QUICKLY

Following a tough five-game road trip, the ULM Warhawks return home for a five-game homestand beginning with a pair of mid-week games against old Southland Conference rivals McNeese State and Northwestern State.

The two in-state foes are ULM's longest standing rivals. The game on Wednesday night with Northwestern State will be the 200th meeting between the two schools and Tuesday's battle with McNeese State will be the 174th all-time meeting.

The Warhawks have had success at home this season posting a 14-4 mark. One more win would mark the 21st time in 27 seasons that ULM has won at least 15 home games. ULM is 7-2 in non-conference home games this season, with both losses (one to Northwestern State) coming in extra innings.

HITS = WINS

The Warhawks are 17-4 on the season when they out-hit their opponents.

On the flip side, ULM is 3-11 on the season when being out-hit by its opponent. The Warhawks finally broke the trend in the series opener against New Orleans. The Privateers out-hit ULM 15-9, but the Warhawks won the game 8-6.

The major anomaly in this trend came against Arkansas. ULM and UA split the two-game series and each won the game in which they were out-hit.

ERRORS = LOSSES

The Warhawks are 7-8 on the season when committing two or more errors and 4-6 when committing three or more errors.

In games when ULM commits either one or no errors it has a 15-8 record on the season, and the Warhawks are 12-4 when not committing an error. On the flip side, ULM is 13-5 when its opponents commit two or more errors and are 9-11 when opponents commit one or no errors.

SHAKE CHASING 100

ULM head coach Jeff Schexnaider is chasing career coaching victory number 100. Currently with 85 under his belt in two plus seasons, Shake would become the sixth coach in ULM history to reach 100 victories.

Lou St. Amant has the most career coaching victories with 414, while Smoke Laval has the highest winning percentage at .603 (241-159).

DONNIE BASEBALL

Junior right-hander Don Williams became the first Warhawk pitcher to throw back-to-back complete games since Aaron Dobbins in 2002 -- Dobbins threw a nine inning & a seven inning complete game.

For his work against Southern Miss (3/24) and Mississippi State (4/1), Williams earned back-to-back Louisiana Pitcher of the Week honors by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association -- he was named Sun Belt Pitcher of the Week following the USM game.

Williams allowed just four hits in the road victory over the Golden Eagles and faced just five batters over the minimum.

Against the Bulldogs, Williams struck out a career-high and ULM season-high nine batters and allowed just one run on seven hits, while walking just one.

WILLIAMS NAMED LOUISIANA PITCHER OF THE WEEK -- AGAIN!

ULM junior pitcher Don Williams was named Louisiana Pitcher of the Week for the second straight week, the Louisiana Sports Writers Association announced last Tuesday afternoon.

Williams threw his second straight complete game last Wednesday in ULM's 7-1 victory over Mississippi State. The Oklahoma City, Okla., native struck out a career-high and ULM season-high nine batters dazzling the crowd of 3,673 fans at Warhawk Field -- the fifth largest crowd in stadium history.

The right-hander became the first Warhawk pitcher to throw a complete game in back-to-back starts since Aaron Dobbins went the distance twice in a row back in 2002. Williams issued just one walk on the night as he improved to 3-0 on the season. He scattered seven hits allowing just a solo home run in the third inning.

His performance against the Bulldogs last week coupled with his complete game, four-hitter two weeks ago at Southern Miss has earned him the Friday night start against Louisiana-Lafayette this weekend.

HERE COMES THE BOOM!

After a slow start to the season at the plate, second baseman Boomer Blanchard has been on fire over his past 21 games (22 overall). The LSU-Eunice transfer has raised his batting average over a 100 points (.238-.346) during the stretch:

Batting Average: .418 (38-91)

Hits: 38

Runs Scored: 31

Doubles: 3

Triples: 0

Home Runs: 6

RBIs: 13

Slugging Percentage: .648

Walks: 13

TAKING BACK THE BELT

After a slow start to conference play (4-5) which saw the Warhawks lose two of their first three conference series of the season, ULM has stormed back and won three straight weekend series before suffering a sweep at MTSU last weekend.

