-high with five 3-point bombs to total a career-high with 19 points. Lottie Moore provided a running mate for Carrier as she averaged 5.5 points, 6.0 rebounds and 5.5 assists on her way to earning a spot on the all-tournament team. Carrier averaged 50 percent from behind the arc along with 13.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game.

ULM hosted SIU-Edwardsville in a post-Christmas non-conference game which amounted to be the present for head coach Mona Martin from her squad. Entering the contest Martin had 199 victories at the helm of the Warhawks. The ULM players delivered a masterpiece as they forced a season-high 35 turnovers and scored 32 points off the Cougar miscues. The Warhawks also saw season-highs in rebounds (49) and steals (22). Everyone dabbled in the effort as each Warhawks played at least three minutes of action during the 28-point beat down as Martin recorded 200th victory at ULM.

Throughout the conference campaign the Warhawks were led by senior captain guard Lottie Moore who did everything and anything on the court. She led ULM in four of the five major statistical categories – scoring, assists, steals and blocks as well as grabbing the second most rebounds. As the season progressed it became evident that Moore was going to write her names into the record books. She finished her career eighth all-time in steals (182) and 13th in steals (257).

Moore also led the state of Louisiana in steals averaging 2.3 thefts per contest. It doesn't end there as she became one-of-five players in ULM history to record at least 300 points, 100 rebounds and 100 assists in a season. If you add the 70 steals that she recorded, you're talking about the only player in Warhawk history to record such numbers in a season's time. Moore's impressive resume extends off the court as she graduated in Dec. with a degree in marketing in three-and-a-half years.

The Warhawks had their own outside threat – Carrier – who knocked down 37.2 percent (62-of-172) of her long balls on the season. With such a sweet stroke she has moved into fourth place all-time in 3-pointers made (131) and is in fifth place all-time as she has knocked down her 3-poinit attempts at a 37.0 percent clip.

With the combination of Moore and Carrier providing a one-two offensive punch the Warhawks also did their damage on the defensive end of the court setting a Fant-Ewing Coliseum record. ULM held FIU to 31 points – the lowest point total scored by an opponent inside the Warhawks' home. The Golden Panthers scored 12 points at intermission and finished the contest 12-of-46 from the field (26.1 percent) along with 34 turnovers. The Warhawks also set a record by making 14 treys (58.3 percent) in a home contest against Louisiana-Lafayette.

Despite their youth on the squad – seven of the 14 players on the team were freshmen – head coach Mona Martin decided to go with five Louisiana homegrown talented starters. ULM became one of seven programs in the country to have all of its starters from the state in which its school was located. Even though it was full of youth the Warhawks won their first ever Sun Belt Tournament game in program history. ULM toppled the 2008 regular season and tournament champion WKU on its home court to advance to Hot Spring, Ark., and the quarterfinals of the tournament where its season came to an end.

MOORE POSTSEASON HONORS

After leading the ULM women's basketball program to its first Sun Belt Conference Tournament victory and a 15-16 record, senior Lottie Moore was named to a pair of postseason honors. She was recognized by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association as she was nominated to the third team. She also made an impression on the coaches and sports information directors in the Sun Belt Conference as they also voted her to the third team.

Moore, a 5-foot-8 guard from West Monroe, La., led the team in scoring (12.0 points per game), assists (111 – 3.6 per game), steals (70 – 2.3 per game) and blocks (25). She also grabbed the second most rebounds (166) on the squad. Moore was a constant on both ends of the floor as she moved into eighth place all-time in ULM history in steals (182) and 13th all-time in assists (257).

The senior finished her four-year Warhawk career with 851 points, 520 rebounds, 257 assists and 182 steals. During her final campaign, Moore topped double-digits in points on 19 occasions, including a season-high 23 during a road contest against South Alabama. She also became the first player in ULM history to accumulate 300 points, 100 rebounds, 100 assists and 70 steals in a season.

LAST TIME OUT

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. – The UALR Trojans ended the ULM women's basketball season with a 52-40 victory in a hard fought battle Saturday night in the quarterfinals of the Sun Belt tournament inside Summit Arena.

The Trojans (25-5) rode Chastity Reed throughout the contest as she scored 28 points – 18 of which came in the second half – in the game to help UALR build a double-digit lead over the final 14-plus minutes.

ULM (15-16) forced 21 Trojan miscues and would pull to within seven points twice within the final four minutes, but a cold shooting night negated a high intensity man-to-man defensive effort. Each time the Warhawks cut into the deficit Reed had an answer of her own.

Jesse Carrier led the Warhawks with 12 points including 2-of-5 from outside the 3-point line and was named ULM's State Farm Player of the Game.