The key to the success has been winning on Friday night. When the Warhawks win the series opener they are 3-0, however when losing the series opener they are 1-3.

Last season ULM won 7-of-10 series openers in SBC play and won six of the seven series in which it won the opening game.

A LITTLE STREAKY, DOG!

The Warhawks have been a little streaky all season long. After dropping the season opener, ULM rolled off six straight wins to open 6-1. The Warhawks then lost four of their next five games, before sweeping New Orleans in a three-game set to go on a run where they won four-of-five games.

What followed was a stretch of four straight losses. ULM answered back with a run of 12 wins in 15 games -- the Warhawks had won five in a row until a 12-2 loss to UALR on 4/4.

Since a victory at No. 5 Arkansas, the Warhawks have dropped four straight.

SMITH FINDING HIS GROOVE

After Perry Smith and Kelvin York opened the season platooning in right field, Smith has picked up the start in the last 14 games and has proved his worth.

Over that stretch, Smith his hitting .468 (22-for-47) with a double, two home runs and 14 RBIs. He has also scored 15 runs and has a .537 on-base percentage.

Smith is not the only one playing well over that stretch, Nick Wade is batting .400 (20-for-50) with three doubles and two home runs -- he also has a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage at third base -- and Boomer Blanchard is hitting .455 (25-for-55) with three doubles and two home runs.

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES

The Warhawks are 14-4 at home this season and the numbers reflect their record.

Batting Average: .339
Doubles / Game: 2.2
Home Runs / Game: 1.3
Hits / Game: 12.1
Runs / Game: 8.9
ERA: 4.47
Fielding Percentage: .976
Strikeouts / Nine Innings: 6.3

SHUFFLING THE DECK

So far through 38 games this season, head coach Jeff Schexnaider has used 26 different starting lineups at the plate and 15 different lineups in the field.

The Warhawks have had 16 different position players earn at least one start and 13 different players have four or more starts.

KC CALLING THE HOGS

Fifth-year senior saved his first career Division I complete game for the fifth-ranked team in the country.

In front of a crowd of over 7,600 fans, Christensen went the distance for the Warhawks in a 3-2 victory at Arkansas.

He allowed just two runs -- both came on one home run -- on eight hits. Christensen struck out four Arkansas batters and issued just two walks on the night.

CURRENT WARHAWKS IN THE MLB DRAFT

Throughout ULM's history rich baseball program Warhawk players have been selected 63 times* in the Major League Draft.

A pair of current Warhawks have heard their name called by a MLB team. Outfielder Jon Prevost was a 39th round selection of the Florida Marlins in 2005 following his senior year of high school. Shortstop Ben Soignier was selected in the 17th round of the 2008 Draft by the Marlins.

* This number does not include players who were drafted before arriving at ULM.

DEFENDING SUN BELT CHAMPIONS

The Warhawks enter the 2009 season with a bullseye square on their backs. In just their second year as a member of one of the nation's best conferences, the Warhawks rolled off a 20-10 league mark en route to winning the regular season title. During their run to the top, the Warhawks swept three-game series from New Orleans (2nd in SBC), Florida Atlantic (4th in SBC) and Middle Tennessee (8th in SBC). ULM also posted the best home Sun Belt record in the league by going 11-4 at Warhawk Field. The Warhawks won four of their five SBC series at home.

WILLIAMS & SMITH EARN WEEKLY HONORS

Fresh off a series sweep of Sun Belt Conference rival Louisiana-Lafayette, Perry Smith was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week and Don Williams was named Louisiana Pitcher of the Week.

Smith's honor is his first of the season, while Williams earns the Louisiana honor for a remarkable third straight time.

Smith hit .556 during the weekend series against the Cajuns and finished with seven RBIs. The LSU-Eunice transfer set the tone early, going 3-for-5 with a career-high five RBIs in Friday night's 16-7 series-opening win. Smith averaged 2.3 RBIs per game to earn the award.

Williams improved to 4-0 on the season after allowing just one earned run in ULM's 16-7 victory over ULL in Friday night's series opener. He struck out five Cajun batters and issued just one free pass in eight innings -- Williams entered the game after throwing back-to-back complete games against Southern Miss and Mississippi State to earn his first career Sun Belt start.

SOIGNIER NAMED SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Ben Soignier was named Sun Belt Player of the Week after earning MVP honors of the inaugural Warhawk Classic opening weekend. He hit .533 with a pair of home runs and 10 RBIs. The senior from West Monroe, La., scored six times and finished the weekend with a 1.000 slugging percentage.

After the opening weekend, Soignier led the Sun Belt in RBIs and total bases; he is tied for the SBC lead in hits and home runs. The Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year opened the season with a home run against Northwestern State on Friday night and then dominated Stephen F. Austin and Mississippi Valley State over the final two days.

Soignier went 7-for-11 from the plate and drove in eight runs over the final two games of the weekend. He had a grand slam and a double in ULM's 24-7 victory over Stephen F. Austin – the 24 runs against the Lumberjacks were the most scored by any team in the country over the weekend. Soignier followed up that performance with a 4-for-5, three-RBI outing against the Delta Devils.

This is the second straight year that a ULM player has earned the first Sun Belt Hitter of the Week honors of the season. Kyle Suire earned the league's weekly honor after hitting .625 with a pair of home runs and 17 total bases against Nicholls State during the 2008 opening weekend.

SOIGNIER NAMED LOUISIANA HITTER OF THE WEEK

ULM shortstop Ben Soignier was named Louisiana Hitter of the Week, the Louisiana Sports Writers Association announced March 17. Soignier hit .444 for the week (3/10-3/15) with four doubles, a home run and six RBIs as the Warhawks went 4-1, including a three-game sweep of Sun Belt Conference rival New Orleans.

Soignier is the first Warhawk to earn Louisiana Hitter or Pitcher of the Week honors this season; however he was named Sun Belt Player of the Week after the opening weekend of play.

The All-American hit .500 (6-for-12) in the sweep of New Orleans with two doubles, a home run and four RBIs. Soignier finished the week going 2-for-4 in each of ULM's final four games and posted a .833 slugging percentage over all five games.

SOIGNIER AMONG NATION'S BEST

Entering the season shortstop Ben Soignier ranked among the nation's best in several career categories among active players.

Runs Scored:

1. William Block -- FAU173
2. Aaron Bray -- UNC Charlotte.....169
3. Ben Soignier -- ULM164

PITCHING DEPTH

One thing that hurt the Warhawks down the stretch last season was a lack of depth in the pitching staff.

Last year ULM had 13 players log innings on the mound, with 11 recording 20+ innings, eight logging 30+ innings and four had 40+ innings.

During the opening weekend, ULM sent 13 pitchers to the mound, all of which recorded at least one inning of work.

This season, six players have already recorded 20+ innings, four are over the 30+ inning threshold and four have 40+ innings.

So far through 38 games this year the Warhawks have sent 17 different pitchers to the mound. Of the 17 pitchers that have thrown, nine have ERA's under 6.00, 10 different players have recorded a win and seven different players have a save.

GOING, GOING, GONE & GONE AGAIN

Boomer Blanchard and Jon Prevost each hit two home runs at Dallas Baptist on March 17. They continued their hot hitting sending another one out of the park in the following game against the Patriots. Four different players (two from DBU) each hit two home runs in the game on March 17.

MID-WEEK GAMES

ULM struggled during mid-week games last season posting a 6-7 record over the course of the season.

So far this season the Warhawks are 6-5 in mid-week contests with wins over Arkansas, Mississippi State, Tulane and Southern Miss.

THE RISING

In each of ULM's three seasons in the Sun Belt Conference the Warhawks have been rising in the preseason polls.

The Warhawks were picked to finish last in 2007 and went on to tie for fifth; in 2008 the Warhawks were picked eighth and went on to win the league and this year the Warhawks were picked to finish third.

OH CANADA!

ULM left fielder and Montreal native Jon Prevost was on fire over a 10-game period for the Warhawks (3/17-3/29).