The rest of the Warhawks struggled on offense as they finished shooting 27.5 percent from the field. "I thought we had a great play tonight," ULM head coach Mona Martin said. "I thought our matchup zone was what we needed to do to beat them, but we had to shoot the ball well and I felt like we shot about as poor as we've shot this year. I credit UALR because they do that to you. The game looked very physical and our shots wouldn't go."

Kassie Courtney and Larrie Williams would each add seven points off the bench for ULM. Sannisha Williams tied a game-high in rebounds with nine boards.

Lottie Moore scored four points, grabbed three rebounds, assisted on three buckets and stole a pair of passes in her final game of her career for the Warhawks. Moore's two thefts moved her into sole possession of eighth place all-time in ULM history.

Reed led UALR (25-5) in scoring and also grabbed a game-high nine rebounds and blocked three shots in her State Farm Player of the Game efforts for the Trojans. Anshel Cooper chipped in eight points and grabbed four rebounds for the Trojans.

Carrier knocked down her second 3-pointer of the opening period to cap a 6-0 Warhawk run over the final 2:19 to cut the Trojans lead to six points. UALR took a 27-21 lead into the intermission.

"Chastity is a great player," Carrier said. "We know that was our main goal coming in is we're going to try to limit her shots and not let her go off. Once you let a player like that go off there is no stopping her because she has such a nice touch."

The Trojans shot 44 percent from the field compared to the Warhawks 26.7 percent in the first half and led all of the opening 20 minutes.

UALR advances to the semifinals and will play the winner of (No. 11) North Texas vs. (No. 3) Denver on Monday at 3 p.m. inside Summit Arena.

The Sun Belt Conference recognized its student-athletes before the start of the contest with certificates of achievement. Shannon Davis and Courtney were awarded a Sun Belt honor roll certificate (3.00-3.49 gpa) for their work in the classroom, as well as Carrier also earned a Sun Belt Commissioner's academic certificate after earning a grade point average between 3.50-4.00. Moore was recognized for her work on the court after earning third-team all-conference last week.

DOWN GOES THE CHAMP

The Warhawks came out Mar. 7 ready for a fight. After scoring the first bucket of the contest, ULM would hold the lead for 32:32 before WKU tied the game for the first time with a free throw at the 7:28 mark. As both teams would exchange blows down the stretch, senior captain Lottie Moore provided the final uppercut with a 3-pointer that pushed the Warhawk lead to five points and sent the Lady Toppers tumbling. ULM made 4-of-6 free throws in the final 46 seconds to increase its lead to nine and the final margin 71-62 to knock off the reigning Sun Belt Conference regular season and tournament champions.

BENCH PROVIDES SPARK

The ULM bench consists of many freshmen and it has experienced its highs and lows this season. The Warhawks experienced a high Mar. 7 during the first round of the Sun Belt tournament. ULM received 46 points from its reserves after seeing an average of 14 points per game from its backups in the previous 17 contests. The 46 points was the most from its non-starters this season. Of those bench points scored, 35 came from its freshmen - the second most by its youthful group this season.

THIRD TIME IS A CHARM

With the Warhawks 71-62 victory over WKU on Mar. 7 ULM now has a Sun Belt tournament victory credited to its program. During its two previous tournament contests the Warhawks were thumped 69-56 against Arkansas State in its first year in the Belt. Their second go-around was a nail-biter as Troy made a jumper with four seconds remaining to defeat the Warhawks 66-65. ULM finally got over its tournament hump with the toppling of the Lady Toppers, 71-62, Wednesday.

JOINING ELITE COMPANY WITH 300, 100, 100

Lottie Moore has developed herself throughout the years at ULM and in the process put her name into the record books. She has put herself in elite company on and off the court as she graduated with a bachelor's degree (marketing) in three-and-a-half years. On the court Moore is one-of-five players in ULM history to record at least 300 points, 100 rebounds and 100 assists in a season. If you throw the 70 steals into the equation she is the only player to accumulate those numbers during a seasons time. You could say that every time you watch her lace it up, you are watching history being made.

CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT

Under the direction of Mona Martin the Warhawks have posted a 10-11 tournament record that includes both the Southland and Sun Belt Conferences. In the Sun Belt they are 1-3. Twice during her coaching career at ULM they advanced to the third game of the tournament only to fall and end their season.

DRIVE AND DISH

Lottie Moore breaks down her opponent with a variety of dribble moves when attacking the basket and Jesse Carrier's forte is to find the open area shoot the deep-ball. On 31 occasions this season, Moore has assisted on a Carrier deep ball, the best connection of any two players on the team. ULM's guard combo of Moore and Carrier continues to provide the punch on offense. Moore is first in scoring with 12.0 and Carrier is second with 10.1 points per game. Moore also leads the team with 3.6 assists per game while Carrier leads in 3-point makes with 64 bombs.