With his parents, Daniel and Linda, in the stands for the first time this season after flying in from Montreal (for the first seven games of the stretch), Prevost put on a show:

Batting Average: .400
 Hits: 18
 Runs Scored: 18
 Doubles: 5
 Triples: 1
 Home Runs: 6
 RBIs: 16
 Slugging Percentage: 1.094

SOIGNIER-SCHEXNAIDER CONNECTION

Shortstop Ben Soignier and head coach Jeff Schexnaider have been together for eight of the last nine seasons -- the lone year apart was Soignier's redshirt freshman season at Alabama in 2005.

Schexnaider was the head coach at West Monroe High School for all four of Soignier's seasons as a Rebel before coming to ULM as an assistant coach in 2005.

Schexnaider also coached third baseman Nick Wade at West Monroe for two seasons before coming to ULM.

PRODUCTION FROM THE TWO-HOLE

For the second straight season the Warhawks have got outstanding production from the number two spot in the lineup.

Last season, Ben Soignier hit .394 with 21 doubles, two triples, 16 home runs and 46 RBIs.

This season, Jon Prevost is hitting .338 with 10 doubles, a triple, 11 home runs and 37 RBIs.

ULM TAKES WARHAWK CLASSIC TITLE

Thanks to its 2-1 record and 15-4 victory over Mississippi Valley State, ULM claimed the inaugural Warhawk Classic title. ULM and MVSU both finished 2-1, but the Warhawks victory over the Delta Devils gave the home team the title.

Ben Soignier was named MVP of the tournament, while Matt Collins, Matt Laird, Nick Wade and Keith Christensen were named to the All-Tournament Team.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

The Warhawks games this season will be broadcast live on 1680 AM in the Monroe area and worldwide on ULMathletics.com. Bruce Hanks returns for his fifth season as the "Voice of the Warhawks."

Warhawks All*Access returns for its second year and fans will be able to watch 26 of ULM's 28 home games and select road games live on ulmathletics.com.

ULM VS. THE SOUTHLAND

The Warhawks squared off against their former conference 14 times last season and finished with a 9-5 record. ULM has nine games scheduled against Southland Conference opponents this season and are 2-2 through three games. The Warhawks are 489-455-2 (.518) all-time against the current members of the Southland Conference.

D-WARD NAMED TO WATCH LIST

ULM closer Derek Ward was named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Watch List.

Ward, a senior from Lewisville, Ark., led the Warhawks with a 3.38 ERA and seven saves last year after transferring to ULM from Texarkana Junior College. His 28 appearances last year were the second most in school history and his seven saves ranked fourth best. He already ranks sixth on the career saves list and is just three relief appearances out of the top 10 in that category.

One of just 40 pitchers on the preseason list, Ward is one of just two players from the Sun Belt Conference to be recognized

MAC IS BACK

After sitting out the weekend series against Grambling State due to a minor injury, ULM's starting catcher Ryan McMillan is back behind the plate.

The senior Aussie led the Warhawks at the dish against Western Kentucky batting .571 (4-for-7) with a double, two RBIs and two sacrifice flies. McMillan also drew three walks and finished the weekend with a .583 on-base percentage.

WORLD SERIES EXPERIENCE

Six ULM players have World Series experience at the junior college level.

Matt Collins and Perry Smith were both members of the LSU-Eunice squad that won the 2006 NJCAA Division II World Series. Smith and Boomer Blanchard helped lead LSUE to last year's National Championship.

Drew Graham, Ryan McMillan and Tom O'Gorman were teammates on the 2007 Cowley County Community College squad that played in the NJCAA Division I World Series.

Justin Anderson was a member of the Central Arizona squad that advanced to the semifinals of the 2008 Division I World Series.

WILLIAMS NAMED SBC / LOUISIANA PITCHER OF THE WEEK

After throwing a complete game, four-hitter at Southern Miss last Tuesday night, ULM junior pitcher Don Williams has been named Sun Belt Conference Pitcher of the Week and Louisiana Pitcher of the Week, the SBC announced Monday and the Louisiana Sports Writers Association announced Tuesday.