3-POINT KNOCKDOWN

People who know ULM women's basketball are familiar with the outside shooting ability of junior Jesse Carrier. Carrier is the go-to shooter when it comes to the 3-point shot. On Nov. 20 of last season she dropped a career-high five 3-point shots on five attempts against Southern Miss. She also made five 3-point shots in a game this season vs. Marshall on Nov. 22 and again made five 3s against Louisiana-Lafayette on Feb. 11. Carrier ended the 2007-08 season shooting 40.7 percent (50-123) from behind the 3-point line. Currently, Carrier is in fifth place all-time in ULM 3-point percent history hitting at a 37.0 percent (131-354) clip. She is also in fourth place with 131 career 3-point makes.

A STATISTICAL ANOMALY OR JACK OF ALL TRADES?

Lottie Moore is one of two individuals in the Sun Belt Conference to lead their team in at least eight statistical categories. Moore leads the Warhawks in points (372), steals (70), blocks (25), assists (111), free throws made (120), free throws attempted (175), field goals made (119), and field goals attempted (327). She is also second on the Warhawk roster in rebounds with 166. The other player is Louisiana-Lafayette's Alexis Green who leads the Ragin' Cajuns in 12 statistical categories.

ULM FLOCK FLIES AT NIGHT

The ULM Warhawks have moved as one coordinated unit in such a phenomenon that they have found themselves with a record of 9-9 overall and 6-1 at home when playing in games that have a start time of 5 p.m. or later. This flock of basketball players has moved as one unit on defense, moving and communicating instantaneously, stealing seven more passes and forcing 37 more turnovers in those 18 contests. There has been no one Warhawk that has emerged from the flock, but as a unit they have shot 141 more times than their opponents and have made 37.2 percent of their attempts from the field.

RPI RANKING

ULM's hot start to the season has bolstered a high national ranking in the Ratings Percentage Index (RPI). Prior to the Nov. 29th contest against Tulane the Warhawks owned a RPI ranking as high as 10 in the nation. According to Realtimerpi.com ULM has an RPI of 178 and the 137th strongest schedule. Collegerpi.com/women has ULM with a RPI of 179 and the 137th strongest schedule in the country. The NCAA also ranks ULM at 180 as of April 13th.

QUEEN OF STEALS

Lottie Moore has been harassing her opponents all season long on defense to the tune of 70 steals in 31 games. Throughout the season she guarded the opponents' best offensive player and has thus taken over the top spot in the state of Louisiana in the steal category averaging 2.25 per contest. Moore has posted 17 multi-steal games this season and has twice stolen a career-high seven passes. She finishes her career in eighth place all-time in steals at ULM with 182.

BREAKING THE 200 BARRIER

With its 82-54 victory SIU-Edwardsville on Dec. 18, Mona Martin won her 200th victory at ULM. Martin is now seven victories from becoming the winningest women's basketball coach in ULM history. Linda Harper won 213 games over a 13-year span from 1978-1990. Harper's best season came during the 1982-83 season in which her team went 30-2 and made the NCAA Final Four.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Lottie Moore and Jesse Carrier have provided the offensive leadership for the Warhawks this season and for their performances on the floor they have written their names into the ULM record books. Moore has stalked and hunted her opponents all season long and in the process she has stolen the ball 182 times to finish her career in eighth place. Carrier on the other hand, put the dagger into the heart of her foes as she has knocked down 37.0 percent of her career 3-point attempts, good for fifth place. She has also 131 made 3-point attempts placing her in fourth place and is four made 3-pointers short of tying third place all-time.

OFFENSIVE BOARDS

Shannon Davis and Sannisha Williams have spearheaded the offensive rebounding attack as they have combined to record at least three offensive rebounds in 24-of-31 Warhawk games this season. ULM as a team have out rebounded its opponents on the offensive glass in 21-of-31 contests.

FRESHMEN FUNK

Any basketball coach in the country will tell you that freshmen will make mistakes and that the college season is longer and more grueling than that of a high school campaign. This is proving true for the seven freshmen on the 2008-09 Warhawk squad. During the first 12 games of the season they scored on average 35.5 percent of the total point output. In the last 19 contests they have scoring percent average has dropped dramatically to just 18.1 percent (209-of-1157) of the total points scored. The decline in scoring has thus had a trickle down effect in their rebounding and turnovers.

CAREER SCORING HIGHS

Every collegiate basketball player wants to score, but when the night comes and your 'feeling it', special things happen. There have been six occasions when Warhawks have found their shooting touch to record a new career high in points. Elizabeth Torres topped her previous career-high of 12 points against SIU-Edwardsville with a 15 point outburst at Western Kentucky on Mar. 4.

Kassie Courtney topped her previous career high of 11 points with a 16 point effort against Middle Tennessee on Jan. 31. She also knocked down 5-of-6 3-point attempts. Sannisha Williams bested her previous career high of 18 points with a 21-point effort against FAU on Jan 24. Williams shot 9-of-12 from the floor to go along with seven rebounds.

Ashley Wallis had a career-night dropping 19 points against South Alabama (Jan. 7) on 7-of-8 shooting including 5-of-5 from the free throw line. Sumar Leslie scored a career-high 19 points during the Nov. 29 contest against Tulane, while 11 of her points came during the second half. On Nov. 25, Shannon Davis tallied a career-best with 13 points in a home contest against Southern Miss.

CHARGING AND DIVING

Every team needs that one person who is willing to sacrifice their body and lay themselves out for the betterment of the team. Ashley Wallis and Shannon Davis are those people for the ULM Warhawk women's basketball program. In a hustle and body sacrifice statistical sheet kept by co-associate head coach Robert Dallimore, Wallis has taken 20-of-57 charges out of the team, while Shannon Davis has dove or deflected 54 balls.

REBOUNDING MACHINE

After starting the season on the Warhawk bench, Sannisha Williams has exploded since starting on Dec. 17 against New Orleans averaging a team-best 6.2 rebounds per game. During her first nine contests of the season Williams averaged a measly two rebounds per game. During a road contest at Louisiana-Lafayette on Dec. 18, Williams went on a tear grabbing a career-high 18 rebounds. It was also her first double-digit rebounding game. She has since recorded six double-digit rebounding games in conference play. Her last came at Western Kentucky on Mar. 4 with 11 boards, four were offensive.

LOUISIANA STARTERS

The Warhawks are one of seven women's basketball programs in the nation that has five starters from the same state. ULM has started Louisiana products in all but seven games this season. Its most frequent starting lineup combination is that of Kassie Courtney, Lottie Moore, Jesse Carrier, Ashley Wallis, and Sannisha Williams. In total, there has been 11 differ-

KEEP US AT HOME

Every team in the NCAA would like to play all of its game at home and that holds especially true for ULM. ULM finished the season 4-11 on the road and under Mona Martin's direction the Warhawks have posted an 86-132 record (39.4 percent) on the road. On the flip side, the Warhawks and Mona Martin are no strangers to the home cooking of Monroe. The Warhawks finished the season a 10-4 record at home and 6-3 in conference play inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum. During Martin's career she is 119-66 (64.3 percent) all-time at home and 83-43 (65.9 percent) at home during conference play. Martin's best overall season at home came during the 2000-01 season when the Warhawks went 14-3 overall at home and 11-0 inside the friendly confines of Fant-Ewing Coliseum during conference play.

20-POINT THREAT

Lottie Moore topped her previous season-high in points with a 23 point effort during the Jan. 7 contest at South Alabama on 6-of-13 from the field and 9-of-11 at the line. Moore has now scored 20 or more points four times in her career.

Sannisha Williams became the second Warhawk this season to top the 20-point mark with a 21 point effort against Florida Atlantic on Jan. 21. Williams shot 9-of-12 from the field along with seven rebounds.

Lottie Moore scored 21 points in a win over South Alabama on Jan. 7 inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum to become the first Warhawk this season to top the 20-point mark. Moore has three 20-plus scoring outputs in her career with two prior 20-point efforts coming during home Sun Belt contests last season.

UNDER PRESSURE

With the game on the line, making free throws under pressure is a crucial aspect of winning close games. Below are the players who shot free throws with less than five minutes to go in a half and overtime:

Player	FT	Percent
Kassie Courtney	12-13	.923
Jesse Carrier	25-28	.893
Larrie Williams	9-12	.750
Marion Zollicoffer	3-4	.750
Lottie Moore	49-70	.700
Ashley Wallis	12-18	.667
Elizabeth Torres	17-26	.654

TICKLED PINK

Most everyone in today's times knows someone who has passed or is fighting for their life against cancer. The Warhawk team is no different as they have family and friends who are affected by this deadly disease. Thus, because of these tragedies, ULM decided to honor those past and present by wearing pink uniforms against ULL on Feb. 11 and donating to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. This year over 1,250 schools and organizations are participating in WBCA Pink Zone campaign. During last season's Pink Week over 800,000 fans helped out by donating a total of nearly $1,000,000 for the awareness of breast cancer and the research of it.

RECORD SETTING PERFORMANCES

The fans inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum have twice witnessed a record-breaking performance this season. On Jan. 24 against FIU the Warhawks held the Golden Panthers to 31 points in the contest. It was the lowest point total by an opponent inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum and the second lowest point total by an opponent in program history. Warhawk fans then saw a record-setting offensive performance on Feb. 11 against Louisiana-Lafayette when they knocked down 14 3-point attempts. The record was one more than the record set in 1993.