Williams faced just five batters over the minimum in ULM's 9-2 victory over the Golden Eagles – ULM's second straight victory over Southern Miss in Hattiesburg, Miss. The Oklahoma City, Okla., native struck out four batters and became the first Warhawk pitcher to throw a complete game since Jared Jennings went the distance against Troy on May 11, 2008.

The win over the Golden Eagles was one of four victories for the Warhawks last week and helped key a run of five wins in six games.

Williams is the second ULM player to earn Sun Belt Conference and Louisiana honors this season. Shortstop Ben Soignier was named SBC Player of the Week following the opening weekend of the season and LSWA Player of the Week on March 17.

PURSUIT OF IMMORTALITY

Senior shortstop Ben Soignier has an opportunity to do something that no other player in ULM history has accomplished -- being named an All-American in three seasons.

The West Monroe, La., product was named to the Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America Team in 2006 and he was named to the Louisville Slugger and Ping!Baseball All-America teams in 2008.

JUNIOR COLLEGE CONNECTION

Baseball, more than any other sport in collegiate athletics, depends on junior college players to come in make an impact.

The Warhawks have 21 junior college players out of 33 total players on the roster.

WHAT'S COMING BACK

The Warhawks return six position starters and 8-of-13 pitchers from last year's Sun Belt Conference championship team. The team returns 17-of-27 letterwinners from last year's club.

ULM returns three of its four infielders and two of its three outfielders. Replacing Kyle Suire at second base will be LSU-Eunice transfer Boomer Blanchard, who hit .378 with 11 home runs and 30 stolen bases last year. Perry Smith will help take over the duties in the outfield for the departed Dexter Fontenot. Smith was the MVP of the 2008 NJCAA Division II World Series and hit .360 with six home runs and 12 doubles for the season.

BUSY OFF-SEASON

It was a busy off-season for shortstop Ben Soignier. The senior was named to four All-America teams (Louisville Slugger, National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, RecruitingClosers.com, College Baseball Insider), was named Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year, was named one of the top 10 seniors in the nation by Rivals.com and was named to the Brooks Wallace National Player of the Year Watch List.

TWICE AS NICE

For the second straight season ULM defeated a ranked Conference USA team on its home field in the first mid-week contest of the year. Last year, ULM downed No. 29 Southern Miss 4-1 in Hattiesburg and then on Feb. 25 the Warhawks handed No. 34 Tulane a 4-3 setback in the first meeting between the two clubs since 1994.

ULM VS. THE SUN BELT

GO THE DISTANCE

Don Williams' complete game at Southern Miss on March 31 was the first of the season for ULM and spurred a run of deep pitching performances for the Warhawks, including his second consecutive complete game as he went the distance against Mississippi State two weeks ago.

Over the Warhawks last 16 games, ULM has used three pitchers or less in 12 of those games. That stretch includes the only three complete games of the season.

- Southern Miss -- Williams (9.0)
- Florida Atlantic (1) -- Christensen (6.1), Miller (1.2)
- Florida Atlantic (2) -- Anderson (6.0), Jones (3.0)
- Florida Atlantic (3) -- Poche (7.0), Graham (2.0)
- Mississippi State -- Williams (9.0)
- UALR -- Christensen (6.0), Turner (1.1), Cawthon (1.2)
- UALR -- Anderson (7.0), Miller (0.2), Brown (1.1)
- ULL (1) -- Williams (8.0), Christensen (1.0)
- ULL (2) -- Anderson (4.2), Graham (3.1), Brown (1.0)
- Arkansas -- Christensen (9.0)
- Middle Tennessee (2) -- Anderson (5.1), Graham (2.2)
- Middle Tennessee (3) -- Poche (8.1)

The Warhawks are 17-7 on the season when starters go 5+ innings.

HANGING FROM THE RAFTERS

ULM retired the jerseys of Chuck Finley and Ben Sheets on November 3, 2007, marking the first time in the program's history that a player has had their jersey retired.

Former ULM head coach Lou St. Amant is the only other person in the program's history to have this honor bestowed upon them.

Current head coach Jeff Schexnaider had to switch from his traditional #15 jersey to #51 last season to honor the retirements.