STAT SHEET STUFFER

Lottie Moore continues to be an all-everything player for the Warhawks. On seven occasions this season Moore has recorded at least 10 points, seven rebounds, three assists and two steals. In Moore's career she has posted a stat line with at least six points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals 17 times.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

ULM exploded for 46 points in the second half of the Dec. 28th contest against SIU-Edwardsville. The Warhawks have topped the 40 point barrier four times in a half this season. In the last six seasons ULM is 47-3 when they score 40 or more points in a half, which includes three halves of 50 or more points. The Warhawks highest point output in a half was 54, which they did twice, against Centenary (12/04/03) and at Texas State (2/16.05). Their average margin of victory when scoring 50 or more points in a half is an impressive 26.3 points per contest.

COACH MARTIN 2ND PLACE AMONGST SUN BELT COACHES
Mona Martin's impressive coaching record spans much more than only the annals of ULM. Entering the 2008-09 season, Martin ranks second amongst all Sun Belt Conference coaches in terms of coaching victories in their current position with 207 wins. FIU's Cindy Russo ranks first with 577 victories.

SBC ROAD BURNS
Prior to joining the Sun Belt Conference in the 2006-07 season the Warhawks were annual contenders in the Southland Conference. In the nine seasons prior to joining the SBC the Warhawks had won a conference championship and an average of 12 games against league foes, while finishing no lower than seventh place. In its three seasons playing against Sun Belt competition ULM has won only nine conference road games and an average of seven overall contests against league foes.

SUFFOCATING DEFENSE
ULM used its suffocating defensive pressure to impress a televised regional crowd Sunday inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum for a 70-42 victory over the Troy Trojans. ULM forced Troy into 24 turnovers while holding them to under 30 percent shooting from the field. The Trojans became the fifth opponent ULM has held under 30 percent shooting from the field on the season.

Troy was held to 4-of-34 shooting during a 24 minute stretch that lasted between the end of the first half and into the second period. Troy owned the ball for 73 possession throughout the contest and scored on only 19 (26 percent) tries. They also had 30 possession in which they shot and missed a field goal to go along with 24 possessions they turned the ball over.

RAWSON DONATES TIME
Jordan Rawson, a Warhawk reserve center, donated her time over the Christmas break to children a local hospital in Alexandria, La. "It makes me feel good knowing that the children are happy despite being in the hospital during the Christmas holiday," Rawson said.

Rawson made treat bags along with other various items for kids on the pediatric floor at Cabrini Hospital. These children were unable to spend the holiday season outside the hospital because of their medical needs. "It definitely makes me feel better seeing the faces on those kids," Rawson said. "They don't necessarily know who I am and sometimes they think I am a WNBA celebrity, which makes it fun. Getting to know their stories is what makes it enjoyable."

EARLY CONFERENCE CONTROL
The Warhawks prove they can control the early start of their conference schedule posting at least a 3-1 start 11 different times in program history. Mona Martin has directed her teams to at least 3-1 conference starts in six of her 14 seasons at ULM. Martin guided her team to the best start in conference play during her tenure in the 2000-01 season in which her team started 9-1 and won by an average of 12.1 points.

RINGING IN THE NEW YEAR
The day before the new year brings joy for many, but the Warhawks have had the privilege of twice playing on Dec. 31. The Warhawks dropped a 68-50 contest at UALR in 2008 and also during the 1985-86 season the Warhawks dropped a 70-65 decision to the University of Texas in Austin. Current Associate Head Coach EJ Ok was part of the 1985-86 team that finished the season 26-3 and had a No. 3/13 ranking in the country. On a side note, the Warhawks have never played on New Year's Day in program history.

MOORE GRADUATES
In a special commencement ceremony held the afternoon of Dec. 10, ULM President James E. Cofer, Sr., conferred a degree to Warhawk basketball player Lottie Moore. Moore was unable to attend the Dec. 10 commencement ceremony because of the Warhawks non-conference game in Lake Charles, La., against McNeese State.

"We want to make sure that our athletes enjoy a graduation ceremony," Dr. Cofer said. "It is important because Lottie is a student-athlete and we wanted to make sure that she has the student experience of graduation." ULM's lone senior received a bachelor's degree from the College of Business in marketing in three-and-a-half years. She will continue to take classes during the spring semester to earn a second degree in marketing.

WARHAWK SMARTS
The ULM women's basketball team proved they can not only get it done on the court, but in the classroom. The Warhawks amassed a team grade point average of 3.03 while Jesse Carrier earned a 4.0 GPA. Four other Warhawks were above a 3.3 GPA in the fall semester.

PERFECT FROM THE LINE
ULM ended its Dec. 9 contest against Northwestern State a perfect 13-of-13 from the free throw line. The last time the Warhawks were perfect from the line was nearly eight years ago. On Feb. 17, 2000 against Texas San-Antonio they were a perfect 6-of-6 at the line.

4-GAME WINNING STREAK
Mona Martin's teams are no strangers to winning streaks. This season's four game winning streak is the 10th time they have encountered at least four consecutive wins. On three other occasions the Warhawks have posted a four-game winning streak. Three times they have posted a five-game winning streak, once they won six in a row and seven consecutive, along with a nine-gamer. The best winning streak came during the 2004-05 season in which they won 13-consecutive games.

FIFTH THIRD CLASSIC CHAMPS
Jesse Carrier provided a pair of last second heroic shots to win both games of the Fifth Third Classic in Huntington, W.Va., Nov. 21-22.

During the first game of the tournament against Morgan State, Nov. 21, Carrier scored six of her eight points in the last 44 seconds. She hit a 3-point shot cutting the Morgan State lead to one before hitting the dramatic game-winner from the right corner with 6.1 seconds remaining. Larrie Williams came off the bench to score a career-high 15 points on 7-of-10 shooting - including five rebounds. Lottie Moore, Ashley Wallis and Carrier each scored eight points apiece in the victory.

During the championship game against Marshall, Nov. 22, Carrier again provided excitement with her 3-point shooting. Carrier nailed a 3-point shot with 2:31 on the clock and then hit the game-winning dagger with 30 seconds on the clock to give ULM the champions trophy.

Carrier shot 50-percent from the 3-point line on her way to earning tournament Most Valuable Player. She averaged 13.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and 2.5 assists per contest. Teammate Lottie Moore also earned all-tournament team honors after averaging 5.5 points, 6.0 rebounds and 5.5 assists per game.

FIRING OUT OF THE GATES
ULM has fired out of the gates the last five seasons in non-conference action to the tune of a 39-16 record and .709 winning percentage. The Warhawks 39-16 record against non-conference opponents is the best five-season stretch under Mona Martin. Her best non-conference season came three years ago when her team went 10-1 and won by an average of 11.7 points per game.

ULM INKS WAKEFIELD
The ULM women's basketball team and head coach Mona Martin announced on Nov. 13 the signing of Ashley Wakefield to a National Letter of Intent to begin playing for the Warhawks during the 2009-10 season. Wakefield is the first student-athlete to sign for the 2009-10 season.

Wakefield averaged 19 points, six rebounds and seven assists per game during the summer playing AAU ball in Forth Worth, Texas. The 5-foot-8 guard, averaged 10 points, four rebounds, five assists and three steals as a junior at Naaman Forest High School. "We are very excited that Ashley has decided to join the ULM basketball family," Martin said. "She is very athletic and can penetrate to the basket very strong. She has a nice jump shot and can score from anywhere on the floor."

COACH MARTIN IN MARCH
ULM has posted a combined record of 17-15 (.531) during the month of February. In those 32 games they have played 21 in the conference tournament, posting a 10-11 record in tournament games.

COACH MARTIN IN FEBRUARY
Mona Martin's teams are a combined 52-48 (.520) during the month of February and have posted a 33-17 (.660) home record under her direction during the month. Martin's best coaching during the month of February came in the 2004-05 season in which her team went 7-0 and 4-0 at home.

COACH MARTIN IN JANUARY
Mona Martin has posted a winning record in 9-of-14 seasons at the helm of the Warhawks during January. Her teams are a combined 66-49 (.574) during the month. Twice her teams recorded seven wins during January, 1998 and 2004. The best January by winning percentage came during the 1998-99 season in which they went 7-1 good for a winning percentage of .875.

COACH MARTIN IN DECEMBER
Mona Martin has posted a winning record during the last five seasons in the month of December with an overall record of 18-10 in those months. Her teams are a combined 47-42 (.528) in 14 seasons. During her first nine seasons, her teams posted a winning record three times. The best December came during the 2000-01 season in when they went 6-1.

COACH MARTIN IN NOVEMBER
With the Nov. 25th victory over Souther Miss, Mona Martin ensured a winning record for the fifth-consecutive season in the month of November and has posted a 14-4 overall record the past three seasons in November. Her teams are a combined 23-31 (42.6 percent) in 14 seasons. The prior nine seasons, Martin had only one winning November, during the 1997-98 season in which ULM went 4-1.

WEARING A REDSHIRT
Freshman guard Nicole Tucker will be redshirted during the 2008-09 season. Tucker did not play in ULM's exhibition contest against Louisiana College or its season opener against Arkansas. She is the first scholarship freshman to be redshirted since Courtney Carter during the 2006-07 season. Tucker played for coach Jeff Smith at Grace Community High School where she averaged 23.7 points, nine rebounds and five steals as a senior.