WARHAWKS & DEMONS WASHED OUT

ULM's game scheduled for March 30 at Northwestern State was postponed until May 6 due to inclement weather.

BACK-TO-BACK CHAMPS

Four times in its history ULM has won conference championships in back-to-back seasons. In 1968 & 1969 the Warhawks won the Gulf States Championship; in 1969 & 1970 the Warhawks again won the Gulf States Championships; in 1995 & 1996 ULM won back-to-back Southland Conference titles, in 1995 the Warhawks won the tournament title and in 1996 they claimed the regular season crown; and in 1999 & 2000 ULM once again double-dipped as the Southland champions winning back-to-back regular season titles.

POCHE BREAKS OUT

Sophomore Jordy Poche had a breakout week for the Warhawks both at the plate and on the mound (2/25-3/1). He hit .562 (9-for-16) for the week with a pair of doubles, 3 RBIs and four runs scored. Poche also stole a pair of bases, struck out just one time and recorded multiple hits in all three games. In his pitching performance against Tulane, Poche struck out six Green Wave batters in five innings of work -- he allowed just four hits and two runs. He is currently third on the team with a .368 batting average.

WARHAWKS DIG THE LONG BALL

One season after destroying the school record with 93 home runs, the Warhawks are at it again with 52 round trippers through the first 38 games. ULM is on pace to hit 77 home runs this season, which would be the second most in school history.

HEAD COACH JEFF SCHEXNAIDER

2008 Sun Belt Coach of the Year Jeff Schexnaider returns for his third season at the helm of his alma mater. Schexnaider led the Warhawks to a 34-24 overall mark and a 20-10 record in the Sun Belt last year as ULM won the regular season conference title in just its second year in the league.

In Schexnaider's two seasons as the club's skipper, the Warhawks have posted the school's best mark in seven seasons (34 wins in 2008) and in five seasons (29 wins in 2007).

In 2008, the Schexnaider led Warhawks set school records in hits (697), doubles (139), home runs (93), RBIs (465), total bases (1,141) and double plays turned (76). ULM finished just one run shy of the runs scored record and finished the season leading the NCAA in double plays turned per game averaging 2.71.

Under his guidance, Ben Soignier earned All-American honors from both Louisville Slugger and Ping! Baseball. Soignier and Dexter Fontenot were named first team all-conference, while Kyle Suire and Ryan McMillan were tabbed to the second team. Fontenot also earned ProLine National Hitter of the Week honors during the 2008 season.

Fontenot set the single-season school record with 67 RBIs, while Soignier set records in runs scored (83), hits (93) and total bases (166). Soignier finished as the NCAA leader in runs per game (1.29).

The Warhawks finished the season ranked in the top 25 nationally in 11 different categories: batting average (16th), runs per game (10th), total runs (22nd), hits (22nd), doubles per game (16th), doubles (22nd), home runs per game (8th), home runs (13th), slugging percentage (7th), double plays turned per game (1st) and double plays turned (2nd).

In his first season, Schexnaider led ULM to a 29-28 overall record and a 15-14 mark in the Sun Belt, finishing just a half game out of second place in the seventh best league in the nation. The Warhawks set the then school home run record with 70 on the season, passing the previous mark of 62 set in 1986; a team for which Schexnaider played on and hit seven home runs.

The Warhawks finished the season ranked 14th in the NCAA averaging 1.23 home runs per game and 28th in the nation with a slugging percentage of .477. Under his direction, David Mixon finished 73rd in the NCAA with eight saves.

Schexnaider's presence was felt immediately when Soignier was named to the Louisville Slugger Freshmen All-America Team following the 2006 season. The shortstop, who played for Schexnaider at West Monroe High School, hit .348 with five home runs, 10 doubles, one triple and 30 RBIs.

Schexnaider took over the reigns of the Warhawks midway through the 2006 campaign, coaching the final 42 games of the season. ULM started the season 0-13 prior to Schexnaider taking control of the team. When Schexnaider took charge of the program, the Warhawks went 18-24 over the course of the season.