YOUR SPOKESWOMAN
Lottie Moore was chosen as the captain of the 2008-09 ULM season as voted on by the players. This marks the first time Moore has been honored with this title.

RETURNING EXPERIENCE
ULM returns seven letterwinners who played an average of 15.3 minutes per game last season. Lottie Moore, Jesse Carrier and Ashley Wallis combined for 87 starts last season and in total, have 102 games of starting experience.

FRESHMEN FRENZY
Entering the 2008-09 season, seven freshmen joined the Warhawks squad. This is the largest class ever signed by Mona Martin during her 14 seasons at ULM.

ULM HEAD COACH MONA MARTIN
In her 14th season at the helm of the ULM women's basketball program is head coach Mona Martin. A 1976 graduate of Northwestern State, Martin entered the 2008-09 season with an impressive 192-179 collegiate coaching record for the Warhawks which includes a pair of 20-win seasons. Her 200 wins are the second most in program history, trailing only Linda Harper's mark of 213 set from 1978-1990.

Martin enters the 2008-09 season, her third in the Sun Belt Conference, as the second-longest tenured coach at ULM, trailing only coach Rosemary Holloway-Hill's 24 seasons as head coach of the Warhawk softball team. In Martin's 13 previous seasons directing the Warhawks they have tallied eight winning seasons with the best season coming in 2004-05, a 22-8 record, (73.3 percent).

TALENT OUTSIDE THE STATE
Sumar Leslie represents the only player in ULM's 2008 freshmen class from the state of Louisiana. Larrie Williams (Arkansas); Portia Tucker and Marion Zollicoffer (Mississippi); Kathryn Lonsberry, Elizabeth Torres and Nicole Tucker (Texas) all join the Warhawks from outside the Louisiana state borders.

A FRESH POINT TO LEAD
With the loss of two point guards from last season, head coach Mona Martin recruited a pair of point guards to guide and direct her team this season. Sumar Leslie and Elizabeth Torres will be looked upon to guide the Warhawks despite their youth and inexperience at the college level.

SUN BELT TOURNAMENT
Hot Springs, the number one tourist destination for the entire state of Arkansas, was selected by the Sun Belt Conference Executive Committee as the host for the league's annual men's and women's basketball tournaments from the 2009-2011. The tournament will be played in the city's Summit Arena, which was constructed in 2003 with a seating capacity of 6,000 and adjoins the Hot Springs Convention Center. Lo-

SCOUTING THE WARHAWKS
ULM returns seven letterwinners and welcomes seven freshmen to the 2008-09 season. Losing 50 percent of its scoring from last season, the Warhawks will look upon senior Lottie Moore to up her 9.7 points per game average from her junior campaign. Along with the return of outside threat Jesse Carrier, who has a career average of 37.8 percent from the 3-point line, they will look upon a duo of new point guards for leadership and scoring.

LOTTIE MOORE GARNERS PRESEASON HONOR
After finishing the 2007-08 season second at ULM in both scoring and rebounding, Lottie Moore was named to the Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference Third Team in a vote by the league's coaches. Moore, a native of West Monroe, La., finished the season second in the Sun Belt and on the team with 64 steals. She also led the Warhawks in free throws made (74) and attempted (112).

ULM TABBED FOURTH IN WEST DIVISION
Entering their third year in the Sun Belt, the Warhawks were picked ahead of New Orleans, Denver and Louisiana-Lafayette in the West Division. The Warhawks were picked to finish sixth during last year's preseason poll and put together a 10-8 conference record to finish three spots higher, third place.

DALLIMORE PROMOTED
Just four seasons into his collegiate coaching career, Robert Dallimore was promoted to co-associate head coach on October 6. Dallimore's duties include film breakdown, opponent scouting, scheduling, assisting with camp duties and acting as recruiting coordinator.

NCAA CHANGING THE RULES
The NCAA in its yearly effort to better the game has made adjustments to 12 rules. Notable rule changes that the average basketball fan will see are:

• Two three point lines. The 3-point line moved was back from 19'9" to 20'9" (this is for Men only). The desired effect of this is to extend the game and open up the interior. Some believe it will create more room for everyone to operate, post players and perimeter guys.

• Goal tending is called anytime after the ball hits the backboard (even "on the way up"). This eliminates the judgment call by the referees on whether a ball is on the way up or down after it hits the backboard.

• Creation of two categories of Technical Fouls; Type A technical fouls are for unsportsmanlike conduct and will replace Direct Technical Fouls. Type B fouls deal with infractions of the rules that neither involves contact nor causes contact with opponent and fall below the limit of an unsportsmanlike act. If you were scoring technical fouls, it would take two Type A technicals or three Type B technicals to get ejected.

• Home must wear "light" jersey and away must wear "dark". Of course, agreements for special occasions can be agreed by both teams to nullify this rule.

ULM Head Coach Mona Martin

14th Season at ULM
207-195 Overall Record

ULM head coach Mona Martin enters her 14th season at ULM, fitting as it may be, the school's second longest tenured head coach. Martin guides the Warhawks into their third season as members of the Sun Belt Conference.

Last year, Martin led the Warhawks to a 10-8 Sun Belt record and 17-13 overall record. The Warhawks were predictied to finish sixth in the Sun Belt West Division preseason poll. Winning a conference-best six road games, propelled the Warhawks to a third place finish in the West Division.

"Coaching at ULM is special to me because of the support from the administration," Martin said. "I am proud of our players because of the high graduation that we have attained while I have been here. It means a lot to have quality people graduate from this program."

In their final season in the Southland Conference, the Martin-led Warhawks advanced to the O'Reilly Auto Parts/Southland Conference Tournament semifinals. ULM played Stephen F. Austin for the second time to overtime in eight days, coming up one point shy of their second consecutive trip to the championship game.

In 2004-05, Martin led ULM to a Southland Conference regular season co-championship and a 20-win season (22-8) for only the seventh time in school history. Martin coached former Warhawks standout Nina Randle to a new ULM and SLC career record in steals on her way toward earning all-Southland Conference first team and SLC All-Tournament honors. Randle went on to play professionally in Switzerland. Michelle Biley, then a junior, also received all-Southland honors, and Aishie Banks, also a junior in 2004-05, was named to the SLC all-Tournament team.

During Martin's time at ULM, the Warhawks have experienced great individual success. Martin has guided 17 individuals who were named to all-conference teams, including four on the All-SLC first team. In 2005-06, LaJeanna Howard was named to the All-Southland Conference second team. Martin was twice named the SLC Coach of the Year, picking up the honor in 1998 and again in 2005.

Entering the 2008-09 campaign, Martin's 192 career wins at ULM are the second-most by a Sun Belt Conference head coach at their current school. Having her program in a situation where it can vie for the conference title year in and year out is exactly what Martin envisioned when she arrived at ULM in 1995 after compiling a 120-70 (.631) record in six seasons at West Monroe High School.

Martin began her career in 1976 at Natchitoches, La., Central High School, only three months after graduating from Northwestern State with a bachelor's degree in elementary education and physical education. Martin and Central got started together because the school was about to play its inaugural season of girls' basketball and needed a coach. The combination was a great success.

In 11 years, Martin guided NCHS to a 266-91 record, a winning percentage of .746. All but one of her teams went into the state playoffs, four of them went to the state final four and three—the 1981, 1986 and 1987 squads—won state championships.

Her 1986 team went 36-0, won the state title and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation. Martin was not only voted the state's top coach but the National Coach of the Year.

The Lady Chiefs never finished lower than second in the district under Martin, winning six district crowns and finishing second five times. She was named district Coach of the Year four times and Louisiana Coach of the Year three times (1982, 1986, 1987). Her last two Natchitoches Central teams were 70-3 and won state titles both years.

In May 1987, Martin entered collegiate coaching when she was named associate head coach at Northwestern State. In her two years, she helped the Lady Demons go 38-20 and make their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

From Northwestern State, Martin moved to West Monroe High School where success followed. In her six years at WMHS, she put the Lady Rebels in the state playoffs every year and won three District 2-5A championships. Her 1994 squad went to the state finals and Martin received her fourth state Coach of the Year award.

Her coaching career also includes, 10 seasons of AAU basketball coaching experience, serving as co-head coach of the New Orleans-based Domino's team. Her first AAU team advanced to the 1986 national championship game. Her final squad, just before she was named ULM head coach, finished seventh among 77 teams at the 1995 national championships in Dallas.

At ULM, she has a record of 192-179 overall and 127-103 in league contests as a member of the Southland Conference. After opening with two 5-21 seasons, she guided her 1997-98 team to a 19-9 record and a second-place finish in the Southland, earning Martin Coach of the Year awards from both the Southland Conference and the Louisiana Sports Writers Association. Her 2000-01 team was 20-9 and again second in the Southland.

Martin's overall head coaching record for 13 years at ULM and 17 as a high school coach is 595-353 (.630).

The ULM coach is married to Mike, a design engineer for Superlift in West Monroe. Born in New Orleans, Martin grew up in Houston, Texas, and graduated from Waltrip Senior High School. In addition to her bachelor's degree from Northwestern State, she also received a master of science degree in physical education from the same institution in 1979.