WARHAWKS INK NINE FOR 2010

ULM has signed nine players for the 2010 season.

RHP/UTL Taylor Abdalla of Loranger, La., (Loranger HS); RHP Wil Browning of Kosciusko, Miss., (Holmes CC); OF Skyler Barrentine of Lake Charles, La., (Sam Houston HS); RHP Luke Briley of Natchitoches, La., (Mississippi Gulf Coast CC); RHP Stefan Comeaux of Breaux Bridge, La., (LSU-Eunice); SS Judd Edwards of Oxford, Ala., (Oxford HS); RHP Drew Grainer of Thibodaux, La., (Mississippi Gulf Coast CC); OF Chris Grayson of Monroe, La., (Frank Phillips JC) and C Nick Rome of Ruston, La., (Ruston HS) all signed NLI's to play for the Warhawks next season

Abdalla, a 6-foot-0 right-handed pitcher and utility player, was an all-conference and all-district selection at Loranger High School as a junior. He hit .351 with six home runs and 18 doubles – over 45 percent of his hits went for extra bases. Abdalla also flashed some speed stealing a team-high 24 bases. A two-sport star, Abdalla is the Wolves starting quarterback.

Browning, a 6-foot-3 right-handed pitcher, logged 48.0 innings last season for Holmes CC posting a 3-3 record with a 5.83 ERA. The Kosciusko, Miss., native struck out 36 batters in his rookie campaign with the Bulldogs and was named to the NJCAA Academic All-American Team.

Comeaux, a 6-foot-1 right-handed pitcher, posted a 5-1 record for the NJCAA National Champion LSU-Eunice Bengals last year. He started 11 games striking out 52 batters in 52 innings of work, while issuing just 22 walks.

Barrentine was an all-state selection last season for Sam Houston High School and is a two-time all-district honoree. He dominated opposing pitching as a junior to the tune of a .486 batting average with 10 home runs and 45 RBIs. As a sophomore, he hit .494 with one home run and 31 RBIs. The 5-foot-11 Barrentine also earned all-district honors as a wide receiver and kick returner for the Panthers' football team.

Grayson started 44 games for Frank Phillips College as a freshman last season. The 6-foot-1 Neville High School product hit .319 with 11 doubles, four triples, two home runs and 25 RBIs for the Plainsmen.

Briley began his collegiate career at Jones County CC last season before transferring to Mississippi Gulf Coast CC for this upcoming season. As a freshman, the 6-foot-3 right-handed pitcher tossed 55.0 innings and posted a 5.56 ERA.

Edwards, a 6-foot-0 shortstop, hit .410 with six home runs, 42 RBIs and 31 stolen bases as a junior last season. He is a two-time all-state honoree for Oxford High School and was named to the 2008 Under Armour/Baseball America Preseason All-America Team. Edwards was a member of the 2007-08 Alabama Top Prospect Team, was a two-time Team One South invitee and was a Perfect Game Underclassmen Top 200 invitee in 2007.

Grainer, a 6-foot-1 right-handed pitcher, went 6-5 with a 4.31 ERA as a freshman at Mississippi Gulf Coast CC last season. He struck out 99 batters in just 79.1 innings of work and finished the season with a 3.2 K/BB ratio to earn first team all-state honors.

As a senior at Thibodaux High School, Grainer struck out 149 batters in 91 innings of work en route to a 13-2 record. He was a two-time Louisville Slugger All-America selection and a two-time first team all-state selection at Thibodaux and was named the 2007 District 6-5A MVP.

Rome, a two-sport star at Ruston High School, has earned all-state, all-northeast Louisiana and all-city honors as a catcher. He transferred to Ruston after two seasons at Calvary Baptist Academy where he started on the varsity squad as a freshman and sophomore.

As a junior, he hit .352 with 23 RBIs and six doubles. Through 25 games this season, Rome is batting .462 with 17 RBIs, eight doubles, a pair of triples and a home run. As a sophomore at Calvary, Rome hit .450 with 12 doubles, four triples, three home runs and 52 RBIs helping lead the Cavaliers to the Louisiana state title.
